Principal's Phoenix Flyers:

Hello RAHS Families and Community!

Do you know anyone looking for a fun and fast-paced office position? We are actively seeking a front office assistant at RAHS. If you or anyone you know is interested, you can apply here Office Assistant or contact the school. But hurry! It closes on September 14.

Principal shout out this week to Seniors Caleb Hyun and Ali Karim who are the developers and creators of a non-profit business called Balanced Media, which works to reduce political division. They began the work almost two years ago and were recently featured in the Puget Sound Business Journal. Way to go!

As we start the school year, we want to give a warm community welcome to our staff that are new (or returning!) to RAHS. After a year out of the classroom, we welcome back one of the original RAHS teachers Marcie Wombold, who is leading 10th grade Social Studies and the Business of Aviation. New to the building this year we are pleased to have Brad Fenbert in the role of teaching Advanced Physics, Shop and CAD, and brand new as of this week – we welcome Eli Schwimmer to his role instructing Aviation Photography, Publishing, and Aviation Careers. And finally, we welcome long-time HPS PE and Health Specialist, teaching one period of Health at RAHS – Derek Severson. Also joining us this fall are not one, but TWO RAHS Alumni as student teachers. Alumni Xhelan Sylve is working with Marcie Wombold, and Alumni Amber Jarve is working with Profe Marshalla. We love seeing our alumni making a difference in our community!

Have a wonderful week and thank you all for your continued support.

Therese Tipton
