

Driver’s License Revocation

Students who are sixteen (16) or seventeen (17) years old who become academically deficient or deficient in attendance shall be reported to the Transportation Cabinet for driver's license, permit or driving privilege revocation.¹

ACADEMIC AND ATTENDANCE DEFICIENCIES

Academic and attendance deficiencies for students age sixteen (16) or seventeen (17) enrolled in regular, alternative, part-time, and special education programs shall be defined as follows:

1. They shall be deemed academically deficient if they have not received passing grades in at least four (4) courses, or the equivalent of four (4) courses based on the table below, taken in the preceding semester.

Number of Courses Per Semester	Number of Courses Student Needs to Pass to be Compliant
4	3
5	4
6	4
7	5
8	6

2. They shall be deemed deficient in attendance when they accumulate nine (9) unexcused absences in a class/classes for the preceding semester. Suspensions shall be considered unexcused absences.

REPORTING DEFICIENCIES

The Superintendent or his designee shall report deficiencies to the appropriate agency at the end of each semester. Reports for accumulated absences may be made earlier in the semester.

REINSTATEMENT OF DRIVING PRIVILEGE

Students whose driving permits are revoked, but later meet the statutory standards for reinstatement, must then apply to the Director of Pupil Personnel to have their standing confirmed. The District shall make the required report to the appropriate agency.
