WHEREAS, the District and the Association are in negotiations on a Collective Bargaining Agreement beginning in the 2022 school year;

WHEREAS, the district is anticipating a higher number of middle school students electing to participate in playing sports;

A Practices, Supervision, Schedules, and Guidelines for Middle School (unless noted)

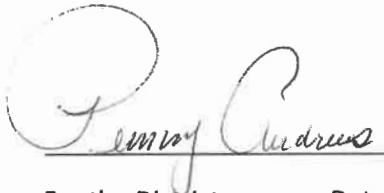

1. Practices occurring before school in lieu of after-school practices shall be considered the daily practice time for affected coaches. Coaches shall not be required to conduct practices both before and after school on the same day.
2. The district will make all reasonable attempts to have an administrator or administrator designee at every middle school contest.
3. The District will provide coaches with a schedule of school contests and practices at the beginning of the season. Should unexpected events cause a change in scheduled contests or practices, coaches will be given two weeks in advance of changes.
4. The District will authorize payment in the amount of $20.00 per hour for a general event coordinator when utilized at the middle school and high school levels. District Athletic Directors have the option of hiring a general event coordinator when necessary to support event set-up and clean-up, spectator and student behavior management, and general event duties.
