FOOTBALL at Trinity-Pawling School

PHILOSOPHY

At Trinity-Pawling, we strive to give every athlete, regardless of talent, a tremendous experience. It is essential that we develop every young man through a strength and conditioning program, in and out of season, along with a counter-cultural push to have boys contribute to multiple sports. We strive to get to know each young man as individuals and to serve as mentors in their lives — challenging them to become the best version of themselves.

HISTORY

The Pride has a long history of Erickson League Championships and competition in the NEPSAC Championship Bowl Games. Trinity-Pawling's rich history of football tradition stretches back to the founding of the School in 1907. The Pride has two New England Class A Championships, four New England bowl victories, and five Erickson Conference Championships.

LEAGUE

Trinity-Pawling competes in the prestigious Founders League, part of the New England Prep School Athletic Conference (NEPSAC) Class A Football. In the Founders League, the Pride competes against rivals such as Avon Old Farms, Choate, Hotchkiss, Kent, Loomis-Chaffee, and Taft. The Founders League rules limit our number of postgraduate spots to six.
