NEW PRINCIPAL JOINS ADMINISTRATION

H.J. Tiemens held the position of superintendent this year at EPHS. His main duty was to coordinate all activities of the school district. Mr. Tiemens worked together with Leon A. Swier who began his first year as principal. Mr. Swier conducted the operation of the high school.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

FACULTY

Heading the Science Department were Mr. McLane and Mrs. Milburn. Mr. McLane teaches seventh and eighth grade science and freshmen general science. Mrs. Milburn instructs biology, chemistry, and physics.

Spencer Brende is new on the EPHS administration this year. Mr. Brende acts as grade school principal and as the senior high guidance counselor.

Miss Vondrak checks over Cathy Morris' home ec. project to make sure every seam is perfect, then marks the finished garment in her record book. Miss Vondrak teaches Home Ec. I, II, and III, and seventh and eighth grade classes in home economics.

Gary Bell, band and vocal instructor, worked hard in heading the organizations and planning of extra activities for raising funds for new band uniforms.

Mrs. Patti Skinner, Mrs. Pam Thorson, and Mrs. Jean McDowall make up the English Department. Along with the usual duties of English teachers, they have been busy working on the new English schedule for next year. Mrs. Skinner also teaches French I and II and Mrs. McDowall serves as the high school librarian.

Mr. Roger Schaffer and Mr. John McIntosh were the EPHS social science teachers. Mr. Schaffer, a graduate of USD, taught American history and Mr. McIntosh, a graduate of San Francisco State University, kept busy with classes of government, economics, problems of democracy, sociology, and psychology.

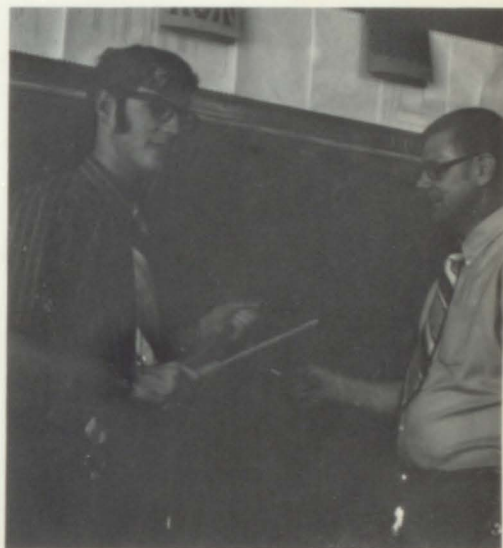

Commercial teachers were Mrs. Linda Stene and Mr. Rod Knutson. Mrs. Stens taught classes of shorthand and office practice. Mr. Knutson is typing and bookkeeping instructor and is a graduate of USD at Springfield.

Art, a new subject offered to juniors and seniors this year, was taught by Mrs. Connie Kettering.

Mr. Ken Thorson and Mr. Leon Swier (RIGHT) compose the EPHS Math Department. Mr. Thorson, a graduate of Augustana College, instructed general math, Algebra I, and II, and geometry. Senior math is taught by Mr. Swier.

Steven Thiesse (BELOW) is the agriculture and shop teacher and serves as advisor for the FFA organization.

Mr. Bohn (RIGHT) was physical education teacher for elementary and secondary classes. He is a graduate of USD.

The '71-'72 coaching staff at EPHS (LEFT) put in long hours to help make each sport successful. Mr. J. McIntosh assisted in football and coached freshmen basketball; Mr. K. Thorson also assisted in football; Mr. R. Schaffer, Athletic Dept. head, coached cross-country, basketball, and assisted in track; Mr. G. Bohn was in charge of football and wrestling; and Mr. R. Knutson assisted in basketball and was head track coach.

Mrs. Marilyn Bennett kept our records straight serving as Clerk of the Board and as secretary for Mr. Tiemens.

New this year as one of EPHS secretaries was Mrs. Lois Matson. Mrs. Matson aided Mr. Swier by keeping attendance records and doing other such duties.

THESE ARE THE PEOPLE WHO HELP THE SCHOOL RUN SMOOTHLY

CLASSES

SENIORS BEGIN INFORMAL STUDY HALL

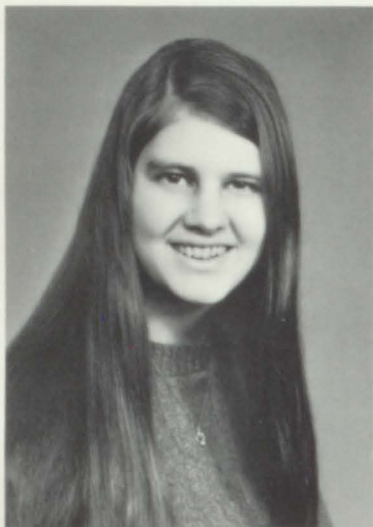

As always, the senior year in high school is a time when its members get ready to say farewell to their high school days and hello to a new tomorrow. This year, especially, the senior class of 1972 jammed as much fun and unforgettable moments into their last year as they possibly could.

This was the year for the more liberal dress code and the '72 seniors were the first to further their responsibilities by setting up a senior study hall where only seniors were provided an informal means of studying in the barracks and an open campus.

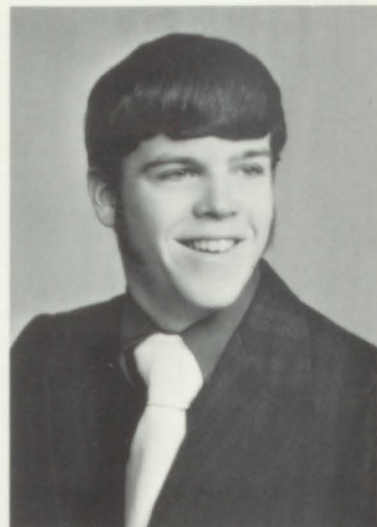

They sponsored chili suppers and sold concessions at games to make money for their annual trip to visit the legislature in Pierre. The trip began with a bomb threat but progressed to an exciting, exhausting day in Pierre.

The more dramatic members of the class participated in the spring play, but everyone joined in the party afterwards.

Graduation came finally for some and suddenly for others. With the motto "Today is the First Day of the Rest of Our Lives" the seniors finished another step of their long road to tomorrow.

"TODAY IS THE FIRST DAY OF THE REST OF OUR LIVES"

The finale of high school for the 44 seniors of EPHS took place May 22 in the school gymnasium. The Class of '72 chose purple and yellow as their colors and the yellow rose as their class flower. Their motto "Today is the First Day of the Rest of Our Lives" meant many different things to each class member. Juniors Jean McInerney and Brad Wilbur led the seniors in for Commencement and Baccalaureate which was held the night before, May 21. Reverend William J. Steele of the United Parish gave the Baccalaureate sermon. Dr. H.C. Rustad, associate professor of the Department of Educational Administration, USD, delivered the Commencement address. Chosen for scholastic achievement were Marilyn Anderson, valedictorian; and Craig Fennel, salutatorian.

With so many designs to choose from the choice was difficult. Finally decisions were made on class rings and happy results awaited the juniors on the day the rings arrived from Jostens. The juniors chose two styles of rings: rectangular and round. Pictured to the left is Wes Jolin being fitted for his ring by the Josten representative. Below, several juniors view the large selections of styles available.

The junior class worked together with their sponsors Mrs. Milburn, Mrs. Vondrak, and Mr. Thiesse so that the April 29 prom deadline could be met. The boys hung and fastened wire and built scaffolds while the girls hung the lavender, pink and white streamers. Mr. Thiesse was in charge of all electrical work for the blacklights.

Delegates who attended Boys' State in Aberdeen this year were Brad Wilbur and Dan Curry. Girls' State delegates were Debi Guillaume and Mary Westin. Alternates for Boys' and Girls' State were Dan Teply and Kevin Chicoine and Viola Larsen and Maureen Donnelly, respectively.

CLASS FLOAT TAKES 1st

"Toast to a Victory" was the theme of the sophomore class float (RIGHT) that took first place honors in the Elk Day homecoming parade. Along with various outside activities, all sophomores were required to take English and biology (ABOVE LEFT). English class (ABOVE) was more fun in the park on a sunny day than in the hot classroom.

At the annual science fair held in March, parents, friends, and students viewed projects made by seventh graders through high school students. Mrs. Milburn and Mr. McLane were in charge of the fair.

At FAR LEFT, Viola Larson, and Christy Law read the script for the style show sponsored by the home ec. students, under the direction of Mrs. Vondrak. ABOVE: Denise Jones and Kathy Hall model outfits of their own creation.

On the same night of the style show, an art exhibit was set-up by the first year Art Department. The exhibit featured various articles from still-life pictures to tissue paper collages. Mrs. Connie Ketterling was in charge of the exhibits.

CROWNING OF ROYALTY OPENS HOMECOMING FESTIVITIES

Dan DeBuhr and Jane Hammitt were crowned Elk Day King and Queen at the annual Elk Day coronation ceremonies on Thursday, September 30. They were crowned by the 1970 Royalty, Gene Kjose and Patti Rehling. The king and queen were selected by the student body from a list of candidates nominated by members of the senior class.

Other coronation participants were Craig Guillaume, Steve Hofland, Gloria Hanson and Kathy Hall, senior candidates. Attendants to the queen were Angela Corio, Jean McInerney, Stephanie Weber and Mary Chicoine.

The weather cooperated to its fullest as rains which threatened both the bonfire and parade ceased in time to hold both events on schedule.

The sophomore class was judged to have the best float in the parade's school division. Second place went to the seventh and eighth grades and third place to the junior class.

SWEETHEART'S BALL SPONSORED BY STUDENT COUNCIL

The school auditorium was again the scene of the annual Sweetheart's Ball. Decorations were provided by the sophomore class and music was supplied by Buckwheat Union. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the new sweetheart royalty, Queen Pearl Behrends and King Kurt Hammitt.

SENIOR GOVERNMENT DAYS

The battle between the Nationalists and Federalists was in full swing as the seniors gave their campaign speeches Friday, February 11, in front of the EPHS students. The Feds were led by their campaign manager Criag Fennel, and the Nats by Cecil Branson. Federalists were elected to 9 of the 12 offices after the voting was completed. Government Days was held February 15, at the Union County Court House in Elk Point. Seniors from Alcester, Beresford, Elk Point, and Jefferson took part. In the morning, elected student officials visited their respected offices. An afternoon mock trial ended the activities.

NATS

FEDS

The senior class boarded a Greyhound bus early Monday morning, February 7, and headed for Pierre to visit the State Capitol. The group attended the Senate session and were recognized by Senator R. T. Collingwood. Representative Gene Mahan introduced them during the House session. Seniors visited the museum and other points of interest during the day in Pierre. The group returned home that evening. They were accompanied by Supt. and Mrs. H. J. Tiemens.

JUNIORS ENACT ONE-ACT PLAYS

Thirty-three juniors presented three one-act plays on Friday, November 12, under the direction of Mrs. Patti Skinner. Student directors were Denise Chicoine, Kathy Tucker and Sandra Jorgensen. AT LEFT Denise Chicoine, Mrs. Skinner, Sandra Jorgensen, and Kathy Tucker have a look at the scripts. Mrs. Skinner received a corsage and gift certificate from the juniors for her work.

The first play presented was "The Capricious Pearls". It dealt with five gangsters (Dan Curry, Dick King, Brad Schulz, Chuck Hammond, and Angela Corio) just out of jail after serving a sentence for robbery. The criminals came back for their hidden pearls only to find that their hiding place had been turned into a home for old ladies (Connie Franey, Wanda Thorson, Ollie Richters, LeAnn Stewart, and Paula Girard), their managers and houseworkers (Christy Law, Mary Westin and Maureen Donnelly). When the gangsters realized the situation, they had a change of heart and donated their loot to the ladies. Student director was Kathy Tucker.

"So the Jury Was Hung" was under the direction of Sandra Jorgensen. Mr. Little Quirt (David Curry), foreman of the jury, tried to show his fellow jurors, eleven women (Debi Guillaume, Viola Larsen, Jean McInerney, Nancy Kroeger, Eileen Chicoine, Vicki Lanning, Patti Donnelly, Marla Henke, Debbie Talbott, Elaine Lawrence and Susan Callahan) the seriousness of the case standing trial but interruptions kept him from doing so. Trying to get a decision from the ladies, Mr. Quirt went into a maddening rage to get out. The situation became even funnier when the Court attendant (Kurt Hammitt) and two waitresses (Dawn Simmons and Pearl Behrends) walked into the room.

The last play, "Monkeyshine in a Doctor's Office" began with Doctor Swathe (Tim Hall) in his office. Joe (Brad Wilbur), a painter, came in to watch the office while the doctor left on call. The antics really start to happen as four patients (Terry Lanning, Mary Westin, Kevin Chicoine, and Chuck Hammond) came in after the doctor has gone. Joe, posing as the doctor, gave each patient a treatment with a swallow of monkeyshine. The doctor returned to find his office in an uproar with Joe and the patients all acting like wacky monkeys. Denise Chicoine was student director for the monkey business.

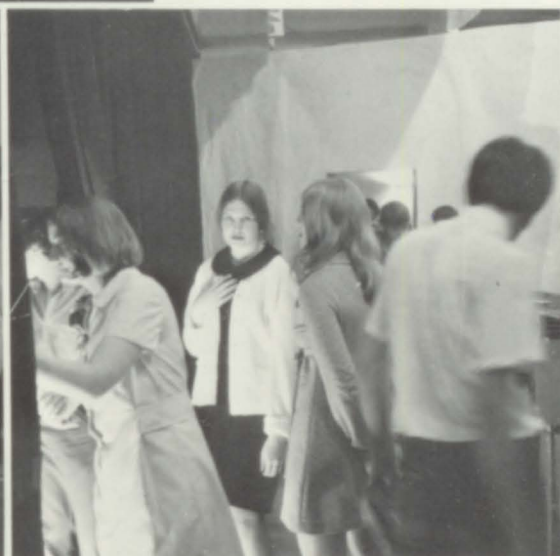

SENIOR STAGE THREE-ACT PLAYS

"Accidental Hero" was the choice of the seniors for their class play which was presented on April 20, 1972. Mrs. Patty Skinner was the director and was assisted by Gloria Hanson, student director.

The play contained a play within a play as a class, threatened by a loss of extra-curricular activities, sets out to prove themselves.

Twenty-three seniors were in the cast and many more helped with props, sound affects, and other behind-the-stage jobs. Mrs. Genny Ruhauk helped with make-up.

"WITH A LITTLE HELP FROM OUR FRIENDS"

"With a Little Help From Our Friends" was chosen as the theme for this year's prom. Fluorescent pink, white, and purple streamers decorated the walls, and ceiling of the old gym. Two murals, one representing different kinds of people (BELOW) and the other displaying the theme (RIGHT) hung on opposite walls of the gym.

Something different was added this year as blacklights were used to create the mood of the '72 junior-senior prom. The lights were hung in various corners and above the two murals to give a hazy, glowy effect to the event. "Crackin" provided the entertainment at the prom.

LIBRARIANS HOST TEA

Patti Donnelly and Debbie Hanson read library shelves, just one of the duties of an assistant librarian.

Librarians are from TOP TO BOTTOM: Viola Larsen, LeAnn Stewart, Joan Hall, Debbie Hanson, Connie Franey, Paula Girard, Marie Wood, Terri Corio, Janice Elkins, Maureen Donnelly, Mary Westin, Elaine Lawrence, Denise Chicoine, Wanda Thorson, Mrs. Jean McDowall, Jean McInerney, Marilyn Anderson, Laura Noble, Debbie Hofland, Vicki Lanning, Debbie Talbott, and Sandra Jorgensen.

To help celebrate National Library Week, the library club hosted a tea for the high school faculty and administration (PICTURED AT RIGHT) and sold caramels and apples to the student body. Other activities of the club included occasional dinners in the home economics room, a book fair for the junior high and high schools, and a Twirp Dance in March.

Six junior and senior girls were majorettes with the band. They were Jane Hammitt, Lissa Lane, Peggy Roach, Jean McInerney, Patti Donnelly, and Mary Westin.

Band students, under the direction of Mr. Gary Bell, prepare for a trip to a ball game.

FACULTY VS. CITY SLICKERS

To raise money for new band uniforms, a band benefit basketball game was held January 23, at the high school gym. The EPHS faculty was matched against the City Slickers consisting of the town's businessmen. The final score was 51-43 in favor of the faculty. Money earned from a PTO Carnival, a chili supper, and concessions at wrestling matches also added to the band uniform fund.

Refereeing the benefit basketball game was Jerry Ryan, ABOVE. BELOW, Mr. Bell displays new band uniforms.

The biggest jobs in publishing the school yearbook are planning layouts, getting good photographs, pasting, and writing and typing copy. These students are doing just that!

Elk Point High had only two debaters this year. They were Sandra Jorgensen and Kate Slattery. Advising them was their coach Mr. Lauren Davis. The girls participated in a debate tournament at USD in January.

FORENSIC DEPARTMENT

Six girls participated in declamtion, Angela Corio, Susan Callahan, Nancy Kroeger, Sandra Jorgensen, Debbie Donnelly, and Lissa Lane, not pictured Sally Mikkelson. Local winners were Lissa Lane, Sandra Jorgensen, and Sally Mikkelson, Coaching the girls were Mrs. Lauren Davis and Mrs. Linda Stene.

PEP CLUB SUPPORTS POINTERS

Behind the Pointers "for better or worse" was the Pep Club headed by president Annette Emerson, vice-president LeAnn Stewart and secretary Debbie Hofland. The Pep Club kept all the student body informed on all athletic activities and accomplishments with numerous signs and posters.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student council was involved in making many decisions and recommendations concerning the student body and various regulations. Members of the student council included Brad Wilbur, vice-president; Debi Guillaume, Annette Emerson, secretary; Greg Vinzant, Scott Wilbur, Chuck Parsons, Kim Callahan, Ralph Lawrence, Joe Hall, Larry DeBuhr, and Alan Nickles, president. At one of the Pointer basketball pep rallies, Coach Schaffer was presented a towel entitled "Big Daddy". The gift was to be used by the players during games for the remainder of the season; but Mr. Schaffer, however, pulled a disappearing towel trick and it was never seen again.

ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS

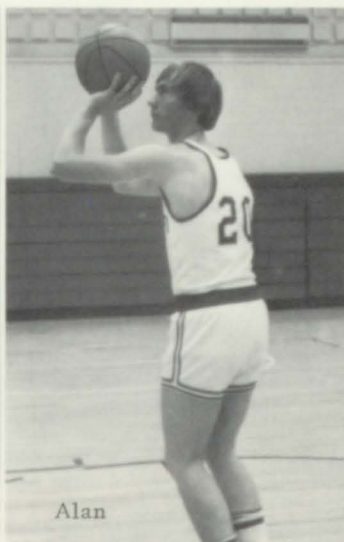

For their play during the 1971-72 season Brad Wilbur was selected to the Big 8 All-Conference team and Alan Nickles and Jack Rasmussen were picked for honorable mention. The league coaches did the voting for players on the basis of ability and hustle.

MEET THE TEAM

Three seniors, four juniors, and five sophomores played key roles in making the 1971-72 basketball season highly successful. The basketball line-up consisted of from left, FIRST ROW: Steve Hofland, Alan Nickles, Dan DeBuhr, Brad Wilbur. SECOND ROW: Kurt Hammitt, Jack Rasmussen, Larry DeBuhr, Dan Curry. THIRD ROW: Marvin Knecht, Doug Young, Tim Curry, Student manager Craig Fennel. Not pictured: Mark Turner.

Action shots show the "Pointer Prowess" which was evident throughout the 1971-72 basketball season. In posting a fine 18-8 record, Elk Point played its toughest opposition ever. Highlights of a successful basketball season were eight straight victories at the season's outset, a third place finish in the Big 8 Conference Tournament and another District 23 crown. Sickness played a major part in the team's failure to advance to the state meet in Sioux Falls.

POINTERS COP 3rd STRAIGHT CROWN

Elk Point defeated three strong opponents in regaining the District 23 championship for the third straight year. An electrifying performance in the semi-finals brought the Pointers back from a 7 point deficit in the last 15 seconds of play to pull out a hard-fought victory over Alcester, 69 to 67. The Pointers went on the following evening to defeat Jefferson, 64 to 52. Below, a happy group of Pointers pose with their trophy in the locker room after capturing the championship.

"We, the Pointers, walk in style and if you think your heart can take it, come soul awhile." chanted the EPHS cheerleaders as they followed the 1971-72 cagers to an impressive 18-8 basketball record. Throughout the season, the cheerleaders had the aid of the Pointer dog mascot to help promote pep. They kept the spirit going at home and away games, in regular season play and at tournament time. Through victory and defeat, Pointer fans continued, "We are the Pointers and we're proud of it!"

POINTERS QUALIFY FOR STATE

The Pointer track team turned in many fine performances at Sioux Falls May 19 to win the regional track meet. As a result of the meet eight Pointers qualified for the state track meet held in Mitchell at the end of May. At the meet Chuck Parsons snapped a 21-year old state record with a 1:59.3 victory in the 880-yard run semi-finals. Pictured at the right, Craig Fennel qualified for the state meet in the high jump event, having taken first in the region.

These thinclads, also, took high honors at the regional track meet to qualify them for the state meet. Their names and events are: Chuck Parsons, mile run, 880, mile relay; Dan DeBuhr, 100, 200, relay, mile relay; Larry DeBuhr, 440, medley relay, mile relay; Bruce Rubida, 880; Craig Honomichl, medley relay; Alan Nickles, medley relay, mile relay; Bill Chicoine (not pictured) two mile run.

Pointer thinclads, under the direction of Coach Rodney Knutson, began workouts March 6 to prepare for a busy spring meet schedule. Evidence of their success is shown in the picture at left. Individual track members set new records to help the Pointer team win the high honors. Some of the big wins included first place honors at the Beresford Invitational, the Elk Point Invitational, the Big 8 Conference Track Meet, and the Regional Track Meet in Sioux Falls. Seniors dominated the team with such outstanding runners as Dan DeBuhr and Chuck Parsons. Dan DeBuhr was honored in the Sioux Falls Argus-Leader's Prep Parade as one of the state's top prep sprinters, with double wins in the 100 and 200 at the regional track meet. Chuck Parsons clocked impressive wins in both the mile and 880 yard run throughout the season and placed 1st in the state Class A. Freshman Craig Honomichl, gaining honors in both freshman and varsity events, set a new record in the Frosh 100-yard dash at the Beresford Invitational. Numerous other wins and placings by members of the Pointer team were essential to the team's successful season.

A happy bunch of Pointers returned home after winning the Bersford Invitational Track Meet early in April.

Here was a familiar scene this spring at the EPHS stadium. Students, teachers, and student teachers helped keep times and records and officiated the many different events. EPHS hosted the Elk Point Invitational and the Big 8 Conference Tournament.

Don't drag your leg, Craig!

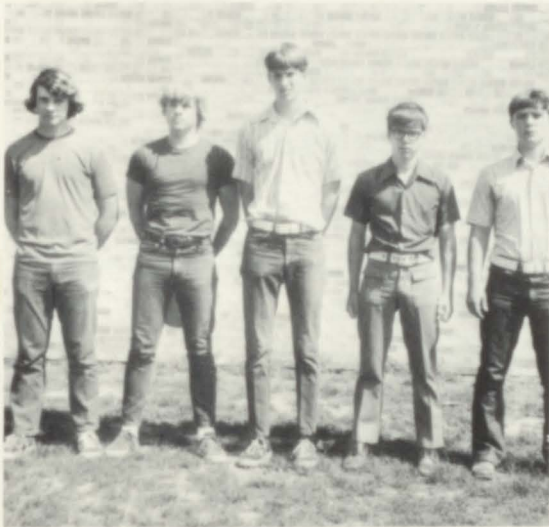

Dan's got them coming and going!

Rain hindered the golf this spring; but, nonetheless, EPHS golfers were able to play in four golf meets including meets with Wakonda, Parker, Lennox, and Beresford, winning three of the four for a good season's record. The golfers, under the direction of Dan Clinker of Vermillion, were from left: Dan Teply, Mark Turner, Kurt Hammitt, Kerry Livingston, Brad Wilbur, Jim Munhofen, Brad Schulz. Not Pictured: Paul Hammitt.

ONE EPHS GOLFER QUALIFIES FOR STATE
