

Behind the Wheel Instruction

Behind-the-Wheel Instruction $280

Students who take the classroom instruction at Pillager are not required to take their behind-the-wheel class from Pillager School, but this training is available through the Community Ed office here with certified instructors. This instruction may also be available at other driving schools in the area. It is the student's responsibility to register for Behind-the-Wheel hours with the instructor of their choice. (If you opt to use another driving school, you must have a document from the instructor of the classroom portion before they will be given BTW instruction.)

- For all Pillager Students that have completed our 30 hour drivers education course and received a valid Minnesota Driver's Permit.
- Students need to schedule and complete three 2 hour sessions (6 hours total are needed to meet state requirements)
- Offered weekdays from 3:15-5:15 and most weekends 9-11 and 11-1.
- To schedule please contact Kent Janicke at kjanicke@isd116.org or 218-242-9862
