

Films on Demand through the Fisher College Library

Films on Demand provides streaming access from popular TV and film/DVD producers:

The database features nearly 44,000 films and more than 310,000 segments. You can search Films on Demand directly through the Library's website by going to <http://www.fisher.edu/library> and choosing "Films on Demand" from "The Six Pack."

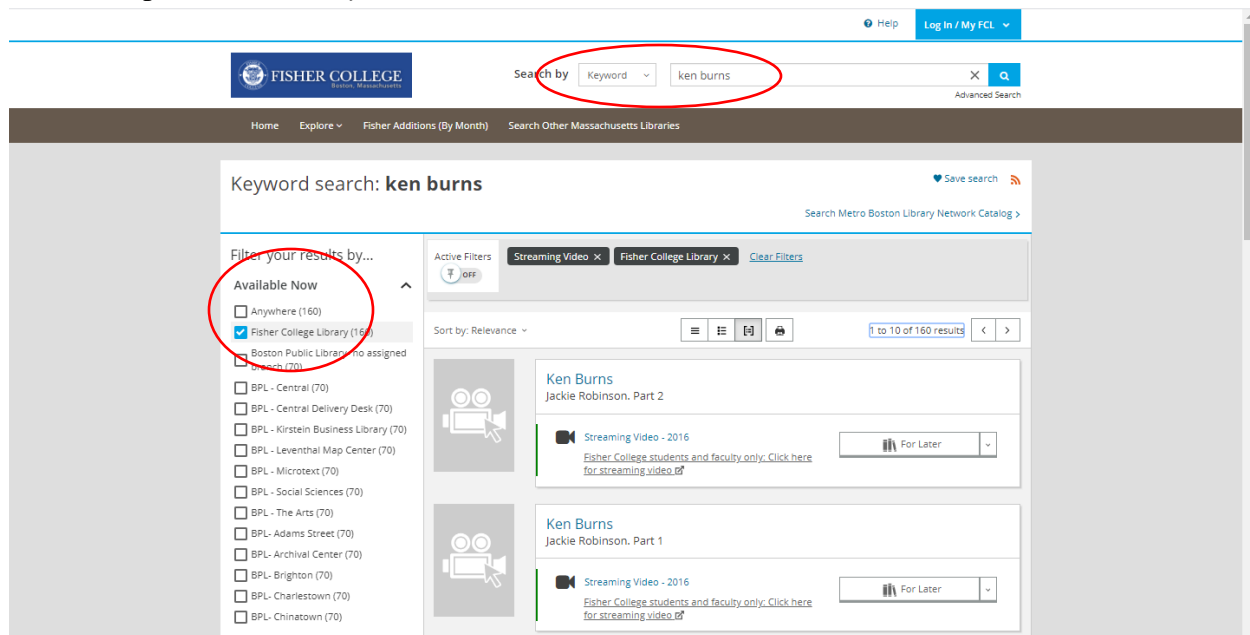

Library Resources - The Six Pack

As a member of the Metro-Boston Library Network (MBLN), Fisher students, faculty, and staff have access to resources from several libraries, including The Boston Public Library (all 26 branches), Chelsea Public Library, Malden Public Library, and Fisher College.

At this point, you will be asked to enter your "256" library barcode to gain access.

Additionally, you can access Films on Demand through BiblioCommons, our online catalog. This example features a keyword search for “ken burns.”

Using the dropdown “Available Now,” you can “Filter your results by... Fisher College Library.” Select “Streaming Video” under “Movies & TV” on the left-hand side of the screen.

The streaming collection is available both on campus and remotely with your Library barcode number. When you decide on a film, select the link that reads, “Fisher College students and faculty only. Click here for streaming video,” and you will connect directly to Films on Demand.

After selecting a title and entering your Library barcode, you will be able to watch the program in its entirety or view segments from the film. Many of the films include closed captioning and the ability to generate a citation.

FILMS ON DEMAND Setting Up Closed Captioning

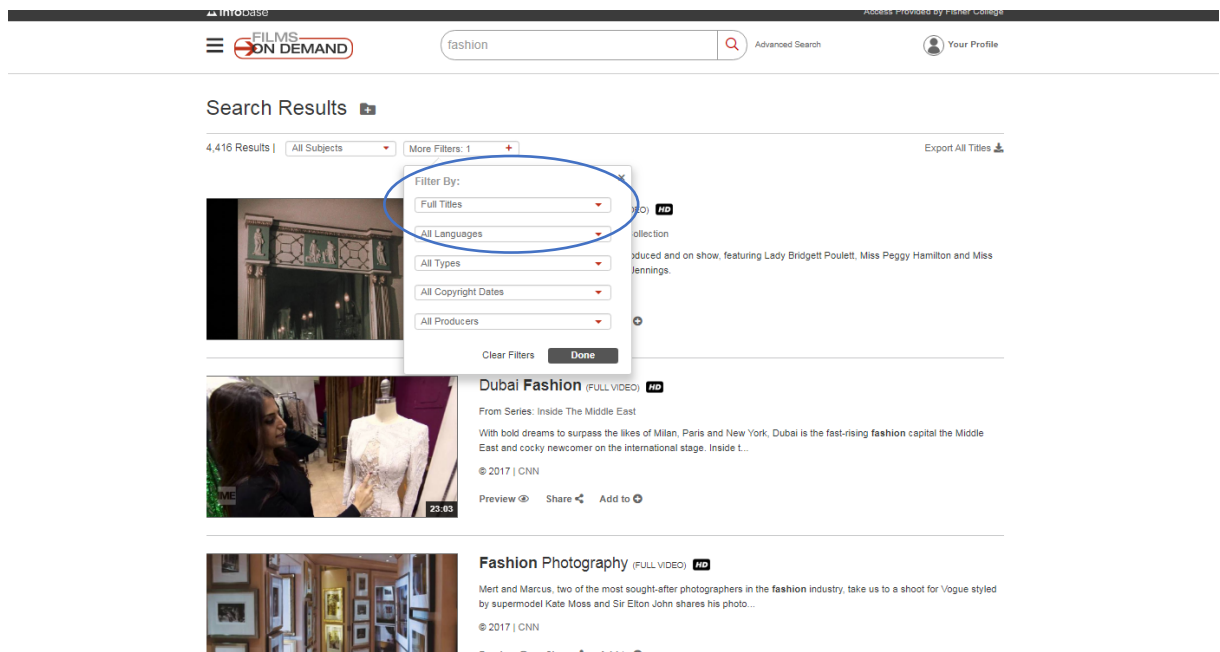

1. To locate films within Films on Demand that have closed captioning, start with an Advanced Search.

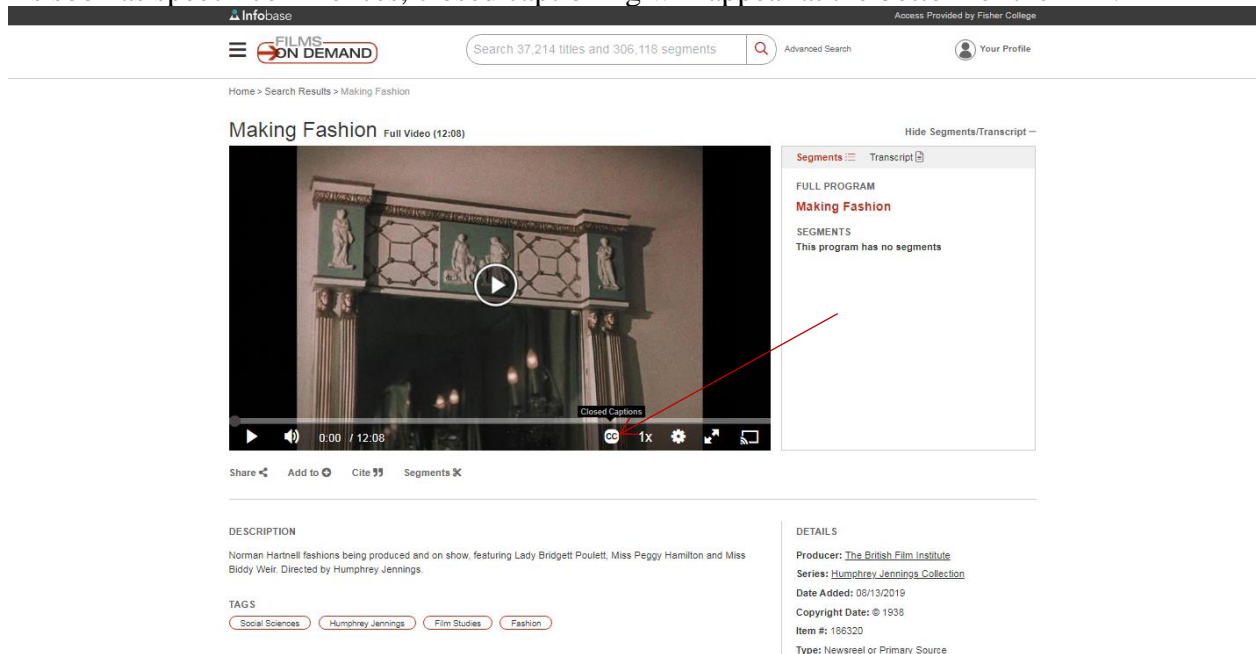

2. Enter a search term (e.g. fashion). Make sure to update “Search Options” to Videos, and then check the box that reads “Show only closed-captioned programs.” Then click “Search” at the bottom of the page.

- If you only want to see the list of full-length videos, select “More Filters.” Under “All Formats,” choose “Full Titles.” If you want to see the list of clips, choose “Segments” under “All Formats.”

- Once you have selected the film, look for the “cc” symbol in the toolbar below the film. Click on “cc,” choose “English,” and click on the arrow in the middle of the film to play. As soon as speech commences, closed captioning will appear at the bottom of the film.

If you have any questions about this process, please do not hesitate to let us know by phone at 617-236-8875, by e-mail at library@fisher.edu, or in person on the second floor of 118 Beacon Street. Happy Searching!
