

A Northerner By Birth, Bernauer Is Now A True Southerner

TUPELO, Miss. — Curt Bernauer wasn't born in the South, but he's quick to say he got here as fast as he could.

A native of Parma, Ohio, Curt is a School Security Officer at Lawndale Elementary. An 8-year Army veteran, he enjoys looking out for and protecting people. He's all about establishing relationships and building trust.

And his daily goal is simple — everyone goes home safe.

“His diligence in keeping the building and classrooms secure and communicating regularly regarding visitors on campus, the condition of the playground, needed repairs, weather updates, and excellent resources are much appreciated,” principal Talina Knight said.

This week's TPSD Staff Spotlight, sponsored by Sunny 93.3 and Buffalo Wild Wings, is Curt Bernauer of Lawndale Elementary.
