INTRODUCTION

Welcome to substitute teaching in Independent School District #77, Mankato! We are glad to have you on our team. Substitute teaching is very dynamic and can be exciting, interesting and challenging. You will have opportunities to see and be part of a wide variety of teaching styles and programs, gain a wealth of experience in a short time, and share ideas with colleagues.

A substitute in ISD#77 must hold a valid Minnesota teaching license and be able to perform the duties of an absent teacher or other teacher duties as assigned by the principal. These duties shall be consistent with a teachers' professional role.

This handbook is intended to help orient you to the role and responsibilities of a substitute teacher and familiarize you with relevant School District policies and procedures. Individual schools may have other expectations as well. The School Board and staff of Independent School District #77 wish you every success!

DISTRICT MISSION STATEMENT

Committed to working together equitably, with families and communities, so that each learner has the knowledge and skills to be a successful and contributing citizen in a diverse global society.

Visibly Inclusive ~ Intentionally Equitable ~ Anti-Racist ~ Committed to Excellence ~ Accountable for Results

THE SUBSTITUTE TEACHER WORKFORCE

Keeping our substitute teacher workforce current is a year-round task. Additions are made to our substitute teacher list when there is a need. Substitute usage may vary depending on the degree to which illness and professional activities require teachers to be absent from regular duties. When necessary, a substitute will be engaged to replace an absent teacher.

The selection and assignment of substitute teachers is a high priority for district staff. ISD #77 views its substitute workforce as an important part of a commitment to the best education possible for pupils in all the schools.

It is important that learning continues as much as possible and that students will continue progressing through the curriculum when the regular teacher is absent. Your responsibility is to execute the lesson plan so that the students' experience is as close to a regular day as possible. Keep in mind that successful substitute teachers will be requested more often.

To begin, all substitute teachers must be approved through the Human Resource office. You must hold a current Minnesota Teacher's License, complete the appropriate substitute teacher application at www.isd77.org, and complete and successfully pass a criminal history background check before being allowed to substitute teach in the district.

WHAT IS EXPECTED OF THE SUBSTITUTE TEACHER

District Expectations:

A substitute teacher should be able to assume all of the duties and responsibilities of the regular teacher in a given day. Short and long-term substitutes may also be required to participate in staff meetings, teacher committees, and parent conferences. Substitutes should be familiar with logging onto a computer and accessing files. (Instructions will be provided by the teacher). A substitute teacher will be held to the same professional conduct codes as any licensed teacher.

School Expectations:

The substitute teacher has numerous responsibilities upon arrival at the school.

- 1. Duty hours for substitute teachers are the same as those hours for the regular staff of the school in which you are substituting. This includes preparation periods, supervision and bus duty, even if they are at the beginning or end of the day. Please report to the assigned building as requested in the Absence Management System. The building secretary will direct you to where the assignment for that day is, the lesson plans and provisions left by the teacher. You will also be given an ID badge and any keys that you may need.
2. Be sure to check if your day includes any special supervision tasks such as lunchroom, hall supervision, etc. The office and/or the lesson plans will give you that information.
3. Check lesson plans for any special behavior plans for individual students.
4. You will be expected to conduct the class in a manner which maintains proper classroom work habits and discipline. Maintaining good classroom control enhances learning. A substitute should take charge just like the regular teacher. Do not hesitate to contact the building office in case of difficulty.
5. Substitute teachers share an ethical and legal responsibility with the regular staff regarding confidentiality. We must respect the confidentiality of all information regarding students, parents, and the other school personnel.
6. You may need to supervise paraprofessionals working with individuals or groups of students.
7. You must maintain safety of all students. Review policies on the district website regarding Mandatory Reporting of Child Abuse and Neglect, Harassment and Violence, and Bullying. See page 13 for instructions on locating school district policies.
8. Substitute teachers should always conduct themselves in a professional manner in interactions with staff and students. Staff language and behavior provides a model for student conduct.
9. It is not appropriate to use language that is demeaning or disrespectful as a means of correcting behavior, or in response to student behavior, or as humor. Further, it is never appropriate to use profanity at school. Substitute teachers are expected to refrain from any physical contact with staff or students.
10. Substitute teachers should dress in a professional manner that allows interaction with students and provides for ease of physical activity. Clothes should be neat and clean.

11. At the conclusion of your day, you should leave a message for the teacher regarding what you covered, significant incidences, and directions left with students. Leave the room, in as good a condition as you found them. Be sure to follow building procedures regarding the locking of doors. Make sure you turn in your ID badge and any keys you were using at the end of your substituting session. Remember that substitutes are to remain at the school until the end of the teacher duty day (30 minutes after dismissal except on Fridays).
12. Specific directions and procedures unique to each school will be shared with you at that school.

THE DO'S and DON'TS OF SUBSTITUTE TEACHING

1. Do speak in a whisper for attention. Students have to be quiet to hear what you're saying. Don't raise your voice.
2. Do correct papers for the assignments you issued. The teacher does not want to return to a stack of unmarked papers. Don't send papers home without letting the classroom teacher see them first.
3. Do arrange an audible signal (such as a whistle) before you take students out on the playground. You may have to call them in a hurry. Do not release students outside without reinforcing rules (time-out spot, boundaries, etc.)
4. Do familiarize yourself with school and classroom rules before class convenes. Don't expect the students to interpret the classroom and school rules accurately for you. ("We're allowed to sit on the floor for math;" "Tuesday is extra recess day;" "Ms. Smith said we have until tomorrow to study for the quiz").
5. Do be sure to obtain accurate directions to the school before starting out in the morning. Duty hours for substitute teachers are the same as those hours for the regular staff of the school in which you are substituting. This includes preparation periods, supervision, and bus duty, even if they are at the beginning or end of the day.
6. Do notify the teacher next door if an emergency occurs. Don't leave students unattended, even if personal needs arise.
7. Do attempt to sit with staff in the faculty room during breaks and lunch. Don't isolate yourself in the classroom. You may make some good contacts by getting to know other staff members.
8. Do walk your students to specialists' classes (music, PE, etc.) Don't allow students to move through the school unattended.
9. Do encourage students with positive comments.
10. Do develop motivating rewards (a quick game, etc.) to elicit desired behavior. Don't dwell on negative behaviors.
11. Do actively supervise and interact with students when they are engaging in a particular task. Don't sit in one place reading a book, surfing the internet or texting while students are present in the classroom.

CLASSROOM CLIMATE AND MANAGEMENT

Classroom management includes all the things that teachers do to secure and maintain student cooperation and involvement in classroom activities. Recent research indicates that successful management involves not merely responding effectively when problems occur but preventing problems from occurring. In general, effective classroom managers are better at giving clear directions and information, frequently stating desired attitudes and behavior, providing activities and assignments with higher levels of student success, presenting clear expectations for work standards, using classroom rules and procedures to deal with behavior problems. An effective substitute teacher quickly establishes positive rapport with students. Safety and order must be paramount considerations, and advice or assistance from the principal of the school should be sought if concerns arise.

POSITIVE BEHAVIOR INTERVENTIONS AND SUPPORTS (PBIS)

Mankato Area Public Schools (MAPS) has embraced the notion that schools have the responsibility to provide an education to students in safe and predictable environments. As a result, MAPS has incorporated the use of Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports (PBIS) throughout its schools. PBIS is a broad range of systematic and individualized strategies for achieving important social and learning outcomes while preventing problem behavior. In other words, PBIS is a district or school's process for teaching expected social and behavioral skills so the focus can be on teaching and learning.

The principles that guide PBIS are as follows:

- Focus of discipline is on academic and behavior success
- Is for all students, all staff, and all settings
- Emphasizes prevention
- Uses research-validated practices
- Is coordinated by a PBIS team
- Emphasizes an instructional approach
- Uses data to guide decisions

Using these principles to guide our practice, staff and students operate under three primary assumptions. The first assumption is that behavior is learned. The second assumption is that students do not learn through the sole use of “get tough” or “aversive” consequences. The third assumption is that we should teach social skills directly and give positive feedback about what the students are doing correctly and appropriately.

As a substitute teacher in Mankato Area Public Schools, you will see behavior expectations for various school settings (ex. hallways, restrooms, cafeteria, playground, auditorium, etc...) posted throughout the building. In addition, each teacher will have behavior expectations visible within their classroom to help reinforce the learning of the expected behaviors.

Although PBIS is being utilized district-wide to support the learning of expected behaviors, each building has developed their own set of expectations. As a substitute teacher, your knowledge of the building-specific expectations are important to continuing to provide an education to students in a safe and predictable environment.

SUGGESTIONS FOR CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT

Here are some suggestions to help you and the students enjoy your substitute experience:

1. Discipline is based on mutual understanding, through honest, open communication.
2. Problems do not usually develop if the content of instruction is worthwhile and is presented in an interesting manner.
3. The initial impact of the substitute teacher is a key factor in successful classroom management. Self confidence, self knowledge, resilience, initiative, and resourcefulness are some necessary prerequisites.
4. Teach what the teacher asked you to cover, and keep the students busy with that subject matter for the entire period scheduled. If you do not understand from the notes left by the teacher how the lesson should proceed, feel free to ask another teacher of the same grade or course for some further information. The important thing to convey to the students is that you are a master for that subject matter and the work you are asking them to do is as important as the work their regular teacher would be asking them to do at that time.
5. As a substitute you can help set the stage for a successful experience by being prompt, neat, patient, honest, flexible, enthusiastic, and accepting.
6. If there is time before the class arrives, review the day's schedule and become familiar with related activities. When the students arrive, introduce yourself and write your name on the board. Try to call students by their names. This tends to prevent problems. To help you remember the students' names, use a seating chart or name tags.
7. If discipline problems arise which you are unable to manage, the office should be contacted immediately for assistance.
8. In any situation, no matter how well managed, emergencies will arise. Accidents, illnesses, the administering of medication, and other emergencies must be referred to the principal.
9. Good communication between you and the regular teacher is essential to the students' continuity of learning. You should provide the regular teacher with a summary of each day's accomplishments. You can do this by writing a summary.

WHAT TO DO IF LESSON PLANS ARE NOT AVAILABLE

District #77 has a well-developed curriculum for grade levels and subject areas. Teachers are expected to follow the curriculum set forth by the District and to establish plans for a substitute teacher. Occasionally, the absence of the teacher is such that no lesson plan is developed for a substitute. If lesson plans are not readily available:

Try to maintain a continuity of lessons by referring back to the last completed day in the day book, if available, and then do a reasonable follow-up to the previous lesson.

Younger pupils often are upset by a departure from regular routines; let them know that some things will be done differently that day. Ask for their cooperation.

WORKING WITH PARENTS

Substitute teachers will usually not have direct interaction with parents/guardians. The principal and support staff will have more information regarding a student. If a parent/guardian calls or visits the school, welcome their contact, and refer them to the principal. Inform the principal as soon as possible that the parent called or visited the school. The principal will provide guidance in interaction with parents/guardians.

EMERGENCY CLOSINGS

Every attempt will be made to place an Absence Management ALERT on the website anytime school is cancelled, will start late or dismiss early due to weather conditions. You may also call the school hotline at 507-386-4777 for cancellation information. Other notifications of school cancellations or late starts will be broadcast on WCCO (830 AM) radio and local radio stations, and KARE 11, KSTP 5, KEYC 12, FOX 9 and WCCO 4 TV.

If school is closed on a particular day due to weather conditions, substitute teachers who are assigned for that day will not receive compensation. If school starts late or dismisses early due to weather conditions, substitute teachers will be paid for time worked. It is the responsibility of the substitute teacher to be aware of school delays or closing notices on days when you are assigned work. When school dismisses early, substitute teachers will follow the dismissal schedule of the school they are working in.

HOW SUBSTITUTES ARE ASSIGNED

Once your Absence Management profile is created you receive an email from Frontline asking you to create a username and password. Absence Management is the automated system that teachers enter their absences so you may accept assignments. You may search for available assignments any time you wish. You may receive calls the evening before or the morning of the absence if it is not filled.

The Absence Management system calls substitute teachers when there is an unfilled assignment for the following day between 5:00pm and 10:00pm the evening before, or between 6:00am and 2:00pm the day of the assignment.

Absence Management keeps an up-to-date list of available substitute teachers. Teachers, building secretaries, and administrators may request any qualified substitute from the list. If there is not a specific request for a substitute, Absence Management will release the assignment to substitutes. If an assignment is last minute, Absence Management will begin to call substitutes in random order to give all equal opportunities.

Note: Absence Management does track which substitutes accept assignments and which frequently turn down assignments.

NON-AVAILABILITY FOR WORK

If substitutes are unavailable for work for a particular day or a period of time, they are asked to log into Absence Management and enter Non-Work Days. This will prevent a secretary, administrator, or Absence Management from trying to contact you when you are not available.

A substitute who becomes ill before an assignment may cancel the assignment in Absence Management up to 2 hours prior to the start time. If less than 2 hours prior to the start time, immediately call the secretary at the assigned site. Phone numbers are located in Absence Management next to the assignment and on page 14 of this manual. Please be sure to provide the following information: your name, school where you were to substitute, teacher you were to substitute for, and the time you were to have started. A substitute falling ill while at the school on an assignment must contact the principal for permission to leave so that the safety of the students can be ensured.
