

Thornton Middle School eSports CLUB

PERMISSION Slip

Dear Parents,

Thornton Middle School a eSports Club after school this year. Meetings will be held weekly on Tuesday and Thursdays until 5:15. Students can pick between Mario Kart, Minecraft, and Super Smash Brothers. We will play these games together during our time with the goal of competing with each other and other student through the Middle School eSports league.

To find out more about the ratings of these games please visit www.esrb.org/ratings-guide/

Our rules and regulations include:

1. Members of the club cannot miss more than 3 meetings.
2. Students will work well with others. Members of our organization are team players. They do not show anger toward one another.
3. Members must treat devices and equipment respectfully or they can be disqualified from club activities and competitions.
4. All members will always strive to be their best.

Students may not attend the eSports Club meetings without a permission slip. Students need a parent signature. Please review this form and bring it back to Miss Burkel.
