THE 1971 ELK

ELK POINT HIGH SCHOOL
ELK POINT, SO. DAK.

I, the Student Body, went to school today. There were all of my friends, and some new faces, too. In my classes I met the new teachers, and grudgingly accepted the new books. Freshmen initiation is coming up, and homecoming, too. I wonder who the king and queen will be. I hope we can win our homecoming game. I want to join debate, and make All-State band, so I had better get busy. The Christmas dance will be coming up, and there are magazines to sell. There's a chance we'll go far in basketball—should be some good games. The prom will be the most beautiful to behold. And around then we'll be marching in band. The class will work hard and we'll get to go to Pierre. Then all too soon it will be graduation day. Looks like I'm in for a good year.

The school auditorium suddenly grew still as Herald Yvonne Hanson stepped onto the stage. Thus, began the Elk Day festivities of 1970. The silence was broken by fanfare Dan DeBuhr as Yvonne prepared to announce the names of the new King and Queen.

A roar of screams and applause accompanied the proclamation of Queen Pat and King Gene as the royalty of 1970. Senior candidates for King and Queen included Marlene Hall, Mike Hall, Rhonda Rosenbaum, and Bob Malloy.

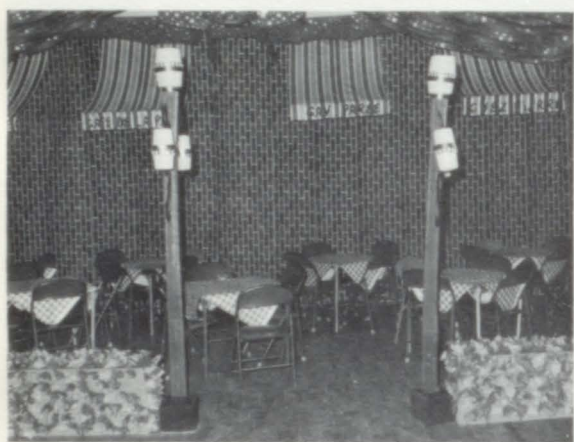

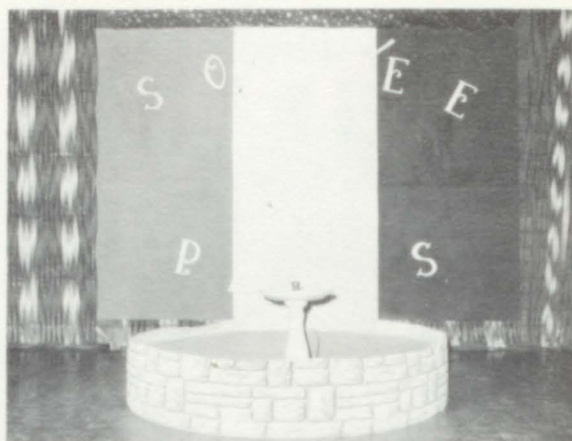

The Junior class chose Jane Hammitt and Gloria Hanson as attendants. Debbie Guillaume and Suellen Patnaude served as attendants for the Sophomore and Freshmen classes.

Last year's royalty, Carmen Fowler and Richard Roach, crowned King Gene and Queen Pat. The king's scepter was presented by Lynn Olson. The Queen received her bouquet from Maureen Pierce. The presentation of the senior candidates' flowers was done by Peggy Curry and Paula Pace. The class attendants received their flowers from Marisa Dion and Rita Kyte.

Children in the royal procession included crown bearers, Russell Crippen and Richard Curry, and the train bearers, Robert Danielson and John Malloy. The flower girls were Deanna Martin and Patty Tammen. Immediately following the coronation, the traditional bonfire was held at the Dupont Lot.

September 25, Elk Day, started off with an earsplitting pep meeting as the students showed their support of the team. The homecoming parade was soon after. First place went to the sophomores, while the junior high and the seniors received second and third places.

The highlight of the day was the football game held between the Elk Point Pointers and the Brandon Valley Lynx. The Pointers lost to the Lynx by a final score of 20 to 8. Entertainment provided by the "Silent Experience" at the dance concluded our 1970 Homecoming.

Seniors Honored with an "Evening in Paris"

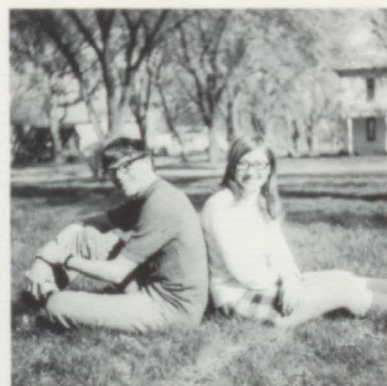

"Evening in Paris" was the theme chosen by the juniors for 1971 Prom. Highlights of the affair were a miniature Eiffel Tower, a French flag, located behind a fountain, and a sidewalk cafe.

Entertainment for the event was provided by "The Lip." Mrs. Kenneth Miller and Mrs. Orville Talbott served refreshments.

Preceding the dance was a banquet at which the seniors were honored guests. Bill Miller, vice president of the junior class, welcomed the boys, and Laura Noble, junior class president, presented a welcoming speech to the girls. Alan Nickles acted as master of ceremonies. After the meal, Lorie Robbins sang "April Love" and Lissa Lane sang "Charade".

Elected by the popular vote of the student body, King Pete and Queen Lissa were crowned by last year's sweetheart royalty, Craig Guillaume and Pam Lyle.

Providing the entertainment was the Springwater Rust Band. Refreshments were served by the Sophomores.

Government Students Invade Pierre

The seniors of EPHS took their annual trip to Pierre March 9 and 10 and roomed at the Holiday Inn.

The first site the group of 42 seniors observed was Oahe Dam. The State Capitol building was next on their list with a tour of the Criminal Investigation Department followed by a short talk given by the head of C.I.D.

The caucus room was on the group's agenda where they were explained the functions of the legislature by Representative Eugene Mahan of Union County.

The group went to the galleries to watch the legislature in action. Following the observance of the gallery, they held a banquet at the Holiday Inn, where Representative Mahan and Lt. Governor Dougherty presented talks.

The Seniors were introduced to the Senate by State Senator R.T. Collingwood. After their short visit to the different interesting and worthwhile sites, the seniors embarked for their trip back to Elk Point.

Senior Dramatists Present "You Can't Take It with You"

The fast-moving plot centered around the romance of Tony Kirby (Bob Malloy) a member of a stuffy, upper-class family, and Alice Sycamore (Pat Rehling) who came from an eccentric middle-class household. The head of the family, Martin Vanderhof (Bill Curry) had for years been evading income taxation. The tax collector (Sid Milburn) becomes exasperated by the nonchalant Vanderhof. The romance between Tony and Alice is made difficult — and embarrassing — to the young couple by the other Vanderhof household members: Penny Sycamore (Sarah Huffstetler) Alice's would-be playwright mother; Paul Sycamore (Gene KJose) Alice's carefree, unemployed father; Essie (Peggy Pratt) Alice's dancing-student sister; Ed (Phil Burrell) Essie's husband; Mr. DePinna (Scott Bennett) a close friend of the family; and the servants Rheba (Yvonne Hanson) and Donald (Jeff McInerney). Boris Kolenkhov (Gene Hammond) Essie's dance instructor, added to the mounting confusion as Tony brought his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kirby (Bruce Ballinger and Maureen Pierce) to dinner on the wrong night. Mr. and Mrs. Kirby are shocked when three policemen (Mike Pierce, Mike Hall and Pete Guillaume) raid the dinner party. Other characters who add spice to the play are drunken actress Gay Wellington (Darlys Tiemans) and The Duchess Olga (Rhonda Rosenbaum).

The play was directed by Mrs. Diane Guthmiller and student director Peggy Curry. The characters were prompted by Marlene Hall.

Juniors Present Fast-Moving Comedy

The junior class presented "Arsenic and Old Lace" on November 13. Mrs. Diane Guthmiller was director and Marilyn Anderson was student director. This three-act play by Joseph Kesselring was set in the living room in the home of Abby and Martha Brewster in Brooklyn, New York.

Abby and Martha's brother, Teddy, thinks he is Teddy Roosevelt and insists on digging a lock of the Panama Canal in their basement where various dead bodies are buried — victims of Abby and Martha's elderberry wine. Their brother, Mortimer, carries on a young love with Elaine Harper, the preacher's daughter, while another brother, Jonathan, a convict, finds refuge in the old Brewster home accompanied by Dr. Einstein.

All kinds of excitement occurs when police officers come to answer a complaint call!

Among the projects of the Future Farmers of America last year were several local judging contests. Outstanding judgement was accomplished in the livestock and poultry division by Doug Geary; dairy cattle judging, Jeff Williams; meat judging and identification, Wes Jolin; dairy products, Ken VonHaden; crops and weed identification, Merlin Henke; and mechanics, Gary Groethe. The group also attended the SDSU convention in Brookings. Phil Bosse and Leon Chicoine were selected to go to the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri, which was held last October.

The boys' money making projects included selling concessions at all home football and basketball games. This money was used to sponsor the first annual FFA banquet, which was attended by the FFA members and their parents.

SPORTS

Pointers Suffer Disappointing Year

A 0-8 season record was no indication of the EPHS football team. Under the supervision of Don Chicoine, assisted by George Bohn, the Pointers gave 100% effort in every game. They had their bright spots and dull spots. The biggest highlight of the year was the 13 to 6 defeat by Brandon. Brandon was selected by the area coaches to be one of the toughest teams in the conference. The Pointers used team work and plenty of spirit throughout the whole game; so, this was a credit to the entire team.

Picked to represent the Pointers on the All-conference team were Scott and Gene while Bill, Mike, and Dave (not pictured), were Honorable mention. (Upper right)

Football cheerleaders were Jane, Kathy, Marlene, and Debbie.

Chosen by the Class of '74 to lead the support of their team were Rhonda Burcham, Jean Hall, Suellen Patnaude, and Jeannette Tryon. These girls worked hard learning the cheers and routines. The reward for this hard work was the satisfaction of cheering for their classmates.

The frosh team was coached by Leon Swier. They compiled a record of 2 wins, 2 defeats, and 1 tie. The tie with Akron and the victory over Beresford were two memorable games of the season. The frosh were small, but they made up with speed, teamwork, and brain power.

Hard work, dedication, and spirit were the three main ingredients that led to the Pointers' success in Cross Country. The team was young but experienced as Gene, Ed, and Bob were the only seniors on the team.

The Pointers were host to the first annual E.P. Invitational C.C. Meet.

Ed has been a strong competitor throughout four years of C.C.

The Elk Point Cross Country had its most successful year in the history of the sport at Elk Point. The Pointers won the Big 8 championship, the Lennox Area championship, the EP Invitational and they placed fourth in the State Meet.

Consistent performances by the members of the team enabled them to do so well. The Pointers were led by seniors Gene Hammond, Ed Kyte, and Bob Malloy. These boys along with Alan Nickles, Chuck Parsons, and Dan DeBuhr made the team successful.

Due to his hard work and dedication leading to a successful season in Cross Country, Mr. Schaffer receives a trophy from the team to show their Coached by Roger Schaffer, the EPHS basketball team started the season on a good note, hit a mid-season slump and then ended the season with their second consecutive District 23 crown. The season's record, 10 and 16, was no indication of the Pointers' potential as they played the toughest competition ever.

Defeating Wakonda in semi-final action of the District 23 and beating the highly-rated Watchdogs of Beresford were the two biggest highlights of the year. Coach Schaffer used many members of the team and the experience will pay off in next season's games.

Due to his outstanding playing, Bob Malloy was selected first team All-Conference. Gene Kiose and Scott Bennett received Honorable mention.

Desire, hard work, and spirit are the elements which helped Bob Malloy receive All-conference honors.

Best Show In Years For B-Team

The B team ended the season with a 15-3 record under the direction of Don Chicoine. The Pups were defeated only by Class A Flandreau and Vermillion, and Class B Alcester.

The B team was led by the sophomores and their hard work and spirit will prove vital in the years to come.

The frosh, under the watchful eye of John McIntosh, compiled a 6 and 12 season record.

Cheerleaders Build Spirit

The Cheerleaders chosen to represent the Student Body at all football and basketball games were Debbie Guillaume, Kathy Hall, Marlene Hall, and Jane Hammitt.

Much work was put in the organization of the pep rallies and the cheers and routines that were led at all games.

The cheerleaders practiced twice a week, and learned several new cheers and routines to add pep to the spirit of the school.

In the fall the Varsity Cheerleaders attended a cheerleading clinic at Vermillion. This helped them considerably in leading yells and cheers at the games. They accomplished much and hope other cheerleaders attend these clinics if able.

Leading the support for the B-team this year were Patti Donnelly, Gloria Hanson, Debbie Hanson, and Jean McInerney.

These girls also worked hard and much credit should be given to them because of their hard work and determination to accomplish new cheers.

This was a familiar scene to the fans at a game.

GAA Expands and Improves

The Girls' Athletic Association completed its fourth year of intramural basketball. The six teams met once a week for ten weeks with tournaments at the end of the season. The results of these tournaments left the Hoodlums in first place, Susie Q's in second, Pacemakers II in third, Rosies Ruffies in fourth, Green Phantoms in fifth, and the Globetrotters in sixth place. To end the season, the girls attended a banquet where trophies and ribbons were presented. An appreciation plaque was presented to Miss Somsen for her work in the organization, and also to Mrs. Skinner who sponsored volleyball.

Pep Club Shows Renewed Interest

The Pep Club spent an active year at all the games this year. A new Pointer dog outfit was made by members of the Club and accompanied the cheerleaders. It was worn by various girls to help give the crowd spirit. Pep Club buttons were purchased to replace the former outfits. Profits from these buttons, along with candy sales, purchased a large trophy which was to be presented annually to one member of the Club for their outstanding spirit. LeAnn Stewart was the first to be awarded this trophy of recognition.

Sponsor for this organization, who worked with the president to improve the pep club, was Mrs. Dianne Guthmiller.

Jill Hansen, Joan Hall, Dawn Simmons, and Rhonda Rosenbaum were selected this year as wrestling cheerleaders.

These girls worked hard trying to build up the school spirit for the sport of wrestling. A fan could always see the cheerleaders by the edge of the mat yelling encouragement to the wrestlers.

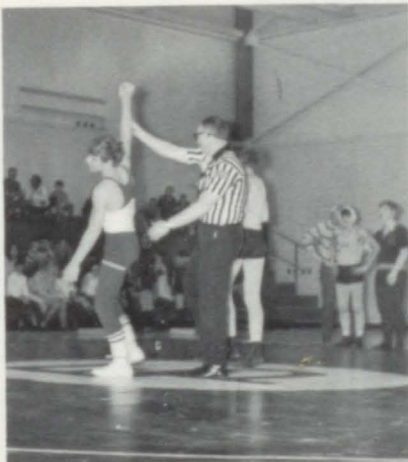

Wrestlers in action.

Coached by George Bohn the first year EPHS wrestling team had a very impressive 8 and 5 win, loss record. The Pointers' biggest showings of the year were: getting defeated by the 5th rated Beresford by the slight margin of 2 points; winning a double dual with Parker and Hurley.

Dallas Harkness compiled a 13 and 9 dual record and Mike Hall was voted the most valuable wrestler. The Pointers were young and this should prove a great factor in next year's sesason.

Which one is the Pointer?

The sign of victory came many times to the first year matmen of EPHS and also to the fans.

Golf Team Accomplishes Much in First Year

The first year golf team was under the leadership of Mr. Chicoine. The team practiced on the public course and also hosted meets on the course. The team traveled to other towns and they competed in the Region Meet held at Vermillion.

Brad Wilbur led the team and he missed going to the State Golf Meet by the slight margin of one stroke.

Getting ready to tee off are the Pointers of Elk Point.

Those who went out for the first year golf team were: M. Turner, D. Teply, K. Hammitt, B. Wilbur, J. McNerney and K. Livingston.

These were the boys that represented Elk Point on the courses of other towns throughout the year.

8 "Tracksters" Attend State Meet

The Elk Point track team was under the direction of Leon Swier. Mr. Schaffer directed the distance men while Mr. Bohn controlled the weight men.

These men worked hard and much of the team's success goes to their hard work and helpful hints.

These were the trophies that the Pointers received throughout the year for their hard work and determination.

The Elk Point track team had a fairly good track year with eight entries traveling to the State Meet which was held in Sioux Falls.

The 2-mile relay broke the school record with a good time of 8:26.4 for the eight lap event. Gene Kiose topped the pole vault record with a leap of 12'4". Freshman Larry DeBuhr tied the Frosh 100 yard event while classmate Joe Hall tied both the Frosh high jump and pole vault.

The highlight of the year was the winning of the West Sioux Invitational track meet and the placing of fourth in the Big 8 Conference Track Meet held in Dell Rapids.

The Pointers were a high spirited team but lack of experience and depth seem to be the things that hurt the team most.

Those who ran distance this year were: C. Rosenbaum, G. Hammond, B. Rubida, D. Davis, and C. Parsons. (Bottom row) L. Olsen, D. Talbot, A. Nickles, and W. Chicoine.

Sitting around talking about the hurdles were this year's hurdlers: M. Knecht, C. Fennel, S. Bennett, and B. Harkness.

The sprinters for the season were: G. Kjose, B. Malloy, S. Bennett, J. Fowler, B. Beaver, J. Schmidt. (Bottom row) B. Harkness, M. Knecht, L. DeBuhr, D. DeBuhr, and P. Bosse.

Those throwing the shot and discus this year were: P. Limoges, B. Miller, J. Hinds, N. Chicoine. (Bottom row) B. Harkness, C. Hammond, C. Rosenbaum, and J. Fowler.

The rest of the field events men were: R. Adams, G. Kjose, C. Fennel, D. Debuhr, B. Malloy. (Front) J. Hall, N. Chicoine, P. Hammitt, and M. Knecht.

Ed, in the mile, Gene, in the pole vault, Dan, in the 220, and Chuck, in the two mile were the Pointers who participated in the individual events at the state meet.

Gene broke the school record in the pole vault with a leap of 12'4". Gene was a consistent winner of the vault.

The medley relay consisting of Dan, Larry, Phil, and Dave went to the state meet with the third fastest time in the state. The relay consists of a 220, 220, 440, and 880.

Phil, Gene, Dan, and Larry were the members of the mile relay. This team went to state with the tenth fastest time. The team placed third in the Region running under the state standard.

Dave, Bruce, Alan, and Gene were the Pointers who ran the 2-mile relay. The team set the school record with a time of 8:26.8. These boys each ran a half mile in the race.

Senior Honors

The senior class had several leading students. Heading the list of leaders were class officers, Mike Hall, president, Bob Malloy, vice-president, Mike Pierce, student council representative and Sidney Milburn, secretary-treasurer.

Carol Chicoine was our Betty Crocker Award winner. Peggy Curry won both the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) Award and the Voice of Democracy contest.

Gene Kjose, Paula Pace, Peggy Curry and Bill Curry were elected outstanding teenagers.

Seniors Found in All Activities

Seniors spent a year both with school work and outside activities.

GAA senior captains, Sue Thorson, Rhonda Rosenbaum, Paula Pace, Sarah Huffstetler, and Peggy Pratt kept the girls in shape. Yvonne Hanson, one of several seniors, modeled in the spring home ec style show.

Play tryouts involved most everyone — including dramatic aspirants, Sue Thorson and Jeff McNerny. Ed Kyte's "kyte" was one of dozens of political posters papering the school walls preparing the students for student Government Day elections.

And, getting a little sentimental and reflective, the senior's "... we've only just begun" poster expressed the feelings of many.
