

Mechanical Assembly Technician

Job Summary

Assist the Site Manager with all labor-intensive tasks performed at the warehouse construction site of the company's machinery assemblies for projects. Should have some experience working on an industrial construction site. Perform tasks involving organization at the warehouse site. May clean and prepare sites, and clean up rubble, debris, and other waste materials. Perform safe and skilled operation of hand and power tools of all types and have exposure to a variety of other construction equipment.

- Assist in controlling the area around the work zone. Clean or prepare the construction site to eliminate possible hazards
- Load, unload or identify building materials, machinery, or tools, distributing them to appropriate locations, according to project plans or specifications or storage in the warehouse
- Parts inventory, maintain work area organization and housekeeping
- May assist in mechanical and component assembly and installation using hand and power tools.
- May rework, repair or replace damaged parts or assemblies under direction and supervision
- Move machinery and equipment, using hoists, dollies, rollers, and trucks
- May position or align components for mechanical assembly, manually or using a hoist, jacks, hand tools
- Tend pumps, compressors, or generators to provide power for tools, machinery, or equipment
- May be tasked with running errands to get supplies or materials
- Follow and support safety policy implementation/Compliance with OSHA safety standards
- Perform additional tasks as requested by site management

Benefits of Employment

- Competitive salary
- Opportunity for growth
- Medical insurance
- Dental insurance
- Vision insurance
- HSA and FSA options
- Life insurance
- ST and LT Disability insurance
- 401K plan with above-market company matching
- Generous Paid Time Off (PTO) plan
- Company Holidays

Uni-Systems Engineering, Inc.

6105 Trenton Lane North
Minneapolis, MN 55442

(763) 536-1407
uni-engineer.com

Job Requirements

- Knowledge of materials, methods, and tools involved in construction and assembly including their design, uses, repair and maintenance
- Knowledge of math and basic applications, understanding the basic principles in reading, and understanding technical plans and drawings
- Manual dexterity to quickly move, grasp, manipulate or assemble objects with hands
- Perform physical activities that require considerable use of limbs and whole body, such as climbing, lifting, balancing, walking, stooping, and handling materials.
- Able to handle physical demands of the job including assisted heavy lifting. Must be able to lift or move up to 50 lbs., and move heavy objects with assistance when necessary
- Ability to obtain OSHA 10 or 30 certification
- Applies sound judgment, problem-solving skills, and detail-oriented in completing work tasks

Building Moving Experiences