Archdiocese of Miami Development Corporation

"My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established..." Luke 16:25-26
Jesus warns the Pharisees — and us — through the parable of Lazarus and the rich man, that the rich man committed a very serious sin. The sin of the rich man was not that he was rich, but that he ignored the needs of the poor and hungry and failed to share his wealth with the beggar. To faithful Christian stewards, the task of relieving hunger throughout the world seems overwhelming. Yet, our faith in the Lord gives us hope that we can make a difference by sharing our blessings with our neighbor in need.

Continue to make that impact. Make a gift today!

"Hijo, recuerda que en tu vida recibiste bienes y Lázaro, en cambio, males. Por eso él goza ahora de consuelo, mientras que tú sufres tormentos. Además, entre ustedes y nosotros se abre un abismo inmenso, que nadie puede cruzar, ni hacia allá ni hacia acá." Lucas 16:25-26

Jesús advierte a los fariseos, y a nosotros, a través de la parábola de Lázaro y el hombre rico, que el hombre rico cometió un pecado muy grave. El pecado del hombre rico no era que fuera rico, sino que ignoraba las necesidades de los pobres y hambrientos y no compartía su riqueza con el mendigo. Para los fieles mayordomos cristianos, la tarea de aliviar el hambre en todo el mundo parece abrumadora. Sin embargo, nuestra fe en el Señor nos da la esperanza de que podemos hacer una diferencia al compartir nuestras bendiciones con nuestro prójimo necesitado.

Greetings in the Lord!

Young people help keep the Church young. They can keep her moving forward, prevent her from being proud and sectarian, help her to be poorer and to bear better witness, to take the side of the poor and the outcast, to fight for justice and humbly to let herself be challenged. Young people can offer the Church the beauty of youth by renewing her ability to rejoice with new beginnings, to give unreservedly of herself, to be renewed and to set out for ever greater accomplishments (Christus Vivit, 37). There is much work to do when it comes to children, young people, and young adults in the life of the Church. The report for the consultative sessions brings out the concern that there is not enough focus on reaching and encountering the youth. It shows the need to provide attractive marketing invitations for youth; structure youth groups to be engaging, and content rich with subjects that are of need and of interest to them. The voice of the youth indicates that some find themselves as the source of faith in their homes and therefore need and seek strong support in the community to strengthen and reinforce their faith.

Ways Blessed Trinity is Responding to the Youth

If one asks anyone in our parish community, we all agree that we love when young people are active and seen in our church. The youth is the present and the future of our church. If one asks parents, they will probably tell you that they want their children to grow knowing that Jesus Christ lives and acts in their lives; parents and some young people have already seen the devastation that a life without God produces. At the same time, in today's world, God competes with so many activities like sports, music, dance, robotics, etc. All of them good, but at the same time demanding in time at the expense of our relationship with Jesus Christ within the Church and parish community.

After the pandemic we have been blessed that our Edge Middle School Group has steadily grown and is actively bringing together young people from public, charter, home-school, and Catholic school together. Our Young Adult Group also met consistently and shared and grew in their faith with the Metanoia & Wild Goose series. Our Life Teen group has been through ups and downs. God has put into the heart of a young man ways to revitalize it and hopefully we can start again this year with new ideas and participation from our own young people.

Back in February we brought back the Sunday evening Mass focused on the youth, and catered to the youth. It is a blessing to see young people serve at that Mass as Welcome ministers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Lectors, Altar Servers, and music.

I invite all parishioners to support the youth and their parents in our parish with your prayers. I also invite young people to persevere in their efforts to grow in your relationship with Jesus Christ within Blessed Trinity. Your ideas, participation, and enthusiasm are welcome!

Yours in Christ,

Father Matías Hualpa.

¡Saludos en Nuestro Señor Jesucristo!

Los jóvenes ayudan a mantener la Iglesia joven, a seguir adelante, a no enorgullecerse, a no convertirse en secta, a ser más pobre y testimonial, a estar cerca de los indefensos y marginados, a luchar por la justicia, a dejarse interpelar con humildad. Los jóvenes pueden aportarle a la Iglesia la belleza de la juventud cuando estimulan la capacidad de alegrarse con los nuevos comienzos, de darse sin reserva, de renovarse y de emprender logros cada vez mayores (Christus Vivit, 37).

Hay mucho trabajo por hacer cuando se trata de niños, jóvenes y adultos jóvenes en la vida de la Iglesia. El informe de las sesiones consultivas destaca la preocupación de que no se presta suficiente atención a salir al encuentro y llegar a los jóvenes. Muestra la necesidad de proporcionar iniciativas interesantes para los grupos de jóvenes. Estructurar grupos de jóvenes para que sean atractivos y ricos en contenido con temas que son de necesidad e interés para ellos.

La voz de los jóvenes indica que algunos de ellos son la fuente de la fe en sus hogares y por eso necesitan y buscan un fuerte apoyo en la comunidad para fortalecer y reforzar su fe.

Maneras en que Blessed Trinity está respondiendo a los jóvenes

Muy probablemente la mayoría de las personas en nuestra comunidad parroquial están de acuerdo en que nos encanta cuando los jóvenes están activos y se ven alrededor de nuestra iglesia. La juventud es el presente y el futuro de nuestra Iglesia. Si uno pregunta a los padres, probablemente le dirán que quieren que sus hijos crezcan sabiendo que Jesucristo vive y actúa en sus vidas; ellos ya han visto la devastación que produce una vida sin Dios. Al mismo tiempo, en el mundo de hoy, Dios compete con tantas actividades como el deporte, la música, la danza, la robótica, etc. Todas estas son actividades buenas, pero a la vez exigentes en el tiempo a costa de nuestra relación con Jesucristo dentro de la Iglesia y comunidad parroquial.

Después de la pandemia, hemos tenido la bendición de que nuestro grupo de middle school 'Edge' sigue creciendo y está reuniendo activamente a jóvenes de escuelas públicas, charter, home school y católicas. Nuestro grupo de Jóvenes Adultos también se reunió y reúne regularmente para crecer en la fe con el programa Metanoia y Wild Goose. Nuestro grupo Life Teen ha pasado por altibajos. Dios ha puesto en el corazón de un joven maneras de revitalizarlo y esperamos que podamos comenzar de nuevo este año con nuevas ideas y la participación de nuestros propios jóvenes adolescentes.

Este febrero pasado, comenzamos nuevamente con la Misa del domingo por la noche enfocada en los jóvenes, y destinada a los jóvenes. Es una bendición ver a los jóvenes servir en esa Misa como ministros de Bienvenida, ministros Extraordinarios de la Sagrada Comunión, Lectores, Monaguillos y en la música.

Invito a todos los feligreses a apoyar a los jóvenes y sus padres en nuestra parroquia con sus oraciones. También invito a los jóvenes a perseverar en sus esfuerzos para crecer en su relación con Jesucristo dentro de Blessed Trinity. ¡Sus ideas, participación y entusiasmo son bienvenidos!

En Cristo,

Padre Matías Hualpa.
