

THE COMMUNITY

The Strasburg-Franklin Local School District encompasses 19 sq. miles, serves the Village of Strasburg and Franklin Township and houses kindergarten through 12th grade in a single complex. Current enrollment is approximately 566 students which makes it the smallest district in the county. There are 42 teachers, 19 non-certified employees and 6 administrators who serve the district.

The residents of Strasburg are very proud of their village. They are committed to the school and are very supportive of extra-curriculars, as well. The Village of Strasburg is located on Route 21/250 and can be accessed off Interstate 77 at exit US-250. Strasburg has a population of approximately 2100 residents. It is 10 minutes from the Dover/New Philadelphia area and 25 minutes south of Canton. Surrounding counties include Stark, Holmes and Carroll.

The Strasburg-Franklin Local Board of Education permits students from any school district in the state to apply and enroll in the Strasburg-Franklin Local School District tuition free, provided that the laws and regulations of the state and the policy and procedures of the district are followed.
