WILL

The members of the Senior Class of the School of Jefferson, County of Union and State of S. D., being of unusually sound mind, memory and body do hereby make and declare this to be their last will and testament.

First-To the faculty we wish to leave our willingness to--skip class.

Second-To the students our unwavering ability dodge long as assignments, and our ability to get along with the teachers.

Third-To the Juniors we leave our mark of coordination as a class to withstand the trials and tribulations of their Senior year.

Fourth and lastly we leave such individual traits as we see fitting the recipients:

Phillip wills his curly hair to Edwin and his ability to get to school on time to David.

To Shirley Bruneau, Emma bequeaths her quietness and her supply of gum to all those who wish to remain in the Detention - period.

Lou's height she gives to Nancy, and her curly hair to Lois To Jim L., Paul wills his "sky hooks", and to Dick Folsom - his musical ability.

Clyde wills his typing ability to Mr. Gilliland and his ability to get along with the girls to Dick Merrill.

Fern's gift to gab she leaves to that already acquired by Bernece and her size twenty waist to Jean Mae.

Duane wills his supply of ambition to Delores Malloy and to Vernon his ability to get along in Westfield.

Her long blond curls Shirley bequeaths to Bob Lewis and her Grade School reporting to Florine.

Bill Nelson wills his interest in an education to anyone -- who is smart enough to relize it's necessity.

To Martin Burke, Mary Nearman bequeaths her undying sense of humor and her tinyness to FiFi.

Willie Beavers wills his generosity to anyone who can afford it and his insurance sales talk to Mr. Michaelson.

Annette's little feet she leaves to Russell and her love for school to Carolyn.

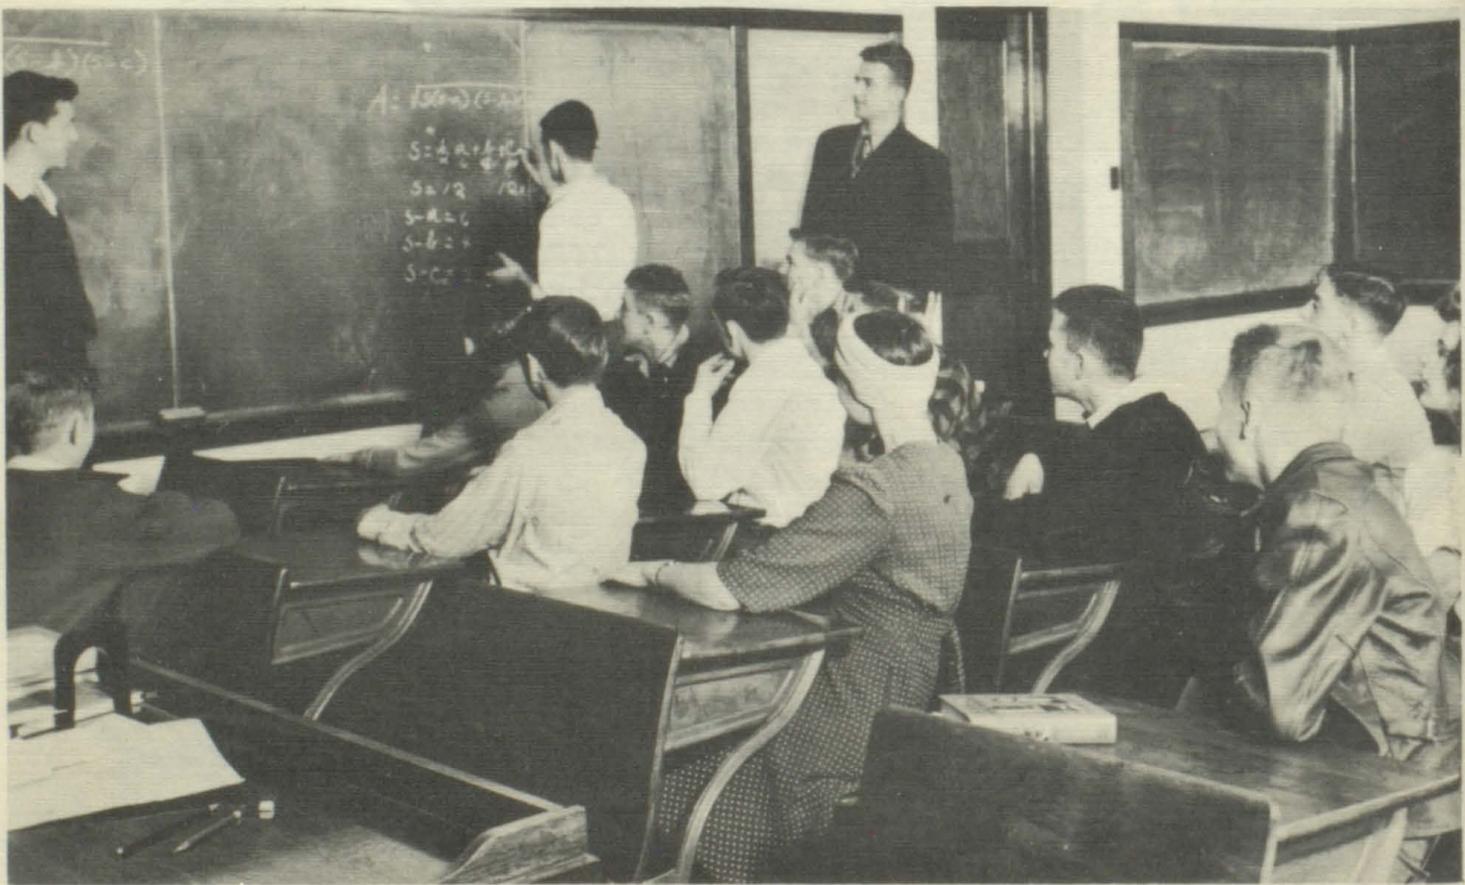

Her wad of gum Beverly leaves under her desk for anyone who occupies the before mentioned desk next year. Her supply of stationery to Bedonna for those certain letters.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have here unto affixed their hands and seals on this 16th day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven.

PROPHECY

In the summer of 1957 we find ourselves building a bonfire in the midst of Jefferson's new park, the wind rises and we find SMOKE GETS IN THE EYES of all participants at this picnic gathering of the Junior and Senior Classes of 1947.

As the smoke rises and the fire blazes, it reminds us of APRIL SHOWERS that put out the sparks of Beverly Connor's kindling flame, as Superintendent Eldred Chicoine refuses to recognize Beverly's application as a Math instructor here at JHS.

AS TIME GOES BY, and the RAIN continues to fall, we LOOK IN THE LOOKING GLASS to CHECK UP on the past GAY LITTLE MELODIES. We find the Missouri rising and Paul Minor engineering THE ATCHESON, TOPEKA, AND SANTA FE across the lonely waters.

Father in the distance we see a faint shadow of a boat approaching. At its wheel we see Fern Minor who is on her way to see HOW ARE THINGS IN GLOCCA MORRA.

AND THEN IT'S HEAVEN when we hear a beautiful voice singing-RIVER KEEP AWAY FROM MY DOOR. Moving closer, we recognize Annette Bernard at present living on TREASURE ISLAND keeping the business affairs of Allard and Bernard Tug Boat Company, Inc., TUG BOAT ANNIE is being offered too, as Phillip Bernard has been spending all his profits on his MILLION DOLLAR BABY AT THE FIVE AND TEN CENT STORE.

The RAIN has been doing damage in Iowa--not only to Duane Jones' tall corn--but has been interfering with his visits to SUE CITY SUE.

Water also surrounds the GIRL NEXT DOOR, Lou Mills, WHO, CONFIDENTLY, through all this gloom, is all SMILES as ALWAYS. She is WHISPERING to us the story of her old classmate, Mary Nearman, who got disgusted waiting for BLUE SKIES and is now touring the United States looking for SOMEONE TO LOVE. While on that tour she came upon William Nelson settled peacefully on a farm in California. AS YOU'LL SEE, she was well paid, with COCKTAILS FOR TWO.

As a result of all the rain, Emma Jean Bruneau and Shirley Dillon have closed their TEA FOR TWO business and are waiting -- TILL THE CLOUDS ROLL BY to find the SILVER LINING.

Gazing slightly upward, we discover Clyde Hoffman and Will Beavers CLIMBING THE HIGHEST MOUNTAIN to their home, where they have been batching peacefully, and MAKING BELIEVE LINDA, Louise-AND ROSALIE were the housekeepers. COFFEE WITH CREAM seems to be a LOW FLAME and the LITTLE BROWN JUG is the SPORTING HEART ACHES, SO THEY TELL US.

LET'S PUT ALL OUR DREAMS TOGETHER for these MEMORIES JUST KEEP COMING BACK LIKE A SONG. The day has come to a close, the picnic is over, and as STARDUST sets in we all agree hasn't THIS BEEN KIND OF FUN.
