

BLACK JELLYBEAN BOOKS

At the Bethlehem Library

When you finish a bag of jellybeans, there are always black ones left in the bottom....neglected?! Rejected?!

Well, the Bethlehem Library has some wonderful “Black Jellybean Books” in our juvenile and teen sections.

These are old favorites that sometimes are overlooked.

During October and November, every time you read one of these books, you will be entered to receive a $50 Amazon Gift Card, from the Friends of the Library

The contest is for ages 10 – 17, and runs from October 1 to November 30. The books are on display in the teen and children’s sections of the library.

Come and read!
