

THE WEBB SCHOOL

BELL BUCKLE

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

“Turn out young people who are tireless workers, and who know how to work effectively; who are accurate scholars, who know the finer points of morals and practice them in their daily living; who are always courteous.”

– William R. “Sawney” Webb, Founder of The Webb School

HISTORY AND COMMUNITY

Founded in 1870, The Webb School is an independent, college preparatory, non-sectarian, coeducational day and boarding school of grades 6-12 located in historic Bell Buckle, Tennessee. Located approximately one hour southeast of Nashville, Bell Buckle’s population is approximately 650.

WEBB SCHOOL HONOR CODE

Our emphasis on honor and personal integrity is central to every aspect of school life at Webb. The Honor Code, dating back to the School’s founding, features a pledge signed by every student each year. Elected representatives from the Middle and Upper School serve on the student-led Honor Council.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR

The school year consists of two semesters, with two quarters each semester. Each semester lasts approximately sixteen weeks, and each quarter lasts about eight weeks. Classes are on a block schedule, and each class meets three times a week. Upper School students typically enroll in six classes and an advisory class.

SPECIAL CURRICULAR FEATURES

The Wilderness Instruction and Leadership Development (WILD) combines the classroom with the outdoors. WILD is an academic class that includes book discussions about camping and leadership. Through instruction in class, on trips, and in different workshops, WILD members gain skills needed to take trips into the wilderness with workshops ranging from Wilderness First-Aid to Leadership.

EMERGING VOICES

Standing before the school community, students must recite from memory a declamation, oration, performance-based or researched presentation each year of upper school.

FINE ARTS

Students may perform in the highly regarded Webb String Orchestra, or may take lessons in guitar, piano, photography, pottery, or join the Choir. Theatre performs two productions per year, including one musical.

WEBB ATHLETICS

The Webb Feet athletic teams compete in the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association (TSSAA), the Tennessee Girls Lacrosse Association and the Tennessee Scholastic Clay Target Program.
