Honoring Our Veterans

We celebrate the day in which one of the world's most devastating and gruesome events in world history came to an end. Sometimes known on Armistice Day, Veterans Day is the day we come together and thank the brave men and women around the world for their given sacrifice to their nation and people. On June 28, 1914 Archduke Ferdinand was assassinated, which kicked off the series of battles that soon became World War I. Four years later, on the eleventh month of the eleventh day of the eleventh hour, the Allied Powers (United States, Britain, France, Russia, and Italy) forged peace with the Axis Powers (Austria-Hungary, Germany, and Ottoman Empire). On November 11, 2019, Hebron High School held our annual program, organized by Mr. Eriks and Mr. Straka, thanking and honoring those who have sacrificed to serve our country.

A warm welcome was given by Mr. Owney, thanking the Veterans for coming and then Rhyker Schatz led the crowd in the Pledge of Allegiance. Fantastic performances by the school band led by Mr. Thiel, and the choir led by Mr. Soria-Faust, were enjoyed by all. Students Carter Seggers, Logan Gressmire, and Grace Coughlin from the middle school along with Zoe Parsons, Emma Slusser, and Jake Friel from the high school read various inspiring passages. Mr. Don Fry, our guest speaker, delivered an excellent speech that focused on the true meaning of being a patriot from both the dictionary and through real life examples. The program then concluded with closing remarks by Mr. Owney, again thanking everyone for attending.

Veterans Day is a time we commemorate those who beat the odds and gave up everything they had in the name of peace. We remember those who might've never received a hero's welcome and give them a chance to experience it. Heros don't just wear capes, they sit right next to us everyday, going about their usual lives like we do. To those who did the impossible and fought long and hard throughout the 20th century to the present day, we at Hebron High School say thank you!

Cheer and Dance

The Lady Hawks cheer team began practices with plenty of anticipation for the season lying ahead. During practices, they have been learning floor cheers the basketball games. They are also learning new stunts to spice up the halftime routines. They are thinking of ways to get the crowd more hyped up during the games so that everyone is involved during the events. The captains, Jade Olsen and Zoe Parsons, have been very busy this season so far by also deciding to become part of the dance team. They will cheer during the games and dance during the halftime shows.

The dance team began practice in mid-September. The team has been planning routines for the upcoming basketball season. They have been practicing the routine created for the homecoming game, based off of the app TikTok, featuring famous dances from the popular site. They are also preparing for the Varsity boys home opener on November 17th. The team has welcomed to the group the current cheer captains, Jade Olsen and Zoe Parsons, who both accepted the challenge to participate in dance their senior season, as well as cheerleading.

Boys Basketball

The Boys Basketball team starts official practice on November 11th. They have five seniors returning: Mike Briggs, Ethan Drook, Jake Friel, Rhyker Schatz, and David Steffan. Coach Grennes has a positive outlook for this season. He states, “Many players have worked extremely hard in the off-season to improve and we are excited and looking forward to the upcoming season! We are hopeful to be one of the top teams in the conference and in our sectional this year.” This year’s team should be fun to watch! They open on the road against conference rival, Kouts on Nov. 29th. The Hawks home opener is against North Newton on Dec. 6th. Come out and support your Hawks!

Homecoming

On December 7th, it'll be time to Light Up the Night, as it is this years Homecoming dance theme. Throughout the week, we will be holding activities related to all of the classes individual themes. This year, our Homecoming Olympics theme is Television Shows. The Freshmen's theme is Friends, Sophomore's are Stranger Things, Junior's are That 70's Show, and Senior's are The Office. We are no longer doing just floats, we are now decorating our class lockers as the theme each class has chosen. STUCO has decided to make a few changes this year with voting for Homecoming Court. A student has to be nominated and will be contacted by Mrs. Kurzinski. Each nominee will then have to campaign to earn a spot on Homecoming court. The school is starting to buzz with homecoming cheer!

Wrestling

Last year, the Hawks had their most successful season, as Ewan made it to state. There were many injuries last year, where the Hawks were down for most of the season. This year, they have a new coach, James Schwartz. He is very involved in the sport, he is willing to wrestle to help the athletes, and is an all around a positive guy. Seniors, Vince Uribe, Matt Hansen, and Frank Zoller will work their last year to try and make the wrestling season one to remember. The Hawks first meet will be on December 4th against Lake Station, at home. Come out and support the Hawks!

Girls Basketball

The Lady Hawks will have their first game of the 2020 season away against Knox on Thursday, November 7th. The Hawks are looking forward to starting out their season this year, with seniors Haley Rokosz, Sydney Earley, Sammie Davies, Kyra Stater, Tanner Roy, and Kyana Maldonado. Hebron Mural Unveiling

On Saturday, October 26, the new Hebron mural was formally unveiled. Although it was chilly and raining, around one-hundred people attended the ceremony and speeches were given by several members of the town council and Mrs. Karen Jania, who coordinated the project. As attendees were treated to donuts and coffee from Sip Coffeehouse in Valparaiso, and hot chocolate and hot cider compliments of Hebron High School Business Professionals of America, they listened as Mike Reick welcomed the attendees, Mr. Jeff Nilsen described the history and timeline extensive project. Mr. David Peeler introduced the students who were instrumental in completing the artwork, and then Mrs. Jania told some stories about the artwork itself and how the artists asked for nothing for their work but some goodies from Subway and Dairy Queen. In addition, the town presented a plaque to Mrs. Jania for her work in arranging and executing the creation of the mural. Special guest Susan Osby, Hebron native and former Miss Indiana, also attended and was visibly touched that her likeness is portrayed on the mural. The unveiling was completed with the drop of a tarp which was led by the students and graduates who painted the mural. The detailed work of art, which features the past, present, and future of Hebron, can now be viewed on the northeast corner of Sigler and Main Streets, by the clock tower for all to enjoy for decades to come! Be sure to stop on by!

Thanksgiving break takes place from Wednesday, November 27 through Friday, November 29. We at Hebron High School wish you and your family a most restful break and a very Happy Thanksgiving.

COUNCIL

Choir

The Hebron High School Choir performed a few songs for this year's Veterans Day on Monday November 11th. The performance consisted of three patriotic songs including American Heros, My Country Tis of Thee, and in combination with the Middle School for America the Beautiful. There were soloists, and duets that starred in some of the songs. This coming holiday season on December 19, the choir will be having their Christmas concert, shared with the band, that will consist of seven songs, plus a sing-a-long with the band and audience. The Choir and Band hope to see you in the audience to share the Christmas Spirit with them.

Kiners Corner

This year's Indiana Library Federation Annual Conference, held in Indianapolis, featured keynote speaker Jason Reynolds. Some of you may know him for this year's Rosie nominee Long Way Down, or his previous nominations for Boy in the Black Suit (2019) and All American Boys (2018).

Mr. Reynolds has received both the Newberry Honor Award and a Printz Honor Award for his writings. He explained that he was actually inspired to write books by first wanting to become a rap artist. He said rap music was huge during that time and it actually inspired him to begin writing poetry. He began writing poetry at the age of 9. It wasn't until later that he found a voice in story writing.

While Jason Reynolds' newest release is geared toward middle school readers, he has written many other books suited for high school readers. For a list of his books, please come to the library and see what this author has to offer. We're sure you'll find one that suits your interest and as always, keep reading!

Spanish Club

El club de español, or more commonly known as Spanish Club, is here! Sponsored by Mrs. Summerville and the club president Matt Clark, students gather to explore the language and culture, while having fun. Just recently they stayed after school for their first party, which included food and drink, and the Disney movie Coco. This club brings awareness to the Spanish culture. These members also go to an authentic mexican restaurant, learn to do crafts native to the culture, and come together. Vamos, a explorar la cultura española!

National Honor Society

The Hebron High School NHS is very active right now. We are proud to announce that the Haunted House this year raised a grand total of $14,800, which is a new record! All of these proceeds will go towards shopping for the Angel Tree in December. We are once again sponsoring the Giving Tree for the Family and Youth Services Bureau. If you would like to sponsor a child, please stop by the library. All unwrapped gifts are due back by December 6th. We will also be selling Albanese Candy again this holiday season, so save up your money for those delicious gummies, chocolate covered peanuts, and a new offering this year of milk chocolate sea salt caramels! This year's proceeds will go toward Cindy Brown Cancer Benefit. The blood drive will be taking place on December 2nd, and we would love for you to come out and donate if you are able. Every pint of blood that is donated can be used to save up to three lives. Through the upcoming holiday season, NHS members want to thank you for your generosity and support of what we do for our school and community.

Art class is on a mission!

Are you a fan of “The Office”? Know someone who is? You’ll love what our Hebron High School Art class did! Students drew characters from the TV show while learning about artistic techniques. They learned about artistic collaboration, gridding, proportion, shading, contrast, texture, and much more.

Our students would love to auction off this entire set of art to the highest bidder to fund a field trip. On this field trip, we want to explore art museums. This will be an educational opportunity for Hebron High School art students to go beyond our borders of Hebron, Indiana.

Can you help us share this far and wide? Our students’ goal is to get this to reach the producers of “The Office” who they believe will love their art work! Please contact gladstone1@hebronschools.k12.in.us with any questions. Enjoy the art shown below!
