District moves forward in academic recovery post-pandemic

BEAUFORT – Today, the South Carolina Department of Education released the 2021-2022 school year results for the South Carolina Palmetto Assessment of State Standards (SCPASS) in Science and the South Carolina College-and Career-Ready Assessments (SC READY) examinations in English Language Arts and Mathematics given in the elementary and middle school grade levels.

2022 SC READY/SCPASS assessment data shows that Beaufort County School District (BCSD) is experiencing a period of academic recovery from the pandemic.

While recognizing that there is still room to grow, it is important to note that in all grades but one, English Language Arts scores are the highest in our district's history since the inception of SC Ready in 2016," said Superintendent Frank Rodriguez.

SC Ready Data- School Overall- Grades 3-5

Areas of Focus

Curriculum

Instruction

Environment

Curriculum- One of our curriculum goals is to continue the work of our IB PYP planners. We are looking to tie in as much as the content as we can to be more transdisciplinary in our teaching of the SC Standards. Curriculum writing took place this summer and teachers worked through some of our new resources and connected them to our SC Standards. This is something we will continue to do throughout the year.

Instruction- One of my most important roles is to be an instructional leader. I have an amazing leadership team that I meet with weekly to plan how we can support our teachers and guide them as they grow and develop as educators. This year we will continue to focus on using more SIOP strategies with our multilingual language learners and using different levels of questioning within our classrooms. We are also concentrating on small group instruction and specific learning targets and success criteria for each lesson.

Environment- We are going to continue to promote positive behavior through the many systems we have in place, but I am working towards providing our teachers with more tools to have in their toolbox. We have two teachers currently piloting a positive approach method called CHAMPS and we have another group of teachers getting ready to read Hacking Discipline, a book about restorative practices. Our PBIS committee meets monthly.
