PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The Child Development class with Miss Winter held a mock wedding to show how to plan for a wedding and the costs. The bride was Brenda Fox and the groom was Steve Hoffman. Members of the wedding party were Marg Vincent, Tammy Hamilton, Robert Towne and Patty Ball. The cake was furnished by Linda Porter and the refreshments by the rest of the class.

TRIAL BY JURY

The American History classes of Mr. Rohlfs tried their skills at trials after studying the constitution in the fall semester. "Judge" Cook presided over a "trial" where defendant Joe Rarrat is questioned by attorneys Tim Trudeau, Kelly Altimus and Butch Kirtzner, Trent Irwin was the bailiff. Jury members were Chris Pulscher, Debbie Peterson, Rodney Austin, George Thompson & Darwin Dunne.

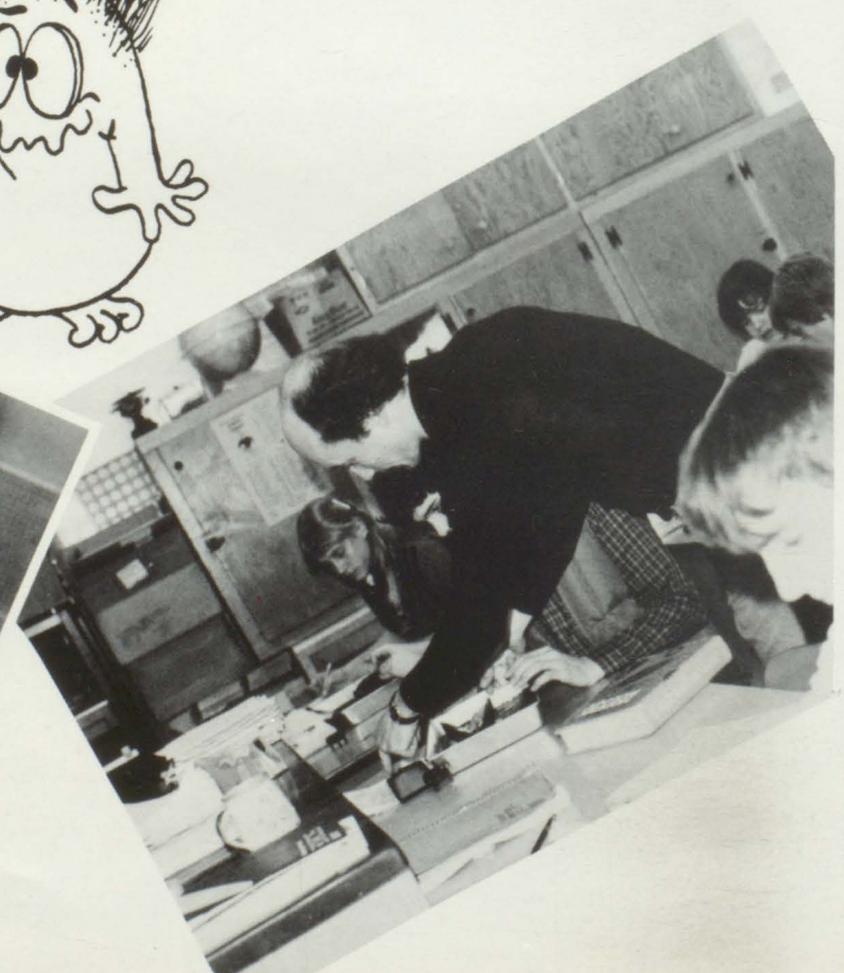

The guilty verdict resulted in another trial to reverse the decision in favor of the defendant.

Education is more than learning, it is a way of life. The educated person is better equipped to take his place in community life because he can advance further in his chosen work, is at ease with all kinds of people, and his life into a purpose. Education, which is man's preparation and plan for life, is humbly sought and never completely attained.

is likely to earn more. The educated person is open-minded. He never scoffs at new ideas, considers all evidence before making decisions, and respects the differences of his fellow man. Above all, he is always ready to learn. By using his knowledge and education, man is capable of shaping rooting and cheering at the game, a time not always carefree, sometimes monotonous . . . but always busy. High school is a time for the student to find his own identity. It's a time for finding out what he knows and what he doesn't know.

What's high school for? It serves no single purpose, it is a time to expand knowledge and interests, to formulate and temper one's own ideas, a busy time — a time for making a memo to call a certain girl about an all-important school party, a time for

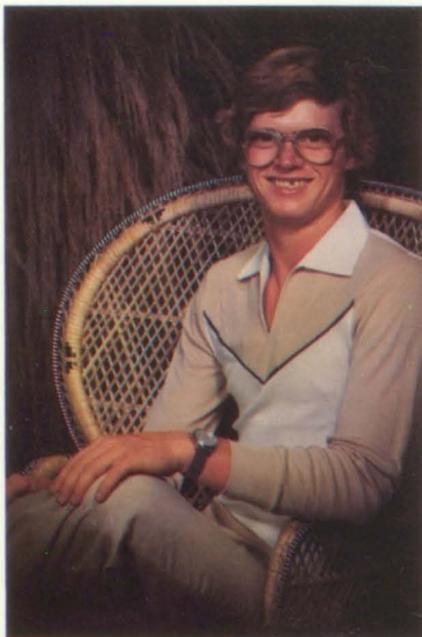

It's a time to have fun and participate in school events. Jefferson High has many such time-honored traditions: the homecoming, class plays, prom and awards day.

Congratulations on a good grade and sympathy for an exceedingly low mark are simple gestures, indeed, but they transmit the good feelings felt by another, friendliness can be counted in as many ways as the grains of sand or the stars in the sky.

A warm smile, a friendly handshake, a cheery hello, or a slap on the back are all signs of friendliness. Classmates greeting you as you hasten on to class, chatting with you in the hallways, or dropping in for an evening, portray the warm glow of friendship Friendliness is intangible, therefore, it is difficult to state on paper. Only YOU can express or receive the golden gift of friendship.

Spirit, the invisible force within the students, causes them to nearly burst their lungs at a pep rally. This force drives a team to an "impossible" victory. Spirit is to blame for fans going wild in the stands. These are just a few examples of spirit, the element necessary for victory, success, or the ceed, and live on. Without this inconceivable matter, and inner drive, life would be meaningless, unfulfilled. Spirit offers the challenge we need. Spirit, the driving force within ourselves is vital for our existence and our prosperity.

existence of life. Spirit spans the globe, as it is flexible. Spirit shares the properties of air, because it is tasteless, odorless, invisible; yet it is present. It is a force, though unmeasurable that can "move mountains." Spirit is the ghost which haunts our lives and stirs a desire to win, suc-

CORONATION 1980

Homecoming 1980 started with the week of festivities such as Costume Day, Toga Day, Western Dress-up Day and Black and Orange Day. On Thursday, October 9, 1980, Coronation was held at 7:00 p.m. in the Jefferson H. S. Gym, following coronation there was a pep rally and the burning of the "J". This years Homecoming Royalty was; above left, Guy Faber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Faber; Kim Keating, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Keating; above right, Adam Ballinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ballinger; Katie Dailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dailey; bottom left, Scott Boese, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Boese; Laurie Ryan, daughter of Mrs. Charlotte Ryan; bottom right, Martin Hallwas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dieter Hallwas; and Carla Kittler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kittler. The Ringbearers were Matt Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hansen and Alex Corio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Corio. On Friday, all the classes worked on their floats in the morning, the parade was held downtown at 1:30 p.m. We played Niobrara, Nebraska and won 27-0. The winners of the floats were Juniors, first; Sophomores, second; Freshman, third; and Seniors, Fourth. This years window display was won by the Seniors. Following the Homecoming Game, a dance was held with "Flash Flood" provided by the JHS Student Council.
