SENIORS

Lois Ashmore
Men are all alike. Yeah!
men are all I like too.

Nancy Blanchard
She talks and talks and still she talks.

Joe Brown
THINK...maybe we can dodge this work.

Suzanne Busker
School is her pastime, but what is her study.

Edward Callahan
He doesn't let studies interfere with his education.

Jeanne Card
I get more education in a four minute break than in an hour class.

Shirley Caskey
Full of fun, full of cheer, not so shy as may appear.

Colleen Clifford Nature made her as she should not too bad and not too good.

Craig Dempsey
Once I thought nights were made for study, but now I know different.

Joe DuBray
Madam, I am guaranteed
not to rust, corrode, burn, tarnish, or wear out.

Roger Fletcher
A very careful student... careful not to overdo it.

Jim Forss
Someone has to be quiet around here.

Judy Gurney
Men are cheats, criminals, loafers! They can never be trusted, but gee aren't they cute?

Janet Hall
Why hurry to school....
it starts without me.

Dewey Hansen
He burns the midnight oil-- gasoline.

Rita Hanson
More fun....over the weekend.

Sally Hanson
This little lass is the Queen of our class.

Richard Helgersen
There are a few things that never go out of style, and the feminine woman is one.

Jon Frederick Horton
What I don't know doesn't bother me.

Mavis Hummel
Her mind is like a railroad timetable...subject to change without notice.

Dale Jepsen
I'd say Einstein just beat me to it.

Carl Kayl
Someday I will do something drastic like study.

Don LaFerrier
Deep in his serious nature
he's a romantic impulse.

Patricia Myers
Seldom found alone....
usually in groups of two.

Sandra Pace
The only way to rid temptation is to yield to it.

William Patnaude
Surprise, I'm in school today!

Estelline Rosenbaum
The key to success doesn't fit the night latch.

Marlyce Rosenbaum
Always a good worker, but always ready for a good time.

Paul Rosenbaum
Exercise? Why yes, I peeled an orange this morning.

Jim Sanford
Early to bed and early to rise, and you'll miss a lot of interesting things that don't go on in the daytime.

Dennis Severson

After everything else school comes first.

Dianne Shearon

Is she giggling again or still?

Sandra Skogsberg

Sugar and spice and everything nice; one of these days she'll be sprinkled with rice.

Dorothy Teply

I can't do two things at once so I think of him and let my studies go.

David Van Bockern

I am the patient type;
will you be the nurse?

Pat Walsh

Why be disagreeable, when you can be a real stinker.

Laurence Weddle
How do I know girl's won't bite?

Betty Williams
A ring on the finger is worth two on the phone.

HOMECOMING

The Homecoming Festivities of 1961 began on October 5 with the traditional coronation ceremony. A fanfare by Larry Gill, Joe Parsons, Jim Beebee and Walther Kallested set the stage for herald, Suzie Busker who read the official scroll. Strains of the "Coronation March" were struck by Lynne Olson and Susan Rasmussen as the crowd stood to greet Queen Sally Hanson and King Joe DuBray. The Queen's train was carried by Stanley Lande and Peter Limoges. Preceding the royal procession were the flower girls, Jean McInerney and Debra Jo Tosh; and crown bearers, Danny Curry and Robert Girard.

Following the royal pair were their Senior attendants: Colleen Clifford, Craig Dempsey, Dianne Shearon and David Van Bockern. Their Junior attendants were Elaine Benjamin and Mary Kayl, Sophomore, Sheryl Ekren, and Freshman, Jane Chaussee. The king and queen, elected by popular vote of the student body, were crowned by Lynne Chaussee and Gary Molzen, the 1960 royalty.

The afternoon attraction was the Homecoming parade led by the Elk Point High School Band. The Senior float received first prize followed by the Sophomores and Juniors respectively. The football game carried forward the Homecoming spirit, for the Pointers beat Beresford 20-0. Following the game was the final event, the Elk Day Dance, with music by Gus Hahn, which climaxed a wonderful 1961 Homecoming, one which we shall never forget!

Distracted. Maddened. That's what the innocent father is. And who wouldn't be? He's forced to live in a house with a neurotic ex-pugilist who starts fighting whenever a doorbell rings. Not only that, but a strange Miss Cholmundely--as dizzy and stupid as they come--has taken up her abode.

It all happens on the night of the Junior Prom, when Hildy comes down with the measles, and everybody in the Haines residence is guarantined. It is really Chuck's fault though. Innocently enough, in testing his printing press, he ran off some handbills that brought forth results in the form of mental patients.
