PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dilworth Family,

We are looking forward to a fun and busy week with the Book Fair, Grandparents Day (come and enjoy lunch with your grandchildren), and parent conferences this week on Wednesday and Thursday. Please come and support your students in all you can. It does mean a lot to them. Thank you!

Kind regards,

Richard Squire, Principal

GRANDPARENTS' Lunch: We look forward to seeing grandparents in the building this week! You may pre-pay for a school lunch if you come see Carolyn in the office before your designated lunch date. Please note that only cash or check can be received in the office and that lunch workers may not accept any tender. Adult lunch is $ 3.75 per lunch. Students are very excited to share their Dilworth experience with grandparents.

October 5th Grandparents of students with last names A - M

October 6th Grandparents of students with last names N - Z

We invite grandparents to come enjoy lunch with their grandchildren and then stroll the Book Fair returning students to their classrooms when finished. All teachers understand that students will be pulled at random times for lunch.

Grandparents are welcome to bring lunch in, also, and may choose to sit in the cafeteria OR, to alleviate congestion in the cafeteria & provide a quieter, more intimate setting, chairs will be set up outside in the courtyard (Outside the 3rd grade doors). Blankets could also be brought to seat grandchildren in the courtyard.

To help the flow, we encourage you to pick up the oldest grandchild first, and then pick up the other grandchildren youngest to oldest. Please know the teacher of your oldest grandchild and their room number. ** Kindergarten lunch begins at 11:30; First Grade lunch begins at 11:40; Second grade lunch begins at 11:50; Fifth Grade lunch begins at 12:00; Third grade lunch begins at 12:10; Fourth Grade lunch begins at 12:20; Sixth Grade lunch begins at 12:30.
