WE'RE HIGHLY

There's a fever spreading throughout the student body at EPHS — the fever started in the yearbook staff and has spread to every student throughout our school. The fever is SPIRIT!! It is HIGHLY CONTAGIOUS!! It is expected to reach epidemic proportions as the school year and this fever progresses . . .

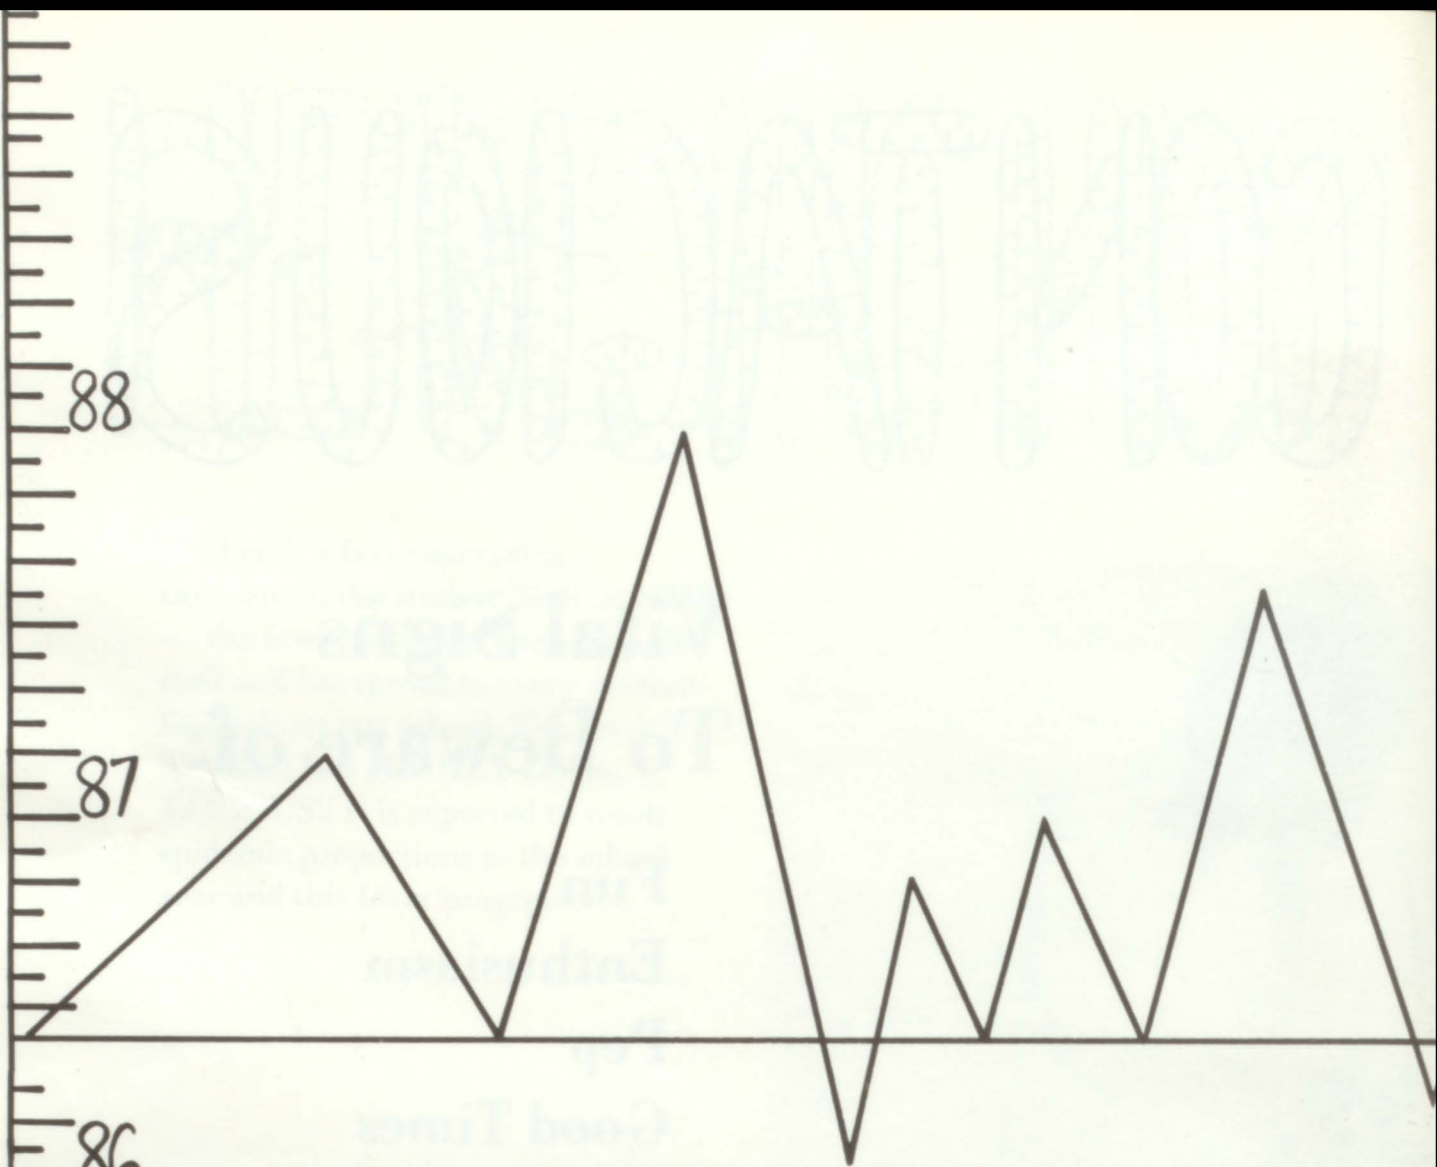

CONTAGIOUS

Homecoming 84 . . .

The theme of Elk Day 1984 was "Olympics: Go For The Gold." The theme was used throughout the homecoming festivities, which commenced on Thursday evening, September 27 with the coronation ceremonies.

The audience was hushed as Herald Pat Bowar announced the 1984 Royalty to be, King Troy Norby and Queen Catherine Murphy. Jeff Zellar and Amy Shedd, 1983 royalty, crowned the new king and queen.

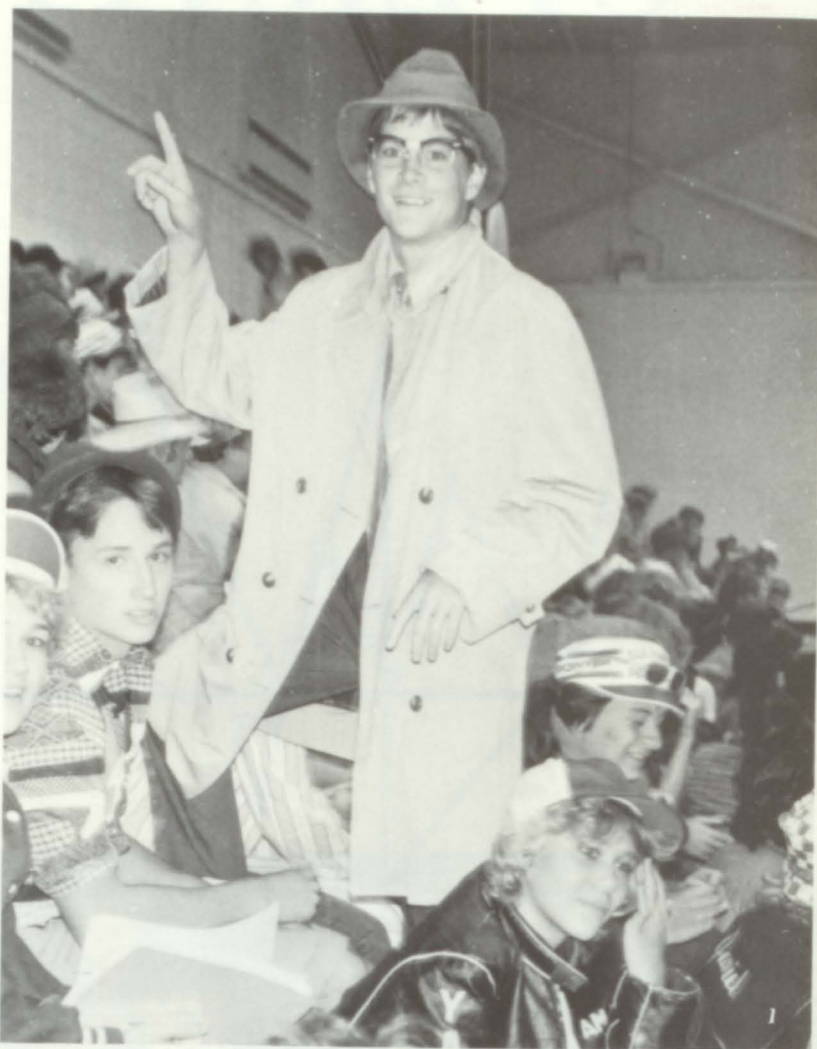

The other members of the royalty were queen attendants: Debra McKelvey and Tonja Burnight. The king attendants were Troy Kastrup and Brad Kjose.

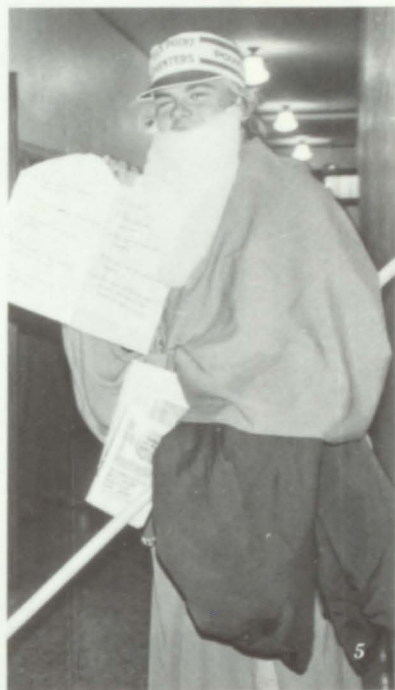

Junior class attendants were Kellee Siemers and Lauri Westin. Kim Bird was the sophomore class attendant and Dana Abraham was the freshman class attendant.

Ushers were Tim Honomichl, Todd McAreavey, Peo Nilsson and Jim Rosenbaum. The carpet was rolled by Brent Duhaime and Paul Rosenbaum. Personal attendants for the ceremony were Ann Hall and Tammy Rosenbaum.

The fanfare was played by Renae Bird, Bob Kistler and Todd McInerney. Mary Mau played the coronation march and recessional.

Laurie Peterson presented the queen's flowers and Shan Acklie presented the king's scepter. The senior flowers were presented by Kelly Donnelly, Mary Mau and Nicole Chicoine. Jeanne Haug, Lynn Lawrence and Teresa Rosenbaum presented flowers to the underclassmen.

The Grand Marshall of the Elk Day festivities, Mrs. Gertrude Patnaude, was presented at the ceremony.

The mixed chorus sang at the coronation ceremony. Marie Eidem, Tena Pohlen and Mary Mau accompanied the chorus.

Following the coronation ceremony a pep rally was held featuring the lighting of the EPHS sign. The sign took the place of the bonfire of years past.

The Elk Day parade was led by a color guard of VFW Post 915 and American Legion Post 134, followed by the Elk Point marching band to begin the parade.

The winning floats were: first, freshman; second, sophomores; and third, seniors.

The featured event of the evening was the Elk Day football game between the Pointers and the Lennox Orioles. The Pointers were defeated 45 to 29.

The Elk Day Dance, held on Saturday evening, concluded the 1984 Homecoming activities.

This year homecoming was something special. Everyone was completely involved in all the activities which occurred around them. Each year there is a SPIRIT week, and this year even the teachers dug out some funny costumes for the occasion. All this bottled up spirit was the perfect remedy to get the year rolling.

1. Do you know a cure for prostrate problems? 2. The 1984 Homecoming Royalty got a clean bill of health. 3. The junior class made great progress and advanced to the tug-of-war final. 4. You'd never know it, but I'm important! 5. After the age of 12 I just started to deteriorate. 6. I got rid of that little ich and it feels great! 7. Look at what chemotherapy does to a person!

The band has been very busy this year. The highlight of this year will be the trip in June to Atlanta, Georgia.

Students have been busy not only concentrating on preparing to march, give concerts, and prepare for jazz band festivals, but also to raise money to go on the trip.

The band has been in charge of the concession stand; has sold soap products, pizza kits, and Easter candy gifts; and has sponsored a rent-a-kid program in which band students will perform odd jobs for people to raise money for its trip. The band will compete with other schools while in Atlanta, along with touring the historic sights of Atlanta, and having a fun filled day at an amusement park outside of Atlanta.

1. The band in operation. 2. Band Officers: Laurie P., president; Troy N., vice-president; Beth Fullenkamp, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Robert Reid, director. 3. Senior boys help direct the band.

The highlight of the year in chorus was the Region I contest in Vermillion. There were twenty-four choir members who attended. There were four soloists and six groups and ensembles. Five ensembles including swing choir received SUPERIOR ratings along with three of the soloists. One ensemble and one soloist received an EXCELLENT rating.

The Chief "Surgeons"

The Pointer Staff

The school newspaper, as always, has been an important part of the students' lives this year. Not many editions of the paper come out without most of the student body seeing it. The "Pointer" has kept the customary senior interviews, as part of its format, while also including some new things like the "Superintendent's Notes."

The editor, Laurie Petersen, and assistant editor, Kim Morrow, and the rest of the staff have done an excellent job of informing the students about the weekly events which occur in our school.

The Annual Staff

This year's annual staff members had some "Highly Contagious" ideas. Four members of the staff (Lynn Lawrence, Beth Fullenkamp, Kellee Siemers and Bob Kistler) attended an annual staff camp last summer. The camp was designed to help the staffs ready a basic layout for their books. After some hours of brainstorming the theme, "Highly Contagious," popped into someone's head and things began to fall into place.

After they decided on the theme: Lynn, Kellee and Beth proceeded to layout an annual that won first prize for the theme development of your yearbook.

Even though the theme and the general layout were already done at the beginning of the year, the hard work was yet to be done. Meeting deadlines, filling pages, taking pictures, writing copy and laying out each page still had to be done. All the members of the staff have done well and hope to have prepared a very good yearbook.

1. The 1985 Annual Staff, Front Row (L to R): Kim Bird, Bob Kistler and Lori Kooiman. 2nd Row: Kristie Rosenbaum, Amy Bowar, Melissa Bird and Jenny Curry. 3rd Row: Co-Junior Editors Beth Fullenkamp and Kellee Siemers. Top: Editor Lynn Lawrence. 2. Kristie developing a potion for the perfect pages. 3. Lynn typing copy to finish someone's pages before she goes insane.

Minor Operations

Letterwinners

This year the Letterwinners' Club was slightly unorganized. The club had members and officers, but no one wanted the responsibility of being chief advisor.

Declam

Declam is a speech event in which the student takes someone else's work and presents it in his or her own way. There are six divisions: poetry, drama, serious prose, humorous prose, oratory, and duet acting.

This year Traci Donnelly and Traci McDonald participated in the poetry division; Eric Abraham, Jason Westphal and Jenny Curry took part in the serious prose division; Beth Fullenkamp participated in the humorous prose division; Bob Sample and Kim Morrow were involved in the oratory division; and Lisa Abraham and Shondra Welch took part in the duet acting division.

Pep Club

This year's Pep Club had 67 members in grades 9 through 12. The officers were president — Brent Duhaime; vice-president — Beth Fullenkamp; and secretary/treasurer — Jenny Curry.

The Pep Club sponsored many projects. A few of these projects were the sweatshirt sale, purchase of flowers for senior athletes, making of posters for the gym and halls, and participation by some members in the Homecoming Parade.

“They Run in Our Family”

This year's play, titled “They Run in Our Family,” described the support a coach gets from his family when he is threatened with replacement. The coach, played by Reece Morse, must win the next football game in order to keep his job.

The cast, although jittery, did an excellent job of portraying the family and team members of the coach during the week before the big game. Cast members include: Reece Morse as Sam Pennywinner, Lynn Lawrence as Agnes Pennywinner, Amy Bowar as Peggy Pennywinner, Todd McInerney as Alvin Pennywinner, Beth Fullenkamp as Pat Pennywinner, Eric Abraham as Buzz Pennywinner, Melissa Bird as Aunt Alice, Bob Sample as Chester Mullins, Kim Morrow as Mrs. Alonzo Speel, Kristie Rosenbaum as Josie Speel, Roman Talbott as Seymour, Renae Bird as Mitzi Jones, Nicole Chicoine as Cindy Sanders, Jennifer Curry as Dimple Dillard and Brian McInerney as Harold Gilley.

1. Coach (Reece) is getting a little devastated thinking about the big game. 2. It's going to take a lot of cosmetic surgery to get her ready for her 1st date. 3. Lynn, getting some help from Kristie, is trying to look in her early 40's. 4. Traci, a born curtain closer.

Awards Day

Each year area organizations contribute scholarship monies to help students further their educations. A special day is then set aside for the announcements of the various winners of the scholarships along with the athletic, math, drama, music, newspaper and yearbook awards. The honor graduates, scholarship medals, attendance awards, Boys' and Girls' Staters and the Student Council members are also recognized at this time.

1. Mr. Long entertaining the audience before the ceremony begins. 2. All the 1985 Scholarship Recipients — except Paul Rosenbaum. 3. Sr. Football players get recognized by Coach Nelson. 4. Sr. Volleyball girls get recognition from Mr. Griffith. 5. Teresa Rosenbaum receives a scholarship from Mr. Griffith. 6. Mr. Swanson receives a giant cookie from Mrs. Limoges and the senior class.

Board of Directors

This year the student council has done many different things to improve EPHS. For example, in an effort to spark school spirit during homecoming week, the student council sponsored a tug-of-war between the individual classes, with the winner challenging the all-powerful faculty. The student council also began action to refinish the Honor Study Hall, providing a more pleasant atmosphere for students selected for this privilege. The student council sponsored many fund raising dances, donut breaks and other activities to benefit the student body. In an effort to better relations with the teachers, the council formed a student-teacher committee to discuss problems which occurred between the two groups and also held a breakfast for the teachers. The student council with the help of the advisor Mr. Jensen, has made much progress in providing a better experience for high school students attending EPHS.

1. Student Council, (L to R): Kristie Rosenbaum, secretary; Melissa Bird, vice-president; Debra McKelvey, president; Bob Kistler, Galen Chicoine, Tony Klein, Michelle Cody, Brian McInerney, seated — Superintendent Dennis Jensen. 2. The Council sponsored many dances throughout the year. 3. Todd, would you like another donut?

Operation Prom

The Junior-Senior Prom of 1985, which had the theme, "Jungle Love," went quite well. At the banquet, the Master of Ceremony, Lucky Huber, welcomed everyone, followed by Troy Norby, who delivered the "Senior Response." Debra McKelvey led everyone through the school life of the Class of '85 by reading the "Senior Story." The poem dedicated to the seniors was read by Traci McDonald.

The dance was held in the Old Gym, where the band X-Plicit provided the music. The night went well and a good time was had by most of those who attended.

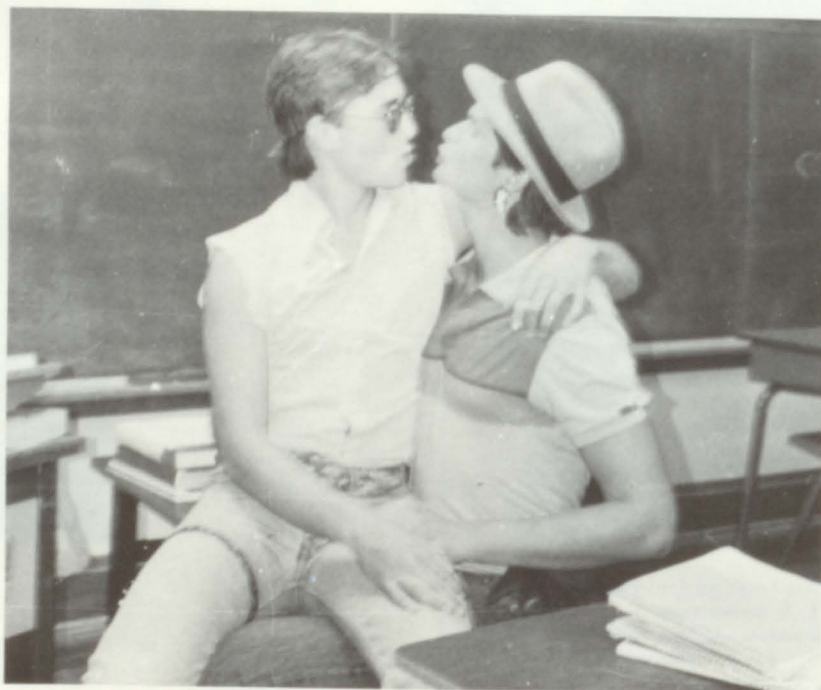

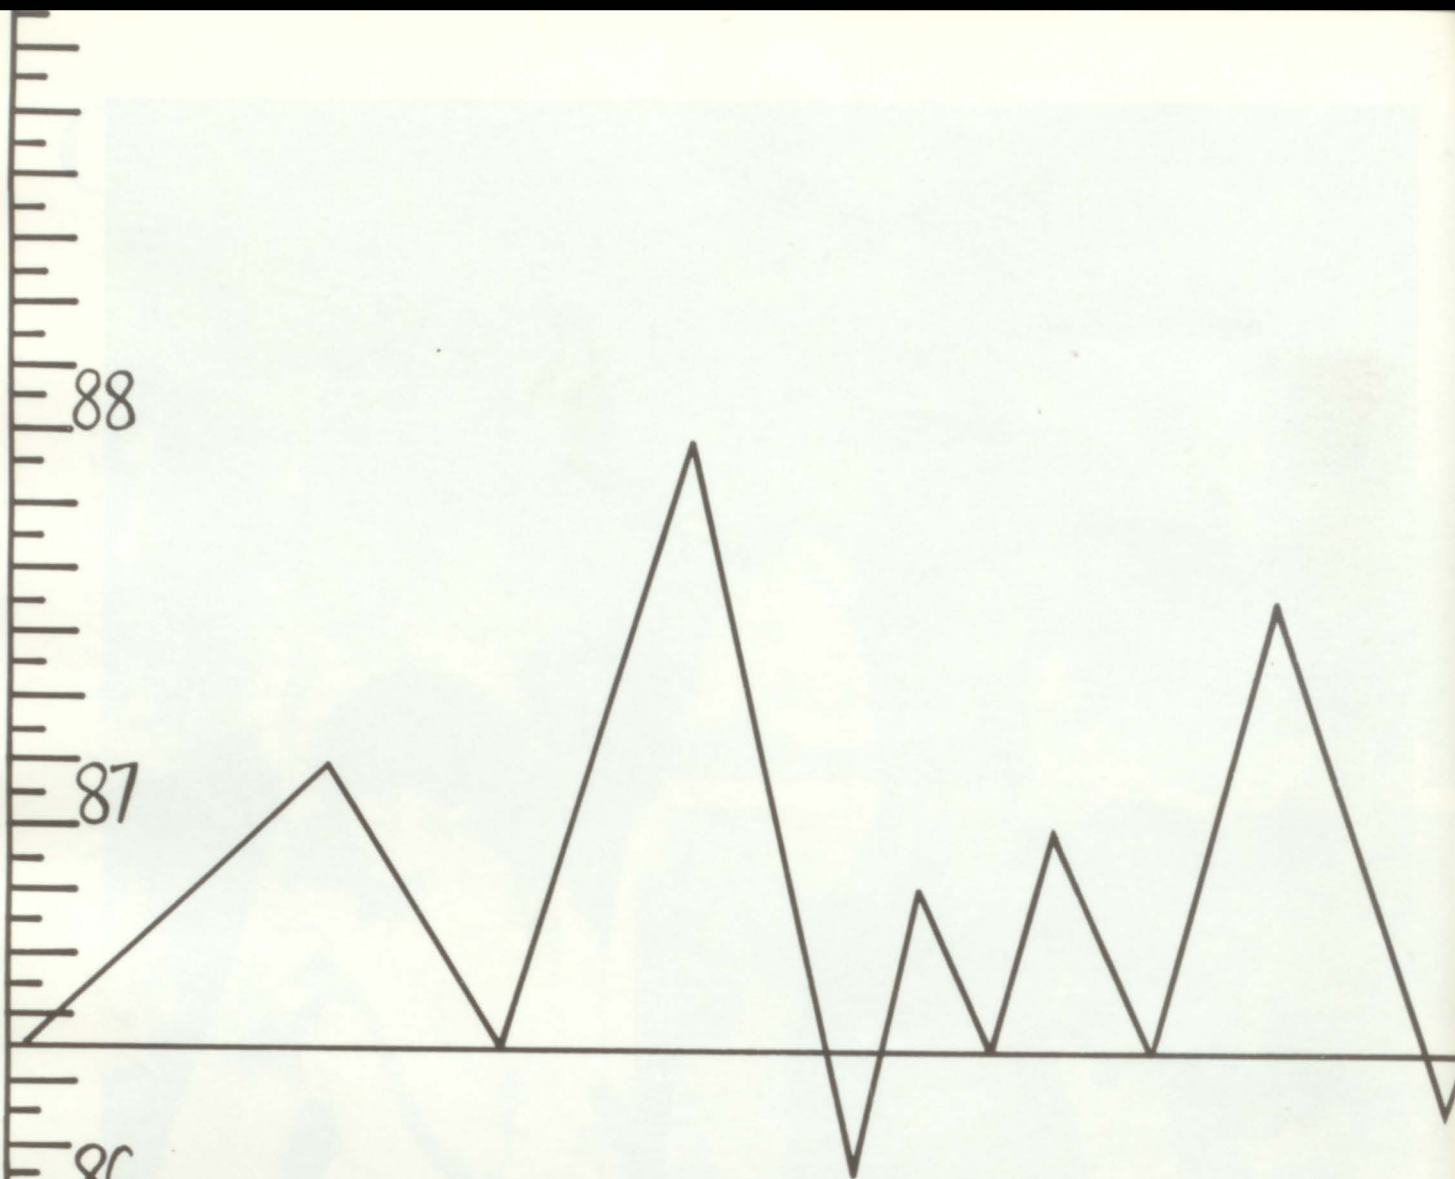

1. Teresa and her lifelong date Chris take a break from the excitement. 2. Lucky started the banquet with the perfect potion for a wonderful evening.

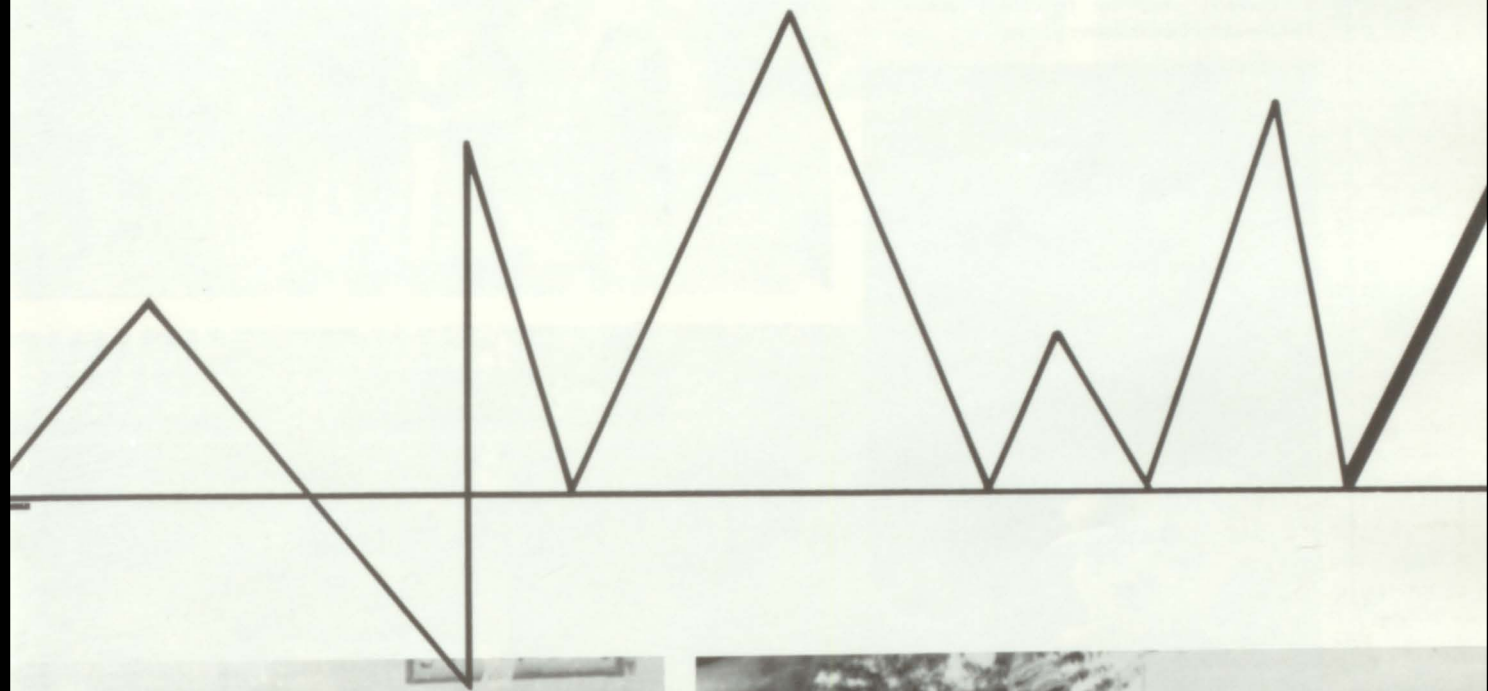

3. A few junior girls waiting for their turn to eat. 4. Tim shows his physique off in the perfect tux.

1. Everyone's in the pink of condition at the dance.

POINTERS

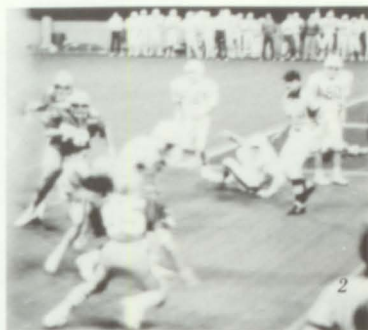

1. Pointers preparing for heavy action. 2. Pointers involved in heavy action.

3. Pointers go against the rival Jefferson Hawks. 4. Pointers battle it out in the Dome.

Football

1. Time out for the cheerleaders. 2. The Pointers defense stops a drive at the 50 yard line. 3. Pointers keep an offensive drive "Alive"!!!

The 1984 Football team consisted of six seniors, eleven juniors, eight sophomores and seven freshmen. The six letter winning seniors were John Cody, Tim Irwin, Troy Kastrup, Todd McAreavey, Troy Norby and Eric Swanson.

Much new talent was realized in the football squad this year and less of the talent of last year's squad returned. The obstacles posed by a small squad was one of the factors which made this year less productive than it might have been. "In spite of this, improvement and growth occurred during the season, and spirit remained high as evidenced by a good showing against a play-off team, Bon Homme, in the season's final game," said Coach Nelson.

Todd McAreavey was selected on All-Conference Big "8" Team and honorable mention on All State. Troy Kastrup, Tim Irwin and John Cody received honorable mention status on the All-Conference Big "8" Team. Troy Norby, Tim Irwin and Troy Kastrup were selected as Tri-Captains by their teammates for the season.

1. Look at Lynn's deranged shot. 2. Mary showing her devastating defense.

3. Trish, with great progression, brings the ball down the court. 4. Do these girls belong in the halfway house?!

Girls' Basketball

1. The potion for rebounding is boxing out, right girls. 2. Debra is showing us her robust shooting style.

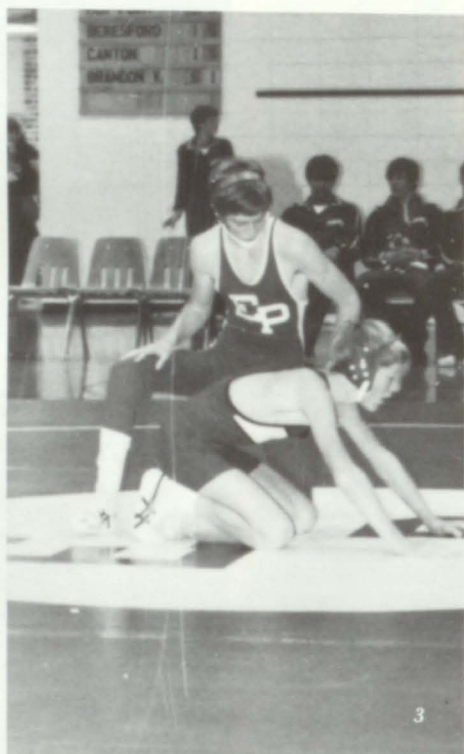

The 1984 Girls' Basketball team under the guidance of Coach Paul Swanson (left) finished the season with an 8-12 record respectively.

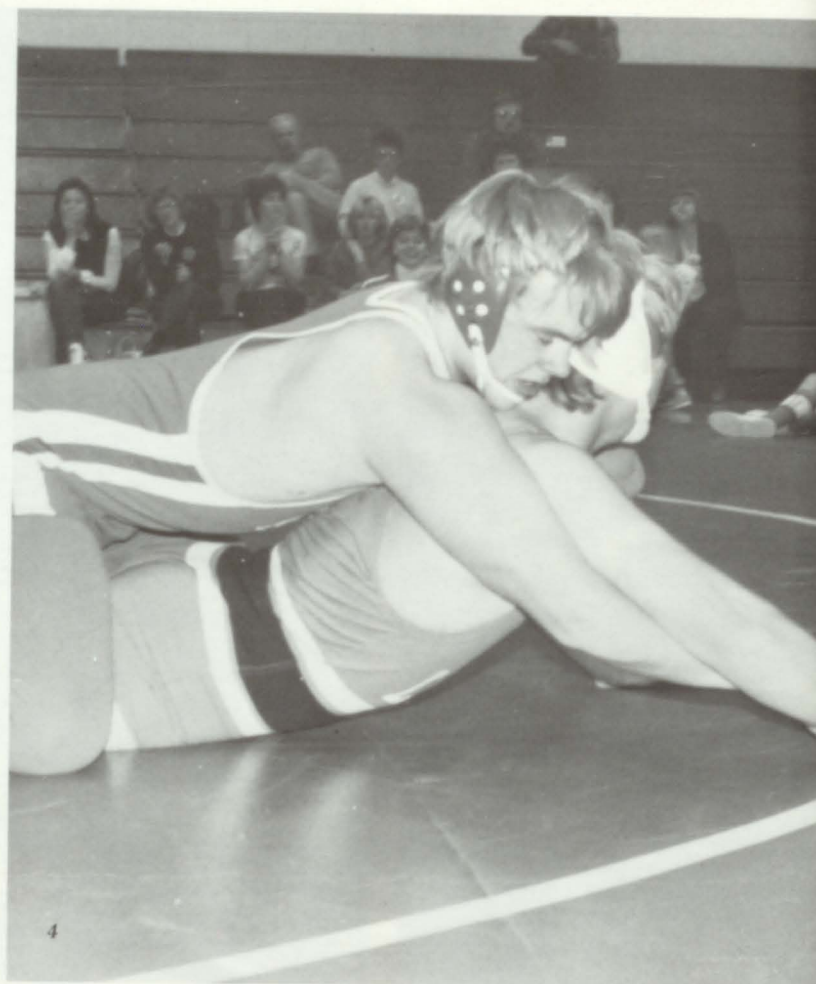

During the season there were many highlights. A few of them were: Placing fourth in the Big 8 Conference Tournament, the best finish since Swanson has coached at EP, Amy Bowar sinking a 25 foot jump shot with 2 seconds remaining on the clock to defeat the Beresford Watchdogs by one point, and seeing Debra McKelvey earn Big 8 Conference honors for the second consecutive year. The fans watched all of these things happen. The one thing which enlightened the players the most was the breaking of a chalkboard with only two hits! Coach wanted to sink some things in.

The end of another season was ended on a sour note, the girls did not advance to second round play in the District Tournament. The loss of the three seniors and Assistant Coach Vi Somsen will be noticed next season.

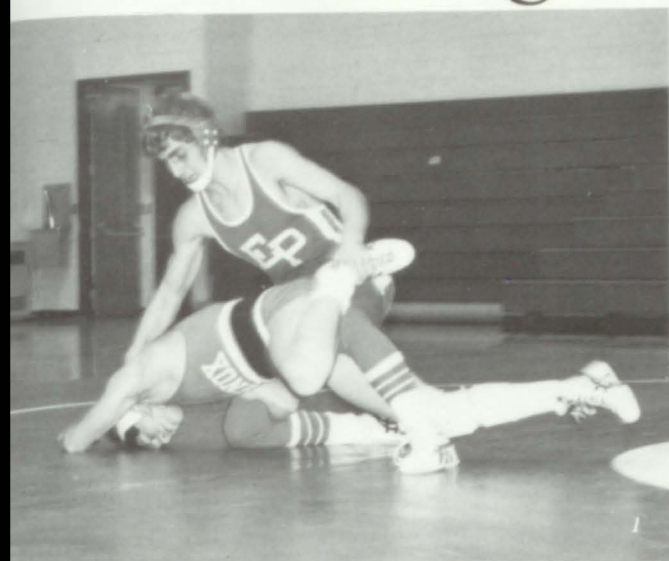

1. Sean looks in the pink of condition as he takes down his man. 2. Temperatures rise as Todd begins to wrestle.

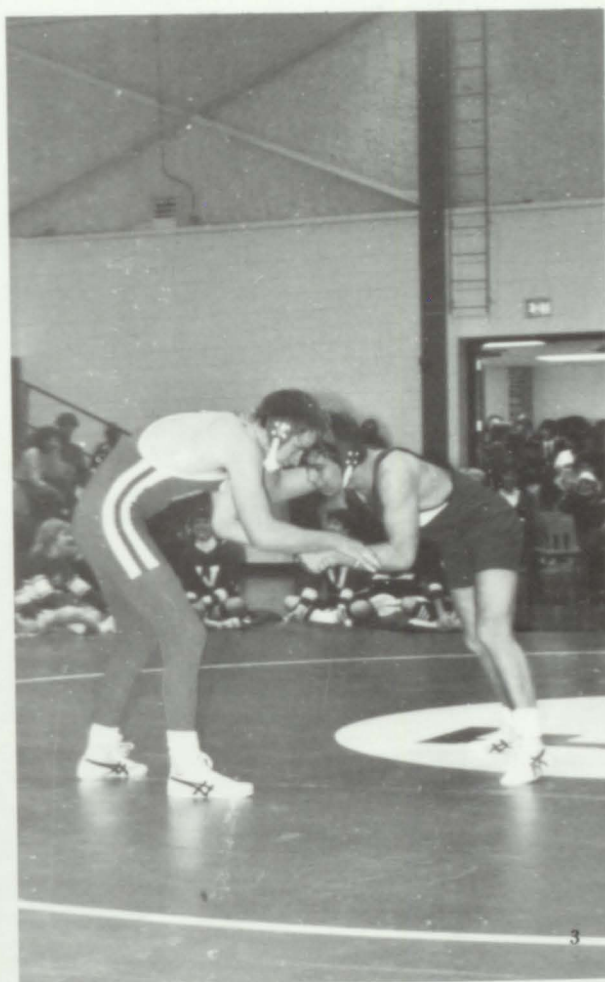

3. Troy will put his man on the sick list. 4. Jason places his man in an incurable position.

Wrestling

1. Daryl uses his knowledge of physical therapy. 2. Looks like Eric's opponent has little chances of survival. 3. Tim withers his opponent's.

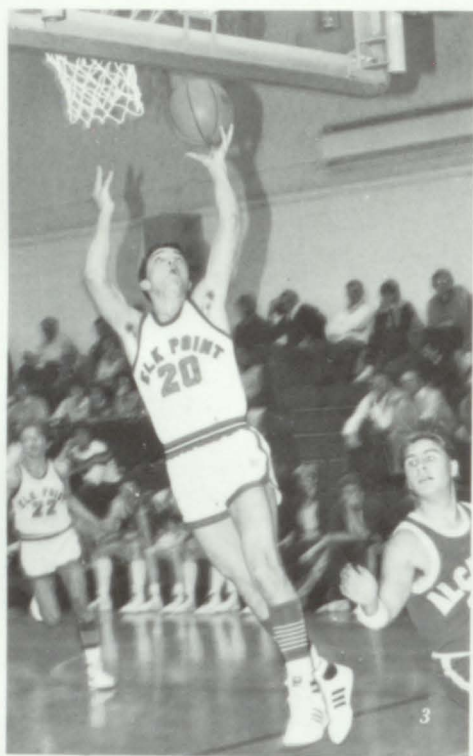

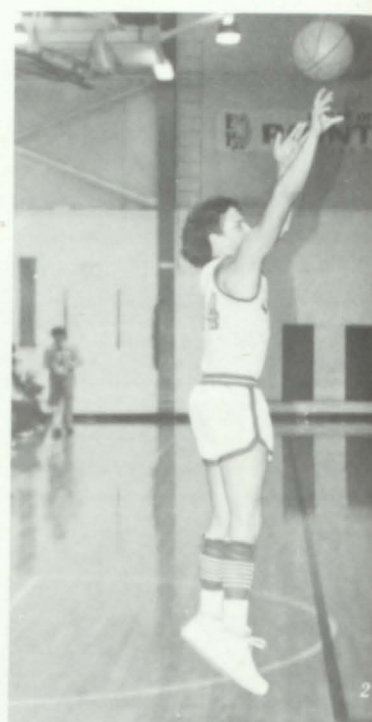

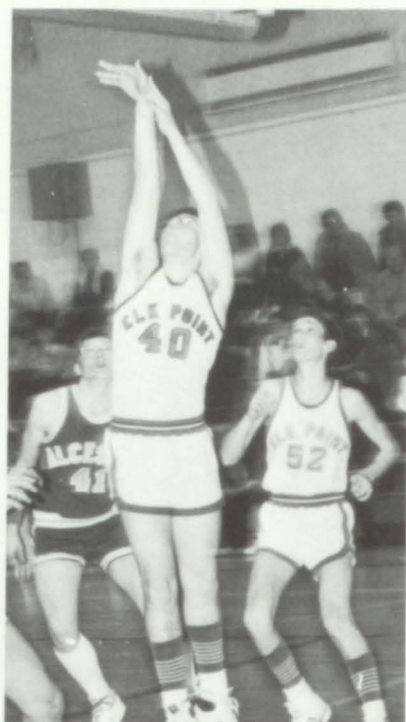

The Elk Point High School Wrestling team started out the season on a high point with a first place win in the Early-Bird Tournament. The "Pointers" were 4-8 in dual action for the year, and finished last in the Big "8" Conference, but managed to place 5th in the Big "8" Conference Tournament.

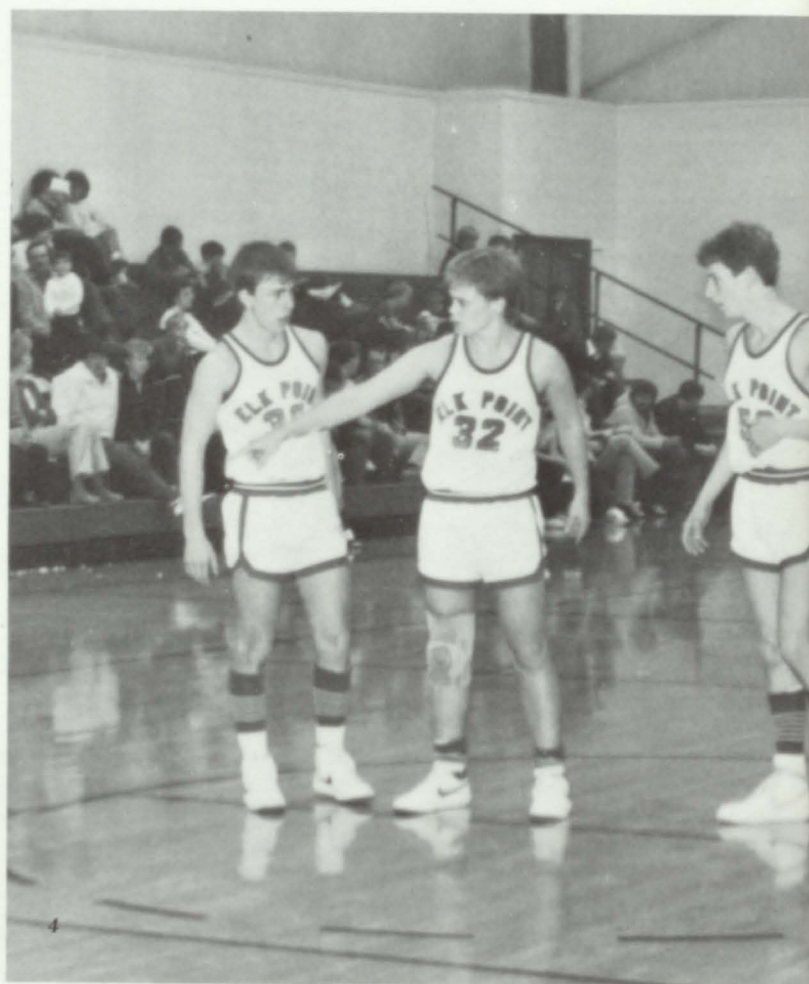

Elk Point staged an B-team Holiday Wrestling Tournament which seemed to be quite popular and managed a third place showing.

Seniors Tim Irwin (20-12), Troy Norby (22-10), and Daryl Laferriere (22-9-1), along with junior Jason Quam (16-16) qualified for the State Wrestling Tournament. Daryl Laferriere won the only match at the state meet for the "Pointers." Troy Norby and Tim Irwin were selected as Co-Captains by their teammates, while Daryl LaFerriere was the most valuable with a .586 record of scoring. Sophomore Larry Schmitz with a record of 18-9-1 and David McNeil with a 8-19 record were region qualifiers. Juniors Sean George and Todd McInerney each won 10 matches for the year.

1. Reid prescribes the perfect potion for perfection. 2. Pat's incurable disease puts it in for two.

3. Brent takes it in for therapy. 4. Look at the muscle on these dudes!

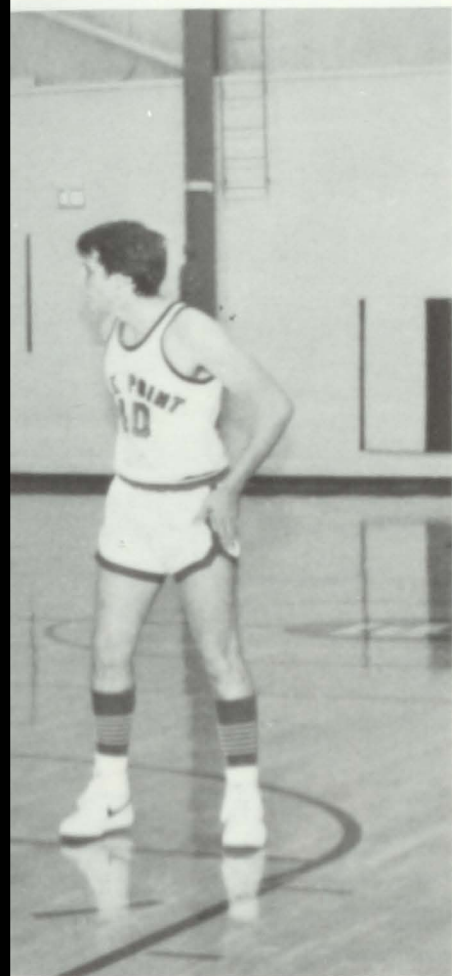

Boys' Basketball

1. Brad comes off the sick list to add a few sparks in the game. 2. Troy won't let his defense get withered. 3. Todd's remedy for a perfect slam!

The boys' basketball team ended this year's season with 9 wins and 12 losses under the direction of first year coach Kevin Sinclair. Led in scoring and rebounding by Pat Bowar with 21.6 points per game and 10.3 rebounds per game, and closely followed by Todd McAreavey with 17 points per game and 9.4 rebounds per game, the squad competed well with the many larger schools of the Big 8 Conference. Pat and Todd were also selected to the Big 8 Conference team this year.

Next year, the loss of four seniors (Pat Bowar, Brent Duhaime, Troy Kastrup, and Todd McAreavey) will be felt, but many of this year's letterwinners will be returning to fill those vacant positions.

1. Roanne serving the ball with mortification. 2. Mary demonstrates a morbid bump.

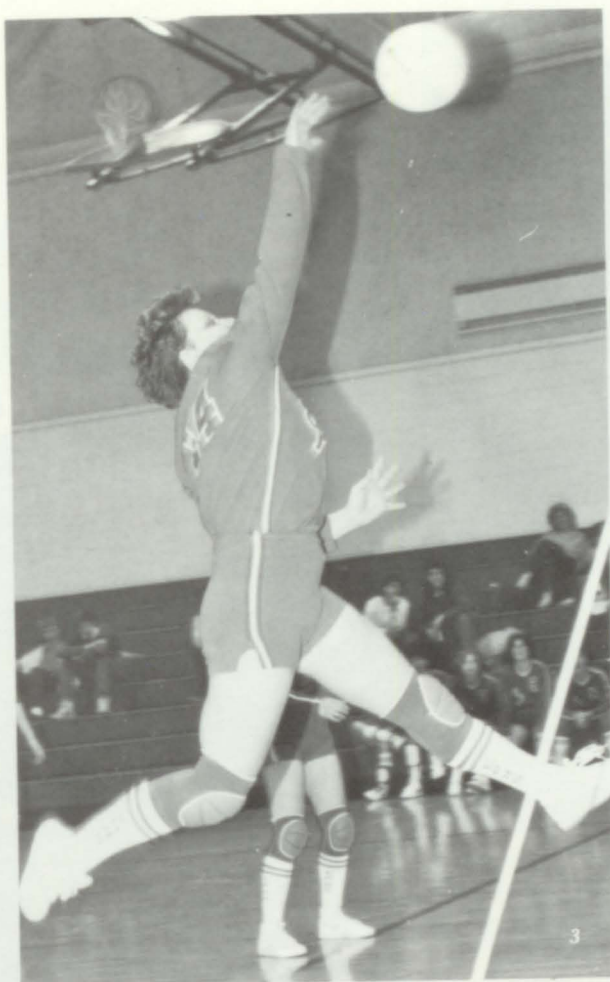

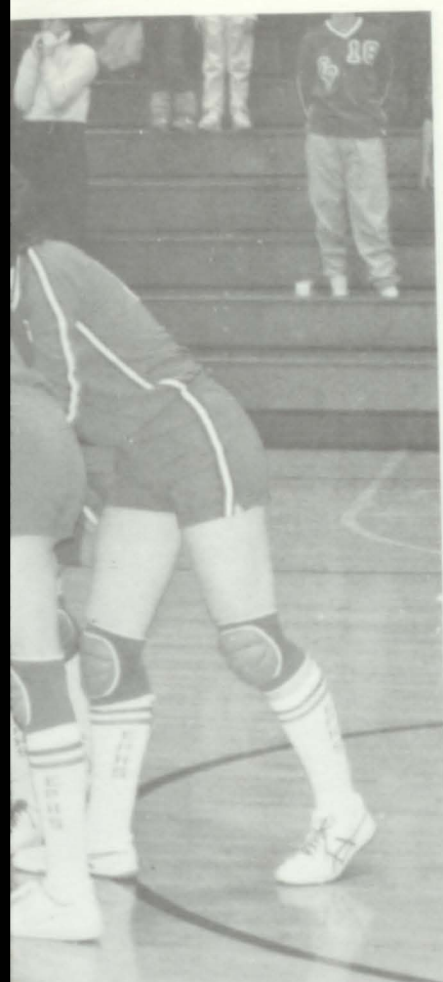

3. Debra has a robust serve. 4. The Volleyball girls have an incurable disease — Team SPIRIT!

Volleyball

1. The B team are the BAND-AIDS! 2. Melissa's serve weakens the opponent. 3. Temperatures rise as Melissa goes up for a SLAM!

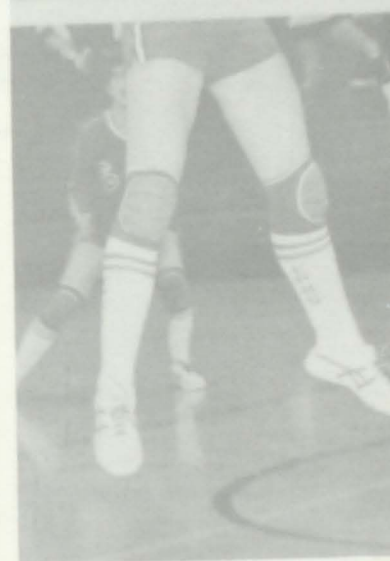

The 1985 Volleyball Team had its ups and downs this year, but still ended its season with 9 wins and 12 losses.

The A-Team had many improvements in techniques and overall everybody had a very good year. The team SPIRIT was high and everyone was working together. These two things were the teams greatest assets.

The B and C teams also had good years and are showing promising signs of good Volleyball teams in the future.

Everyone did well in their serving, bumping, and spiking which led the team to all of its victories.

The Volleyball team had a great season together and learned that no matter what, they're still winners!

1. Lynn gets a quick start. 2. Grunt Deb, Grunt!

3. Mary is intense to the end. 4. At the state track mental ward.

Track

1. Tammy and Jenny hand off in their record breaking 400 meter relay. 2. Senior, John Cody, runs to the best remedy ... the finish line! 3. Not a pancake, Melissa.

The 1985 track season got off to a great start. For once, mother nature cooperated for perfect training weather.

The girls' team, under the direction of Coaches Bob Vanderlinde and Kevin Sinclair, had a very good season, with 4 school records falling. Debra McKelvey broke the discus record, Melissa Bird her shot put record, Shellie Heckathorn broke the 300 meter hurdle mark and the relay team of Susanne Flannery, Tammy Acklie, Jennifer Flannery and Lynn Lawrence broke the 400 meter relay record. The girls also won their first meet and qualified 7 girls for the state meet.

The boys' team under the supervision of Coaches Rod Knutson and Glen Nelson didn't have quite a successful year as the girls. The boys' team qualified only 1 boy for the state meet, Lucky Huber.

1. Darin runs vigorously for the finish line. 2. Gregg is running with the greatest of ease.

3. Reece looks in the pink of condition rounding the cone. 4. The girls had the antidote for a winning season.

C. C. and Golf

1. Pat hits an incurable shot. 2. Troy has a potion for putting. 3. What kind of wonder drug did you use Darin?

Cross-Country

The 1984 Cross-Country team consisted of 11 members with seven members achieving letters. Three runners, Theresa Harkness, Reece Morse, and Gregg Rosenbaum qualified for the state meet in Huron. Theresea Harkness finished 83rd in a field of 110 runners. Reece Morse and Gregg Rosenbaum finished 59th and 77th respectively in a field of 125 runners.

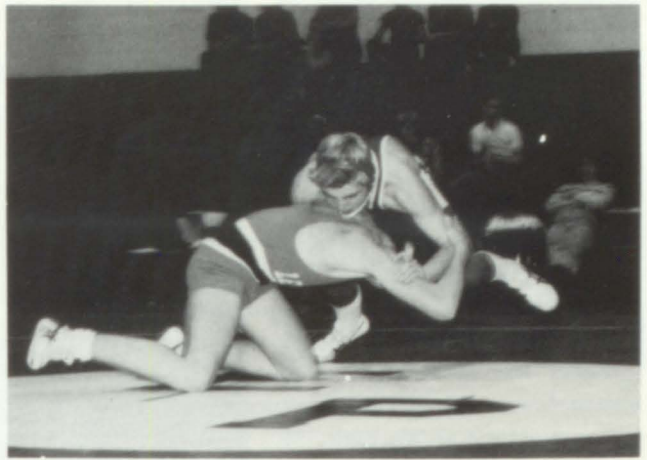

Golf

The 1985 golf season was quite a success. Both the girls' and boys' team qualified for the state meet in Watertown. The girls captured 1st place in regions and the boys placed 2nd with Jenny Curry and Pat Bowar both leading the teams with medalist honors.

In Watertown Darin McAreavey became the first state champion from Elk Point High. Pat Bowar placed 2nd and Jenny Curry place 4th. Darin and Pat led the boy to a 2nd place state finish.

A Fatal Disease — SPORTS

Spirit Boosters

Each year, different cheerleaders are chosen for each sport. The girls that try out perform in front of the student body and then again in front of the University of South Dakota cheerleaders.

The student body did an exceptional job this year in the girls that we chose.

There was great support shown at each game, although sometimes the games were lost, the spirit and support was always high.

A Special Patient

The first impression of EPHS was that it was (for me) a small school. Later as the time has kept on going I have "learned" the good things that follows with a smaller school. There are also some bad things but they are not big enough to menchen. The differences from the Swedish schools are that there are always open campus, the principal should never even think about being in a pie throughing. The best times I have had and always will remember are homecoming, the pie throughing and some bad jokes during English and government classes. I will probably never forget the graduation either because that looks like something special.

*The above has been typed exactly as written by "Our Special Patient."

This year the halls of EPHS were filled with the Swedish accent of Peo Mats Nils Richard Nilsson. Peo is a foreign exchange student from Sweden. Although some adaptation was needed to become used to strange American customs, Peo adjusted well and has become an important part of our school.

Peo seems to be a center of attention, making himself visible as a participant in band, an avid fan at all sports events, and a friend to practically everyone. Peo has shown everyone a lot about Sweden during the course of the year. He has taught everyone a little Swedish, a few Swedish customs, and a lot about being a good friend.

Though Peo seems like a permanent resident of our community and school, it seems hard to believe that he will be returning to Sweden at the end of June. Peo has proven to all who know him that people from totally different cultures can become friends and learn much about their different countries.

Doctor Deb

A familiar sight around the halls of EPHS is Debra McKelvey. She is active in just about anything she can be. Debra has had a lot of major accomplishments in her four years at Elk Point. Of the accomplishments we notice, most of them occur in athletic contests. She is the first female athlete at Elk Point to accomplish such a feat as being a twelve time letterwinner. By this, we mean she has lettered in basketball, track, and volleyball the four years in which she has participated. These fine athletic accomplishments have landed her many college prospects. The athletic program at Elk Point is losing a great asset when Debra graduates in May.

Just What the Doctor Ordered

A break, away from school, was just what the doctor ordered for the senior class of 1985. The trip was prescribed by Dr. Swanson and Dr. Limoges and was willingly accepted by all the patients.

The day started out gloomily with bus call at 6:00 AM, but faces brightened as the bus rolled into Omaha for breakfast. We could choose between Micky's House, Burger King or Perkins to eat breakfast. Todd and Pat grabbed a few freebies from Perkins and Todd tried to burn a plastic lizard with a match before the teachers boarded the bus. Also, a few mature seniors picked up crowns from Burger King.

Now, with our tummies filled, we were ready to face the day ahead. Our first educational endeavor was the Strategic Air Command Museum. The museum was filled with old airplanes and different types of bombs and interesting Air Force memorabilia.

The next stop was very educational, although brief, this was the Union Pacific Railroad Museum. This took most of us about 10 minutes to work our way through, for after this we were turned loose in the Old Market for lunch.

The Old Market was located by a really nice park, there was a stream running through it, a nice addition to downtown Omaha. The park made an enjoyable lunch spot, not to mention the girl in the yellow shirt — right Brent.

During the hour for lunch, Debbie Irwin got to yell 'Hey Taxi,' her lifelong ambition. Several of the girls got their palms read, and found they are looking at exciting futures.

Once again, we got aboard our yellow submarine and were off. This time headed for the Henry Doorly Zoo. Here we saw a lot of familiar faces, some of us even enjoyed visiting with relatives. The zoo had a baby gorilla in diapers and a lot of other neat animals. We got to ram through the zoo for about 3 hours.

We loaded up the bus for one more stop — Dinner — at the infamous Mr. C's Steak House. This restaurant was located in the nicest part of Omaha. Todd noted about the area, "Better not stop, or you might lose your hubcaps." and we just about did lose Debra. For a time, all you could see were 'brothers.'

While dining Brad received a cupcake with a candle for his birthday and we all were serenaded by a violin and guitar duo. When finished, we headed outside for a few pictures.

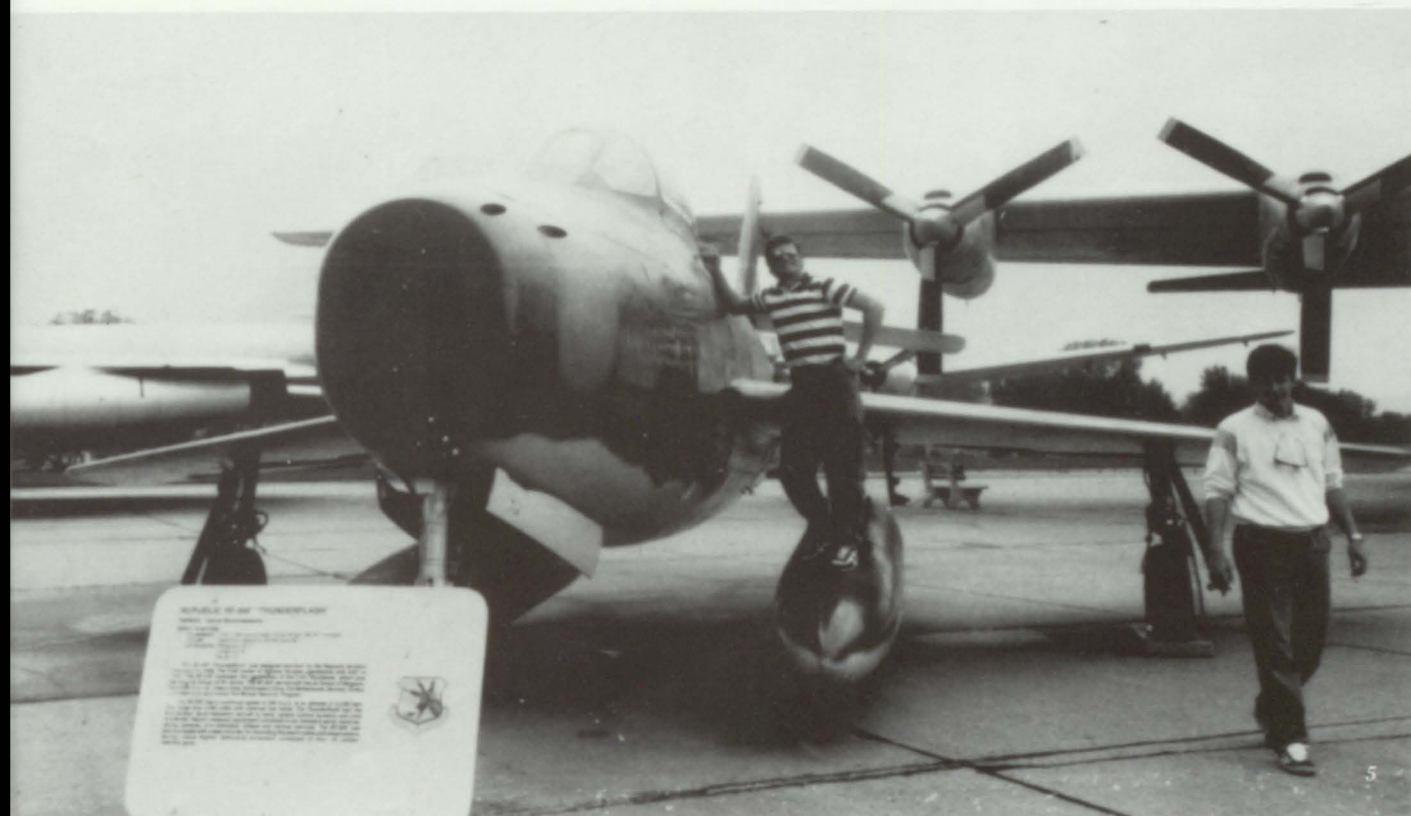

We started our journey home at about 7:00, Mary Ellen and Mr. Swanson did a better job of finding our way out of Omaha than they did finding our way around in Omaha! Oh, well, what's in a few extra miles! All in all the day was enjoyed by everyone!

1. All of the deranged members of the senior class. 2. A devastating tiger at the Henry Doorly Zoo. 3. Mr. and Mrs. Wonderful made everything possible!

1. Look what cosmetic surgery can do for you! 2. Tena just sittin' around. 3. Debra trying to find another ride home. 4. Jeanne and Robert take a needed break. 5. John getting his first taste of the Air Force.

As we walk through the doors of EPHS for the last time, temperatures are rising fast in preparation for our final year. It seems like it took forever to get here, but we made it through the cloudy skies.

Now, somehow we find ourselves looking back in search of the last 12 years and all the memories that go with them; however, the glimpse is short for it is now time to walk out the doors we are most familiar with and look to our futures. We will cherish all the memories as we go in search of new ones.

Class Flower: Red Rose and not to the past for the things you want to make last.*

Checking Out

School Day Memories

As we reach out our hand
The diploma we grasp
While we think of the memories
Of the years in the past.
Tears fill our eyes
Because it's all gone,
We're starting a new life,
We have to move on.
We hope friends will keep in touch
As the years pass us by,
Although it hurts inside
We'll try not to cry.
We think of kindergarten
And our first day,
now we've reached the end
We are going away.
How do you say good-bye
To friends who mean so much?
Will there be time
To sincerely keep in touch?
You'll always have the memories
Of your school years from day one,
Don't think of school as ending —
Think a new life has begun.

— Cindy Kichline, Easton, PA

Gone,
 dreams of the past,
 gone with a love that moved too fast.
 Gone,
 bright shiny days,
 gone in a young and restless haze.
 Why did we love, then run away?
 So little time, so much left to say,
 and now it's gone.
 Young and restless friend,
 You'll never pass this way again.
 So drink the summer wine,
 reach for the stars while you have time.
 Your restless dreams will lead the way.
 So dream your dreams and live for each day while you are young.

— De Vorzon and Botkin
