Greetings in the Lord!

Evangelization is at the heart of the mission of the Church. Jesus himself tells the Apostles, “Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel [the Evangelion/Good News] to every creature” (Mk 16:15).

The report from the consultative sessions reflects that there is a strong desire for parishioners to grow in their relationship with Jesus and the Church, as well as to become better equipped to share their faith with others. At the same time, parishioners seem to believe they lack the level of depth, knowledge, education, and resources to effectively evangelize and seek to fill that need. When one reads the Acts of the Apostles one finds a common denominator, the Apostles and disciples proclaim the kerygma, the initial proclamation of the gospel message over and over. The first evangelizers would share how Jesus Christ is the awaited Messiah and how he has saved them and can save and change the lives of all who accept his gospel [Evangelion].

We must remember that the first evangelists were fishermen, and men and women without formal education in Scripture, philosophy, or science. Even St. Paul with all his knowledge of Scripture and Greco-Roman culture used the kerygma and the encounter with Christ that changed his life to evangelize people. Many times we overcomplicate Evangelization and we think we need a PhD degree in theology to be able to evangelize. To proclaim the Good News is to share our experience of Jesús Christ, whom we follow, pray to, and love, He who makes a difference in our life and how He can make a difference in people's lives.

Ways Blessed Trinity is Responding to Evangelization

Evangelization in the parish's life takes different forms. Our Emmaus Retreat for men and women, the Impactos Retreat for families, Ladies Guild, Griefshare, That Man is You, Edge, Life Teen, and Young Adult groups are all part of evangelization. They aim to share the experience of Jesus Christ across different ages and stages in life.

Many people in Blessed Trinity also bring the Good News to others by serving at Fair Haven Nursing Home, helping women and children through Respect Life, visiting the imprisoned at TKG Correctional Service, visiting the Homebound and bringing Holy Communion to them.

Prayer is a big part of Evangelization. Our Rosary Group, Intercessory Prayer Group, and the people who spend time in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament bring the petitions and needs of so many people who need God's grace and healing. Prayer is one of the simplest ways to Evangelize. When we ask someone if there is anything in their lives we can pray for, we are opening the door for that person to receive God's grace right there, we are sharing Jesus Christ with them, we are evangelizing. We all have different ways of sharing our experience of Jesus Christ in our lives, the ways he has changed our lives, and the ways we receive God's grace. I invite you to share your experiences and ideas on how we may continue the work of evangelization within our parish community. There are many ways to do it and I am sure we can all benefit from each other's experiences.

Yours in Christ,

Father Matías Hualpa.

¡Saludos en Nuestro Señor Jesucristo!

La evangelización está en el corazón de la misión de la Iglesia. Jesús mismo les dice a los Apóstoles: “Id por todo el mundo y proclamad el evangelio [el Evangelion/la Buena Nueva] a toda criatura” (Mc 16,15).

El informe de las sesiones de consulta refleja que existe un fuerte deseo de que los feligreses crezcan en su relación con Jesús y la Iglesia, así como también estén mejor equipados para compartir su fe con los demás. Al mismo tiempo, los feligreses perciben que carecen del nivel de profundidad, conocimiento, educación y recursos para evangelizar de manera efectiva y buscar satisfacer esa necesidad. Cuando uno lee los Hechos de los Apóstoles encuentra un denominador común, los Apóstoles y los discípulos proclaman el kerygma, la proclamación inicial del mensaje evangélico una y otra vez. Los primeros evangelizadores compartían cómo Jesucristo es el Mesías esperado, cómo los ha salvado y puede salvar y cambiar la vida de todos los que aceptan su evangelio.

Debemos recordar que los primeros evangelistas eran pescadores, y hombres y mujeres sin educación formal en Escritura, filosofía o ciencia. Incluso san Pablo con todo su conocimiento de la Escritura y de la cultura grecorromana utilizó el kerygma y el encuentro con Cristo que cambió su vida para evangelizar a las personas. Muchas veces complicamos demasiado la evangelización y pensamos que necesitamos un doctorado en teología para poder evangelizar. Proclamar la Buena Nueva es compartir nuestra experiencia de Jesucristo, a quien seguimos, rezamos y amamos. Aquel que marca la diferencia en nuestra vida y cómo Él puede marcar la diferencia en la vida de las personas.

Maneras en que la parroquia Blessed Trinity está respondiendo a la Evangelización

La evangelización en la vida de la parroquia toma diferentes formas. Nuestro retiro Emaús para hombres y mujeres, el retiro Impactos para familias, Ladies Guild, Griefshare, That Man is You, Edge, Life Teen y Young Adult son todos parte de la evangelización. Su objetivo es compartir la experiencia de Jesucristo a través de diferentes edades y etapas de la vida.

Muchas personas en Blessed Trinity también llevan la Buena Nueva a otros sirviendo en el hogar de ancianos Fair Haven, ayudando a mujeres y niños a través de la oficina de Respeto a la Vida, visitando a los encarcelados en el Servicio Correccional TKG, visitando a los confinados en sus hogares y llevándoles la Sagrada Comunión.

La oración es una gran parte de la evangelización. Nuestro Grupo del Rosario, el Grupo de Oración de Intercesión y las personas que dedican tiempo a la Adoración del Santísimo Sacramento traen las peticiones y necesidades de tantas personas que necesitan la gracia y la sanación de Dios.

La oración es una de las formas más sencillas de evangelizar. Cuando le preguntamos a alguien si hay algo en su vida por lo que podamos orar, estamos abriendo la puerta para que esa persona reciba la gracia de Dios allí mismo, estamos compartiendo a Jesucristo con ellos, Estamos evangelizando.

Todos tenemos diferentes formas de compartir nuestra experiencia de Jesucristo en nuestras vidas, las formas en que Él ha cambiado nuestras vidas y las formas en que recibimos la gracia de Dios. Los invito a compartir sus experiencias e ideas sobre cómo podemos continuar el trabajo de evangelización dentro de nuestra comunidad parroquial. Hay muchas maneras de hacerlo y estoy seguro de que todos podemos beneficiarnos de las experiencias de los demás.

Unidos en Cristo,

Padre Matías Hualpa.
