

JUNIOR ROTC PATHWAY

JROTC TMHS MARINE	JROTC THS NAVY
--------------------------	-----------------------

The JROTC programs are designed to provide meaningful leadership instruction of benefit to the student and of value to the Armed Forces. Students will acquire: (1) An understanding of the fundamental concept of leadership, military art and science, (2) An introduction to related professional knowledge, and (3) An appreciation of requirements for national security. The dual roles of citizen/soldier and soldier/citizen are studied. The programs will enable cadets to better serve their country as leaders, as citizens, and in military service should they enter it. The JROTC is not in itself an officer-producing program but should create favorable attitudes and impressions toward the Services and toward careers in the Armed Forces.
