"I do my thing, and you do your thing,

I am not in this world to live up to your expectations and you are not in this world to live up to mine,

You are you, and I am I,

To stop, to look, to listen & learn to be alone, yet together, to fit - not only in the tireless routine of endless weeks, but into the hasty buzzing noise of an active high school! Time & people work as one to make things fit, to give them meaning Crowds gather yet individuals leave going & coming, all are seperately alike, all live and love and cruelly hate. A single shadon follows all yet becomes an individual in the light, darkness hides the differences found. We have come, and fit; Now we are one.
