DIGITAL CITIZENSHIP

“The responsible use of technology to learn, create , and participate.”

We are

We are a trusted guide for the families, educators, and advocates who help kids thrive.

We provide resources to harness the power of media and technology, and to shape public policy to improve the well-being of every child.

In Common Sense's National Parent Survey:

- 56% of parents are worried their kids may become addicted to technology
- 43% worry their kids are spending too much time online
- 38% worry their kids are oversharing personal details
- 94% have positive attitudes about the role of technology in their children's education
