A small town may seem to be timeless; everything remains the same. But subtle changes are happening constantly. In the years and experiences of high school, we will change a great deal- lasting changes that effect our future lives. In America's Bicentennial Year, we have tried to show how E.P.H.S. has changed.

The time we have all been waiting for is finally here, we're Seniors! While we are all glad we finally made it, we hold some good, and some not so good memories of our days at EPHS.

We began our high school days by being the last class to be initiated in the grand old tradition- syrup, molasses, and jelly in our hair, glue on our faces, and eggs in our too big boots. We consoled ourselves by planning how we would murder the class of 79 when our Sr. year came... Well, it was a nice thought anyway.

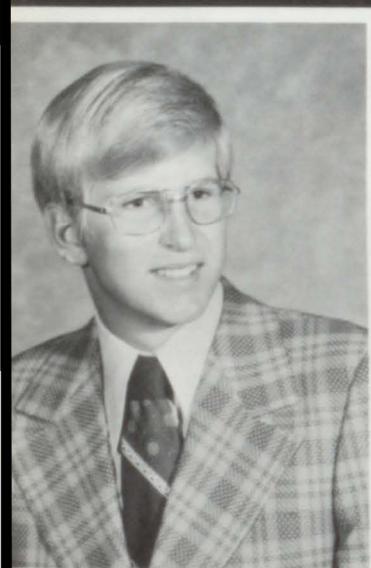

We fulfilled our Homecoming obligation by building a bigger bonfire then any class since, complete with outhouse on top.

Our Frosh teams showed the true spirit of 76 by being undefeated in football and dropping only two losses in basketball to Vermillion.

The Seniors give their Government Days speeches to the student body. The Feds won all but three of the offices.

Top: John Brown and friend run for coronor. Tim Chicoine wore his best suit for govt. day, but Sue doesn't seem too impressed.

We all enjoyed general science with Mr. Weir, especially the stories he told us about his little sister's misadventure in the out-house. We also will never forget the blue and white pig which was offered as haltime entertainment by Jefferson at the district basketball tournament.

It was also the first year for Honor Study Hall, Nixon was re-elected to his ill-fated second term, and O. E. dness struck us all as Dena added a new word to the vocabulary of EPHS.

As Sophomores we found ourselves in biology exploring the inner secrets of such delightful creatures as frogs and fetal pigs. While most of us found this to be a less than thrilling experience, Ann McInerney got her kicks by making a ring from her pig's intestine. To get some fresh air after all that formaldehyde, we took a field trip to Union County Park and collected leaves to use in making a notebook. Does anyone remember the difference between a gymnosperm and an angeosperm?

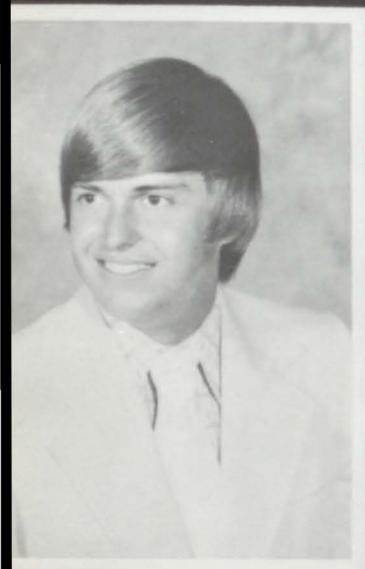

Members of our class were the last to receive the honor of being prom servers. They got to dress up in cute little outfits and sing for the Juniors and Seniors.

In sports, we again proved our excellence as the B-team lost only one of fourteen basketball games.

Some of the seniors worked in the concession stand to help raise money for our steak dinner. Below, Sue Keairns and Randy Rehling get all tangled up in their haste to serve customers, while Dick Rosenbaum gives directions. These people raised $30 at one basketball game.

As Juniors we followed some traditions, and started others. Our record magazine sales allowed us to hold the Jr.-Sr. Prom at the Marina Inn. The prom servers were eliminated to the dismay of some sophomores. We ordered our class rings in the fall and waited impatiently for their arrival in March. Many juniors ordered special rings engraved with Spirit of 76, and some even received their rings as ordered! Other highlights of our Junior year were winning 1st place with our class float in the homecoming parade, sleep er, ah, studying through American History, and putting on three one act plays. We got a view of the boys, not often seen in "If Boys Wore Skirts."

For years we had heard all the horror stories, and now OUR time had come. It seemed hard to believe, but we were finally seniors and faced with the frightening though of government and McIntosh. Although we managed to survive through book reports, term papers, and News-week quizzes, some of us left class with headaches and shattered nerves, right Julie? That is, until McIntosh's stick mysteriously disappeared, as did his glasses, which just as mysteriously reappeared after he got new ones. Government days were met with less enthusiasm than by previous classes, as was evidenced by the lack of posters. However, the visit to the courthouse was interesting, especially the mock trial. All in all, we found some of the stories to be true, and some not so true. In the words of Mark Lane, "Beware of the King, for he is a merciless tyrant."

"Let me see your proofs" was a phrase commonly heard during the beginning of the year later followed by, "Have you signed a picture for me yet?" Instead of the usual exhausting trip to Pierre, we chose to have a steak dinner at the country club, and invite members of the legislature to come to us. To finance this event, the seniors washed three of the busses, and held a cake sale uptown. This allowed us to skip the traditional chili supper. The day of the dinner was spent in Vermillion. Some seniors toured the USD campus, and all attended a discussion with some USD profs. That night Gene Mahon and John Murphy were the only invited speakers who showed up, but still provided a stimulating debate. Although we didn't go to Pierre, we did take several shorter trips. Some of us even got on t.v. when we went to Jefferson to hear Sen. George McGovern.

In early May we went to Yankton to tour the state mental hospital, but due to new hospital rules, all we were allowed to see was the recreational facilities. The rest of the day was spent at Gavin's Point Dam.

Some memorable events of the year included choosing graduation announcements, winning Homecoming, losing the district tourney, and being 2nd in state track meet. Prom at the Hilton will not be forgotten, especially the hour long wait to get in. Our chosen class colors are yellow, orange, and rust. Class flower: carnations which were SUPPOSED to be dyed our class colors, Class Motto: Don't walk behind us; we may not lead. Don't walk in front of us; we may not follow. Walk beside us and be our friend.

Cross Country Members Speak Out

This year, 3 Senior boys were out for Cross Country. Here are some of their views on the sport of Cross Country. Dick Rosenbaum said, The reason he goes out is because it is very enjoyable to run. When asked, if it bothers him no one attends Cross Country Meets he replied, "it does bother him because Cross Country is just as important as any other High School Sport such as Basketball or Football." Allen Workmen enjoys Cross Country because although it is a team sport, it depends alot on the individual effort. A average practice consists of running 4 miles. When asked if he would go out for Cross Country again, he replied yes. Another senior boy out was David Jones. He says he enjoys Cross Country because Mr. Knutson makes the sport alot of fun to be out for.

The Juniors' Victory Float

The 1975 Homecoming activities began with the Coronation of King Todd Zeller and Queen Ann Matson. The Coronation was followed by a huge (?) bonfire behind the Junior High School building.

The King and Queen reigned over the annual Homecoming Parade. Even with all the "reign", the parade made its way down Main Street without too much trouble. The Juniors managed to bring off first prize with their float depicting John Paul Jones' Battleship.

Later that day came the all-important game. The Pointers pulled off a superb win over the Quarriers; the first homecoming victory in over 10 years.

To celebrate this 'once in a life-time' victory, the Pointers and fans danced to the music of Green Tree Station.

Students Display Talents in Art and Style Show

D. Rosenbaum shows masterpiece

Terry Hanson models her jumpsuit she made.

Real stylish Dianna!

The creative effort of the Elk Point students is displayed May 18, 1976 in the Art and Style show.

Tie a Yellow Ribbon Around the Old Oak Tree is the theme for the Style Show.

Each art student set up their own exhibit in the tunnel and in the Art room. The main attraction is the murals on the tunnel walls done by the Art II students.

Students Earn 347 Awards

May 19, 1976 marks the date of the annual awards day. This day shows how hard the students worked in sports, vocal, band, Pointer staff, Annual staff ect. These people are awarded by certificates, medals, and letters.

The A team cheerleaders presented Mr. Schaffer with a scrap book of the '75-'76 basketball season highlights.

Todd receives one of his many athletic awards.

"Dream Weaver" was the theme for the 1976 junior-senior prom and banquet. Both the banquet and the dance were held at the Hilton Inn in Sioux City. Speaking as Master of Ceremonies, Todd Limoges introduced the President of the senior class Alan Lanning, Mr. Errol Johnson, and the guest speaker for the prom, Mr. John McIntosh. Mr. McIntosh spoke on the responsibilities of freedom.

Okay Lois, what's in the glass that's got you so excited?

Miss Vondrak shows David how it is really done. What's the matter Dickson not interested?

The dance was held in the banquet room at the Hilton Inn, with the band, "Wheatstone Bridge" entertaining.

Awwww! Aren't they sweet?

Academics

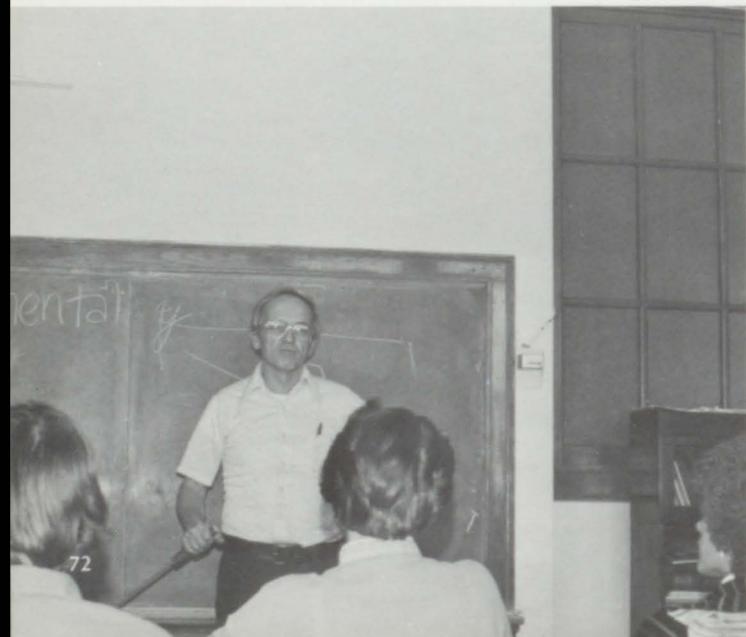

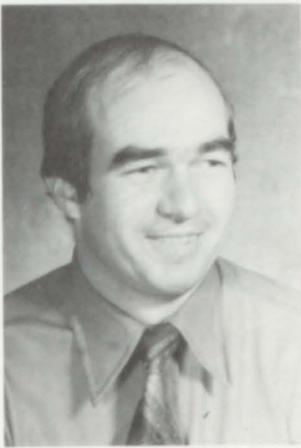

(Left) Delores Vondrak has been in our school system for 17 years. She was responsible for Home Ec I, II, III, and Junior High Girls classes. She also was a Junior class sponsor, and coordinator of the Spring Style show.

John McIntosh graduated from San Francisco state. He taught Government, Sociology, Economics, Psychology and International Relations. This is his 9th year with the school system, and he was senior class advisor and freshmen football and basketball Coach.

30 Courses at EPHS

Roger Schaffer graduated from U.S.D. with a M.A. and a B.S. He teaches World History and American History. This is his 10th year in this school system. He is the Letter-winner club advisor. Athletic director, Basketball, Junior High Football and Track coach and Freshmen class advisor.

Jane Fletcher taught Girls P.E. in grades 3-10. This was her 2nd year of teaching here. She was the head track coach. She also was the Cheerleading and Sophomore advisor. She graduated from Dakota State with a B.S. in Education. She likes painting and many types of sports.

Mrs. Karen Thune graduated from Augustana with a B.S. in Art. She taught Art I, II, III, also 7th and 8th grade art and Crafts. She has been with us for 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ years and is the advisor of the annual.

Kenna Peterson
 (Above) taught Math I, and English I, III, and IV. She was also kept busy as Senior Class advisor, with Declam, and the Senior Class Play. She enjoys Reading, Tennis, and Skiing. She graduated from U. S. D. with a BA in Education. This was her second year at EPHS.

Carmen Wilcox, Yvonne Busker, and Patty Skinner are all three EPHS Alumni. Mrs. Wilcox taught Eng. I, Library Science, and was the Junior Class Advisor. Mrs. Busker taught Alg. I and II, Geometry, Trig., Senior Math, and was Freshman Class Advisor. Mrs. Skinner taught English II, III, French I, advisor of the Junior Class Play, and Newspaper Advisor. All three of these teachers together have spent nearly 45 years at EPHS. They agree on many changes, such as more offered courses, and the fun Basketball games in the old gym. Mrs. Wilcox remembers her school days---and says she'd rather be a teacher. Mrs. Busker most remembers that only on Fridays you could wear jeans, and Mrs. Skinner remembers having Mr. Swier as her teacher, now he's the Superintendent.

Rod Knutson taught Business Law, Accounting, and Typing. He also coached cross country, J.H. Basketball, Winter Track and Boy's Track. He is a USD/S Grad.

Teaching Office Practice, Shorthand, 8th grade Typing and Soc. Studies this year was Linda Stene. Mrs. Stene was also EPEA Pres. She likes to Read and Sew. She's been here 9 years.

Daryl Fletcher taught Physical Science, and Boys Phys. Ed. He was also assistant FB & BB coach, and the Golf coach. His special interests are Golf and amateur baseball.

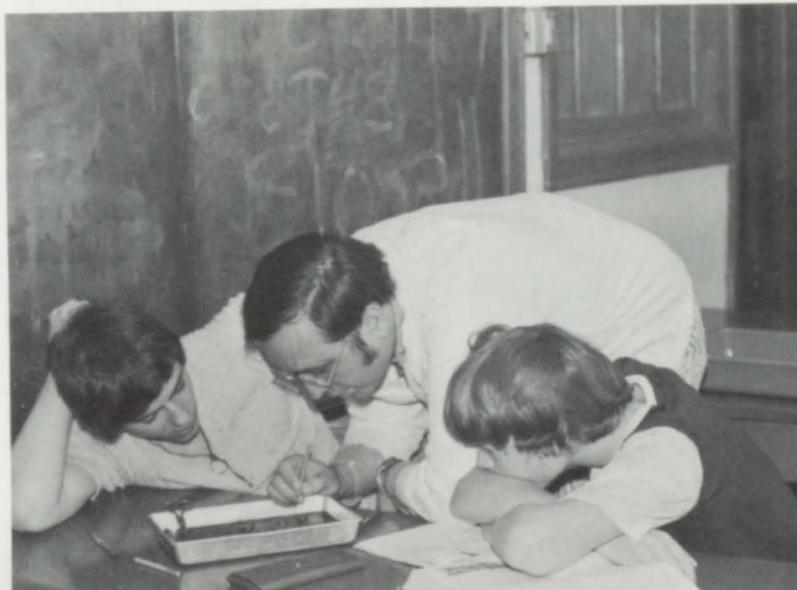

Teaching Physics, Contemporary & College Prep. Biology, and Chemistry was Tom Jacobsen. He was also the Debate Coach. He likes to wobble with any sports.

(Below) Janelle and John either mixing a Love Potion or something 3 point.

Mr. Brende attended USD, majoring in math. He is the high school guidance counselor, and teaches 7th grade social studies. He has been teaching 10 years.

When asked if there have been any changes in the future hopes of graduates he said more students are going to vo-tech schools, because there is less pressure from parents and society to go to college.

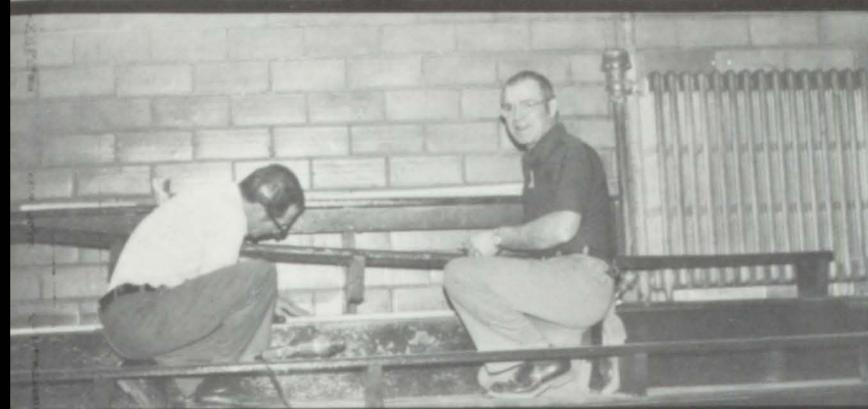

During the ten years that Mr. Swier has been here, he has taught math for five years, has been principle for four years, and superintendent for one year. He has seen many changes in our school; such as the new school being built and the remodeling of the old gym and library.

New Administration at EPHS

Mr. Johnson has been here for one year now, and he said that he has not been here long enough to see any big changes. He said that over-all, the students here are much better behaved than at St. Andes.
