

ATHLETIC REFERENCE GUIDE: Girls' Basketball

The Legacy Junior High School administration supports our students and coaches in their efforts to grow and learn through extracurricular activities. Legacy administration accepts the rights and responsibility to set academic and behavioral standards for student athletes. Individuals shall not be denied an opportunity to try-out for athletic teams based on their race, color, religion, national origin, sex, or disability.

Who is the 2022-2023 LJH head coach of the LJH Girls' Basketball team?

Mark Mageras = Head Coach

Anne Weixler = Assistant Head Coach

What are the eligibility requirements?

To tryout, students must have at least a 2.0 GPA from the most recent term end grade. Students cannot have more than one "F" on the most recent report card. An "Incomplete" status in any Summit course is considered an "F". Additionally, if a student received one "U" on the report card, the student must apply to the School Athletic Standards Committee for participation in tryouts. Students with more than one "U" on the report card are ineligible to participate in tryouts or on the team. If students are currently ineligible for tryouts because of citizenship, students are encouraged to begin making up their "U's" today.

If a student makes the team, a 2.0 GPA and no "U's" for must be maintained if a new term final grade is posted.

$70 Participation Fee; Up to $50 Activity Apparel; $10 Transportation Fee

When are the games?

The game schedule can be found HERE.

What are the expected behaviors for students selected for the team?

It is expected that students conduct themselves in a manner that benefits the image of the school. Students who participate in hazing, bullying, profane language, drug use, improper touching, or excessive school disruption will be removed from the team. Less egregious behavior may result in probation and review by the Standards Committee.

What are the expectations of parents supporting their athlete at games?

Legacy invites parents to be supportive of the team by attending home and away games, ensuring student attendance at practices, and reinforcing student academic expectations. Parents may not attend practice. Parents are expected to be positive during games and may be removed or barred from games for negative language or abusive comments to players, opposing team members, referees, coaches, administration, or other attendees.
