Reflections

Time it was,
And what a time it was,

It was . . .

A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.

Long ago . . . it must be . . .

I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.

Time well spent sharing Christmas spirit.

It's time to get down, get crazy, and have some fun.

The girls take time to show the opponents what Huskies are made of.

Time needed to call-1-800-abcdefg!

At times, in unexpected moments, a man can see his life in a series of reflections and recognize how much of himself he owes to all the people he has loved.

Having been together for twelve years, many memories have been made that will always stay in our minds, whether these memories were something that made us laugh or just something that became a real irony, we would like to share a few of our favorite stories and memoirs.

In kindergarten many of us learned our ABC's from the Letter People, and we still thank them today. Nap time was our favorite time of the day because we watched "Marian the Librarian" while we laid on our mats. Second grade came quickly, and if you were in Mrs. King's class, you always looked forward to singing "America the Beautiful." What a way to start the day!

Senior Memories

When our third grade year came, we thought we were tops. We were the oldest on the playground, and we got to bring out the tetherballs. We had countless games we played at recess, our favorites included: Tar Tag, four-square, and tetherball, the big highlight of each recess was to see who would end up in the Naughty Box. Moving into a new building was exciting; however, we were back on the bottom of the totem poll and had to submit to being picked on by the fifth and sixth graders. During lunch we often heard classmates asking, "Laura, can I sit by you today?" One thing we will always remember is the look under your tray contest which was something we looked forward to.

Junior high was great because we finally got our own lockers, and we had the opportunity to become involved in athletics. We soon came to realize that we no longer had recess. Looking back on our high school years, we still remember our freshmen initiation from the Seniors, but we also remember when we got to dish out the initiation. Getting involved in homecoming, beating DV at their homecoming, and staying out all night at prom are highlights of our last years at EPJ. We will always have personal remembrances, but one class memory will stay with us all ... the endless countdown to graduation!

▲Holy-Freshmen!!!

Freshmen and Spare Time!

Life can be filled with hours of spare time, how do the freshmen fulfill that time?

Most freshmen agree that the best way to spend the time is by engaging themselves in sports or watching television.

Many of the freshmen enjoy spending time with their friends. They enjoy going shopping, to the movies, biking, roller blading, and hangin' at the DQ. One freshmen replied that she didn't like hangin' out at Ollie's because that's where the "upperclassman" hang out. Another freshmen replied that "he" spends his spare time avoiding the seniors because he has yet to be initiated.

However, some freshmen aren't "typical," they'd rather spend their time doing constructive things. For example: helping others, catching up on homework, reading books, and playing the piano. One freshmen responded that he doesn't do anything with his spare time.

Ross Knutson replied, "I spend my time WISELY!"

X-C Runners Put Best Foot Forward!!

If you would hit the mark, you must aim a little above it: Every arrow that flies feels the attraction of the earth. -Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

The '95 Husky Cross Country team set high goals for their season. Many of the participants wanted to finish every race, earn a letter, and possibly reach the state meet. Leah LaFerrier will always remember the time when Alicia Truhe and Abby

Smith locked her in an old outhouse at a X-C meet. The participants had many different ways to cope with the heat when they were forced to run in it. Some of the ways included eating ice, drinking water, and running hard to finish as soon as possible.

As a result of placing in the top twenty at the region meet, Troy Fetterman qualified for the state meet. Troy placed 113th out of 162 runners. All of the athletes felt that X-C doesn't receive the support and recognition it deserves. "Cross country takes a lot of dedication and most people don't even understand the sport," commented Leah LaFerrier. Although many of the participants are thankful when the season is over, they always look forward to next year. by Joe Curry

Huskies Defend Conference Championship

"Basketball is something you eat, sleep and breathe. Everything else around you is just not as important." Emily Fletcher The '95 Husky basketball team showed determination and a positive mental attitude on the court. Many of the Huskies felt that the highlight of the season was remaining conference champs for the second year in a row. The Huskies will never forget when A. Sanford put duct tape around S. Limoges' head. A. Fornia's most embarrassing moment came when she forgot Mr. Fletcher was in the locker room, and she started to undress. E. Fletcher, E. Trudeau and C. Schmitz were selected to the 1st team Big Sioux all-conference, T. Bennett was selected honorable mention. E. Fletcher was also named to the 1st team all-region, and E. Trudeau and C. Schmitz were named to the 2nd team all region.

Coach Fletcher commented, "We had a good season and we were fortunate enough to win the Conference championship undefeated for the second year in a row. The girls ended up with an impressive 13-8 record. Even though we didn't win at districts, we have a lot of experienced players returning next year." by Joe Curry

The Huskies set up their defense on the Lennox opponents.

M. Allard eyes the ball as she makes her move.

E. Trudeau lays up a quick two.

D. VanRoekel uses the glass to her advantage.

E. Fletcher shoots over her opponents.

C. Schmitz rolls the ball off her fingertips for two.

T. Bennett drives the lane and scores.

A. Slattery boxes out and grabs the rebound.

Husky Football Frenzy!!

"The '95 season set the tone for the new era of outstanding Husky teams. With hard work in the off-season, a trip to Vermillion is in sight for the Huskies," said Coach Foley after his Huskies finished 2-6 for '95. "Beating Dakota Valley and Alcester-Hudson in conference action gave us confidence." Three players were named to the all-conference team: T. Curry, T. Geary and C. Stroschein; also named to the honorable mention conference team: T. Kyte, K. Christiansen, and E. Hanson. Offensively the Huskies collected some admirable statistics, they gained 287 yards in the air and rushed for 1303 yards on the ground. T. Curry led the ground game with 442 yards, T. Geary 384 yards, T. Kyte 234 yards and K. Christiansen added 158 yards. Defensively the Huskies were led by K. Christiansen with 87 tackles, and T. Curry had 83 tackles. The Huskies lose only three seniors, making the future of Husky football look very promising.

The Legacy Lives On

The '96 GVB team had a very successful season, they were conference, district, and region champs, and they placed 5th at the state tournament. Individual team members received many awards. Making all conference 1st team were M. Allard, T. Bennett, E. Fletcher, and D. Van Roekel and C. Schmitz received honorable mention. E. Fletcher was chosen to the all-state team and all-tournament team; while T. Bennett received honorable mention all-state and all-tournament team. The Huskies finished off the season with a record of 24-13. There were many unforgettable moments shared by everyone who participated in Husky volleyball this year. For L. LaFerrier the most embarrassing moment was during the Canton tournament she hit the ball off of her head . . . twice! A. Eidem tries to forget the time that she went up for a spike and totally wiffed it! T. Bennett remembers giving the male cleaning person a peep show at state volleyball tournament.

The future for the EPJ volleyball team looks promising. Coach Spiering stated, "I am expecting great things from the underclassmen. We will miss our seniors, but there will be alot of talent on the floor next year!"

E. Fletcher places it in the open spot.

Wrestlers Enjoy Team Success!

The Huskies' JV & Varsity wrestling teams started the '95-'96 season energetically and enthusiastically. The wrestlers set many individual and team goals. An individual goal of D.J. Skelton's was to finish in the top four at the state meet and reach or surpass 100 or more career wins. J. Heck's goal was to do the best he could do at each competition, he also wanted to finish the season with a winning record. K. Hanson added his team goal by believing that the team could send eleven wrestlers to the regional tournament. Coach Weier and Coach Vanderlinde wanted their team members to display mental toughness, and continuous physical strength and ability throughout the season.

Four school records were broken during this season. The team highlights included are: most wins in a dual (13), dual match score (73-0), most pins in a season (119), and most two point near falls (62).

The varsity dual record for the season was 11-11. The most impressive highlight of the season was being the District 4B Runner-Up Team.

Eleven wrestlers qualified for the regional tourney and four made it to the state meet. State qualifiers included seniors; T. Geary, D.J. Skelton, and juniors; T. Curry and T. Kyte. To end their junior year Curry placed 5th and Kyte placed 4th at the state tournament, both of these grapplers are looking forward to their last season and the '97 State tourney.

Huskies' BBB Future Looks Bright

The EP-J boy's basketball season proved exciting even though the record was 4-16. Everyone is looking forward to a bright future. As Coach Aslesen said, "Excellent attitudes plus work ethic will equal success!" The Huskies scored a total of 1,126 points for the season. M. Hammitt was the team scoring leader with 285 points for an average of 15.1 ppg. He was also the leader in steals with 41. M. Schmitz grabbed 115 rebounds for an 8.8 rebound average, he was 2nd in scoring with 188 points for a 9.4 ppg average. E. Fornia blocked 29 shots and the Huskies had 56 blocks compared to their opponents 30. E. Hanson led the conference free throw percentage with 48.1% on the year, he was 3rd in scoring with a 7 ppg

"Always work hard even if you don't start or get to play in every game"-T. Fetterman. It is this work ethic and attitude that will carry this young team to the next level.

Golf team up to "PAR"

This year's golf season began like every other season . . . with bad weather. Rain, snow, and cold filled this season with unpleasant golfing. As spring advanced, the golfers continued to improve, ending with fine performances by the golfers at the region and state meets.

The region tourney was held at Hartford. The girls' team finished with third place at regions. Junior high golfers Stephanie Limoges and Nicole Harkness finished third and seventeenth place respectively. Sophomore Erika McNerney finished with eighteenth place. These excellent places qualified them for the state meet, which was held May 20-21 in Hartford, South Dakota.

The boys' team finished in ninth place. Freshmen Dusty DeBuhr finished tenth. His finish also qualified him for the state meet at Elmwood Golf Course in Sioux Falls.

At the state tourney, the girls' team finished with ninth place out of sixteen teams. Stephanie Limoges finished with seventh place.

The future of EPJ golf has time to improve over the next few years with these young golfers already making it to the state tourneys.

'95-'96 Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders and fans go hand in hand. But, what exactly is a cheerleader? A cheerleader is a person who through heat, cold, rain, and snow must keep a smile on her face and keep the crowd pumped.

Throughout the season the cheerleaders do many things to build strength in themselves and increase school spirit. The cheerleaders sponsor many school activities, the annual homecoming dinner, spirit week, and pep assemblies are the responsibilities of the cheerleaders.

A major highlight for many cheerleaders is the trip to Huron, SD, for the state cheerleading competition. This year the state team placed fourth in their division. Most cheerleaders will agree that putting together a pep assembly is a challenge, but generally the cheerleaders have a good time doing their jobs. When J. KJose was asked "If there was one thing she could change about this season what would it be?" She replied, "I would change the way the crowd responds to the cheerleaders! We are cheerleaders, we do cheers, and the fans should yell along with us, even if the team is up by twenty or down by fifty! Everyone still needs to show their HUSKY PRIDE!!!"

Student Government

▼ T. Curry proves to us that he's got the "moves!"

▼▼ Council members listen to the Olympic Creed.

At the beginning of the school year, the members of the student government were already hard at work making plans for the homecoming week festivities. The homecoming theme was chosen, and plans were made.

A major concern of this year's student body was Honor Study Hall. Suggestions made by class officers for next year's HSH were the return of the COUCHES, a computer, a vending machine and the possibility of attending HSH more than once a day.

When L. LaFerrier was asked what made her interested in student government, Leah answered, "I am a good listener, and I bring the issues of the students to our meetings."

There are many changes people would like to see made in the student council elections. M. Harkness replied, "It seems like the elections turn into popularity contests; people don't take the elections seriously. It would be good for everyone if the attitudes toward the elections changed."

Most of this year's officers ran for student council because they wanted to get involved and improve the school climate. Michael Suing thought that it would be interesting to have a say in the issues that effect the students.

With the exception of this year's seniors, many of the class officers plan to run for office next year. A. Wurtz stated, "I would like to run again next year because I would like to make a difference."

B. Heckathorn, student council president, said, "Following in the footsteps of my mentor Bill Clinton, I delegated my authority and enjoyed the privileges of the executive office."
