Entering a new year...

Check out the "trolls under the bridge."

It's a group thing...

"Life is a handful of short stories, pretending to be a novel." And every once and again, we should open the book, read a chapter, and decide how to better it. Life is about living for the moment, not for tomorrow. We need to make each day count. We've always been told that there is no better time in our lives than our high school years, and it is this philosophy that the Reflections' staff agrees with. Therefore, it is our goal to capture the events of the '97-'98 school year, the exceptional moments as well as the minor occurrences of the daily routine at EPJ. Hopefully our efforts will assist EPJ students in realizing the importance of our time together. Time can slip away at a second's glance and that is why we need to learn to value each day... Carpe Diem!

Every day we enter the halls of EPJ to see the people who matter most in our lives. It is these people who give worth and merit to our school. So, let's sit back, have some fun, and Live Life to the Fullest!

Organizations offer variety and value to the year. They spice up the monotony and allow students the opportunity to expand their minds and talents. These activities require dedication and the willingness to strive. There are many organizations to choose from, it's just a matter of... Seeking a Purpose.

In the Student Life section of this book, you will get a glance at our school lives as well as our social lives. There is always something going on. Sit back, don't blink. Make Every Moment Count!

Long hours of hard work, devotion and sacrifice are what we celebrate in our sports section. This portion will catch all angles and every perspective of EPJ sports, from the roar of the crowd, to the final buzzer! Let's Sieze the Opportunity!

As you turn the pages of this book and review some great memories, we hope that you will recognize the importance of the necessity to Sieze the Day: Carpe Diem!

PEOPLE

Today, we LIVE. Tomorrow, we remember.

LIFE can be challenging, but we need TO make it rewarding. It is THE people of EPJ who make it the brightest and FULLEST

it can possibly be! Value the friendships made...

Days of Our Lives

Throughout the years we have had many memories. These memories are what make up the days of our lives. Lisa Erickson remembers nap time and the cookies and milk. Andrea Davis remembers getting a prize for stickers on the bottom of the lunch trays. Everyone remembers the slumber parties, but Alicia Truhe especially recalls the cat fights she and her friends used to get into. Kirk Frederickson remembers having to use Allan Litchfield's glue. Joey Knutson can't forget when he was stuffed into a refrigerator box by a band of gypsies. Chris Streets will always remember the time he heard the Challenger had exploded. He was so shocked, he wet himself in the middle of class! 4-6 Emily Card remembers the fun she had at Odyssey of the Mind. Mike LaFollette still gets choked up over the 20 tacos he stuffed in his mouth and barfed up into a cheeseball bin. Jill Hanson's head still aches from the time Andie Shadbolt hit a softball at her head at NYSF. Marc Mollet's goat will live on in his heart and his memories. Abby Karpen can still feel the steamy kiss at half time of a basketball game with a boy she had just met. Eve Petekavich cracks up over the time she went to clap and her hands never met. Nate Hall remembers getting yelled at by Mr. Long as a shower of chew-spit encrusted the audience. Duane Collins still dreams about his first kiss with Jennifer Jilderda in the jail at the park. Alissa Foltz's memory was triggered by the time she shot the stove in Lisa Bartek's trailer with a pistol. Bryan KJose wishes he could forget the time Amy Sanford kicked him where it counts, and they both cried! Angela Livingston can't forget the hours of therapy she endured to end her obsession for New Kids on the Block. Chrissy Weavill will never get over Mrs. Gregory forcing her to make a red-headed angel. 7-8 Andie Shadbolt recalls being worried about Abby Smith when she got into a biking accident wearing her pink bike helmet. Lillie Simons will always cherish the time when she and her friends went to the mall dressed up as hippies. Amy Sanford remembers the time she had to bring an umbrella to class to protect herself from Mr. Fletcher's shower of spit. Lisa Bartek can't forget the time she and her friends ditched school and had to be brought in by the cops after spending the day eating chocolate and peanut butter sandwiches. Adam Rozell recalls being the only one who had a vehicle and everyone piling in the bed of his truck. Kyle Christiansen remembers being beaten to a bloody pulp and forced to eat acorns by the junior high girls. 9-12 No one in our class will ever forget our freshman year when the Pointer dog and the Blackhawk transformed into a Husky. Katie Nearman fondly recollects sharing stories, cappuccino, and pumpkin bars in Human Anatomy. One of Bob Saylor's worst memories is when he and other members of the football team toilet-papered Coach Anderson's house, but he was the only one who got caught by the cops. Matt Schmitz wonders to this day how that nasty rumor that he snuck out the bathroom window at a dance ever got started. Abby Smith remembers a certain incident with her friends at McDonald's in North Sioux where french fries and hot tempers flew through the night, ending in a high speed chase with DV girls hot on their trails. Jamie Cliff and Jenny Burkett remember chucking pebbles at Cari Nearman's head at a football game. (It was later found out that Suzie Livingston and Ellen Schueren were in on the pebble chucking conspiracy). Desiree Brusseau would like to forget the time she went skidding across the street on her face at the Beresford loop while onlookers honked and laughed hysterically. Chris Trometer fondly remembers the first time he saw his girlfriend and knew she was "The One!" Cory Chapman recalls having to endure endless hours of suffering while listening to the Grease soundtrack over a 600 mile stretch. Randy Crum's head still echoes with Mrs. Stene's famous words "Reboot it"! Michael Oberg remembers the time he was feeling a little too manly, so he shaved his nipples for that 'oh so fresh feeling!' Lisa Hanson recalls taking a turn for the worst on her Moped and refused to come to school until her scrapes and scratches had healed a little. Joey Hanson recalls the time his professional driving skills almost killed Andie Shadbolt when he almost ran into the back of a parked car in Riverside. Jay Heck wishes he could forget the time he wore a leopard skin G-string to school on the outside of his clothes. Tim Fennel hopes his parents will forget the time he had a party while they were at the district boys basketball game. Troy Fetterman would like to get his hands on the man who totaled his convertible after the homecoming dance. Gina Mollet won't ever forget all those times she was forced to move her car due to the overflowing parking lot. Matt VonHaden fondly remembers all the paint ball wars out at Wurtz's farm. Cari Nearman vaguely remembers a certain game of dare in which she had 'the time of her life.' Joelle Geary remembers surviving Jerod's move back to Colorado. Heidi "Bill" Gerling remembers getting "snowed in" in Sioux City on a warm sunny day. Steve Peterson's ears are still ringing from the Pantera concert he went to in Omaha. Reid Knutson is still bitter about his car getting keyed by a certain enemy. Kelly Watkins will always be hailed as "Betty Crocker" by the boys' basketball team for her wonderful cookies. Holly Geary would like to finally let out her secret- she stayed with student managers at the State Wrestling Tournament! John Myers recalls ripping his wrestling sweatshirt in a very reckless sledding accident. Brady Rosenbaum is still cold after all those times of being thrown into those ten foot drifts. Erika McInerney will always cherish the high time she had at Rivercade '97. Jennifer Jilderda won't ever forget those hot winter nights at the city park. Like sands through the hour glass, these are the days of our lives!

Juniors most humiliating experiences

I was at the mall with Melissa and Roxie and I started to pit out. I didn't want to be walking around all stinky so I went to Target to buy some deodorant. It was too expensive, so without buying it, I just put it on in the store. We had to hurry and leave so we wouldn't get caught.

One time when we were on the Beresford loop, a bunch of us were trying to get into the back of a guy's truck. As I swung my leg over, the guy took off. All of a sudden I flew off the end, and landed on my butt, in the middle of the street. It was rather embarrassing with cars stopping to stare as I painfully got up.*

Nightmare of the Month

I play front row in volleyball, but in the state championship last year, we ran out of rotations and I had to play back row. There were tons of people there so I was trying not to screw up. The best hitter on our opponent's team hit the ball at me. I was too slow to get out of the way and she hit me so hard it knocked me over on my butt. Everyone was laughing at me, but that's ok, because we still won.

Aviry and I were coming back from Sioux City. Aviry was driving the "boat." It was the night it had rained 10 inches. We got stuck in the raging floodwater and we had to dive out the windows so we could push her car right next to the highway. Everyone on the highway was honking at us while we tried to push the car to Amoco.*

▲ Superfan M. Swanson shows her Husky spirit.

Last year I was at the wrestling meet at Marion-Freeman. My friend and I got there late, and we couldn't figure out who was wrestling. We wanted to know who was home and who were the guests on the scoreboard. We asked somebody, he looked at the two teams and looked at us and asked, "Where are we?" We said, "Freeman." He said, "Freeman is Home."

▲ It takes a sucker to know a sucker.

I went on a boating excursion with my relatives. I was tubing behind a boat and the forces of nature sucked me inside the tube and forced my swimming trunks down to my ankles. I was bobbing like a duck trying to pull up my trunks. I kept thinking my trunks would fall into the depths of the lake. After several tries, I finally pulled them up. This is still mentioned at every family gathering.

Sieze the Day

As we all know, Carpe Diem means Sieze the Day. We asked the sophomore class what they thought Sieze the Day meant. Here are some responses, "To live each day to the fullest," or "To never let opportunity pass you by." While others thought it meant "Sleeping in and watching TV all day." The most insightful response we received was "Take control of your life, conquer your fears, navigate the ship and keep on sailing."

C. Weavill smiles over her achievement.

Weavill attends HOBY

Colleen Weavill had the honor of representing EPJ at the Hug O'Brian Youth Leadership Seminar. To be accepted, Colleen had to answer three questions about leadership and school. She said that she really didn't think that she would be chosen, but she decided to compete anyway. While attending the seminar she attended many different sessions on leadership.

Grasp This! The

Teachers Learn...

Yes! Believe it or not, teachers learn, too. There are always new ideas to be grasped and sometimes those ideas can come from the darndest places. Students often play a role in "teaching old dogs new tricks."

Mr. Vanderlinde had this to say, "The most important thing that I ever learned from a student is that you need to treat some of the same situations that occur differently, because things are not always black or white, but sometimes shades of gray."

And some lessons are a bit more practical. Mrs. Baagoe has learned that, "One can use an electric mixer to curl her hair!"

Sometimes, life's simplest lessons can come from an unusual source, too. Mr. Knutson learned to "be honest and fair, because students can always tell when you're not." Perhaps, most interesting, Mrs. Fennel has learned how to lie convincingly.

In this ever-changing world, it is always necessary to grasp new concepts.

REACH A GOAL

The '97-'98 Student Council Broke Ground...

Great strides were taken by the '97-'98 EPJ Student Council. From the enormous success of Homecoming in the fall to the excitable El Niño homage in the spring, it was definitely a notable year. Throughout the year, the Student officers worked together and helped bring about some fun and exciting events. Student Council set goals and budgets to abide by in hopes of turning out a successful term. And successful it was! Some of the events SC sponsored or co-sponsored included the skating trip in December, faculty appreciation breakfasts, Homecoming week, the Valentine Compatibility Drive and various dances.

At the Fall Bash, Student Council introduced a new form of entertainment. John 'Slap' Myers and Nate 'Veg' Hall were DJs to a musical variety.

Some other achievements by the '97-'98 Student Council included visiting Prairie Estates Care Center in Elk Point to share holiday greetings and transforming Honor Study Hall into the revised "Jungle." All in all, it was a great year and the Student Officers worked hard for everyone at EPJ!

The Natural Helpers started their year off early in August with a three day retreat to Inspiration Hills, near Canton. The retreat included Natural Helpers from Vermillion and Elk Point Jefferson. Both groups were a little nervous about training with people from other schools that they didn't know, which made that first day a little awkward and uncomfortable. The second day of "happy camp" was like people from both schools had known each other for life. Everyone began to talk and bond, and soon, new friendships were emerging where awkwardness and discomfort had been just a day earlier. Participants learned the "helping skill", played games, and used their acting abilities to perform situational skits. When the campers had free time they enjoyed hiking, swimming, and an all around good time. One highlight for the girls was Amy O'Connor from Vermillion singing them to sleep each night. No one knew quite what they were getting into when they embarked on on this three day journey that made them never want to go home. "Camp was better than Disneyland. I thought that was the happiest place on earth," exclaimed Kirk Fredericksen. The Natural Helpers enjoyed some on-going training with and without their beloved friends from Vermillion and many other fun and exciting moments together at EPJ!

Ready for Combat

The 1998 all-school play cast was all decked out in army fatigues and koolie hats for the production of M*A*S*H. This year two evening performances were staged at the Jefferson Gym under the new spotlight.

Your favorite characters from the 70's TV series were back, and they were crazier than ever. The Korean War provided the backdrop for a pile-up of comic adventures for the doctors and nurses of the 4077th Mobile Army Surgical Hospital. Hawkeye and his buddies plotted to send a young Korean to a good medical school in the U.S. Meanwhile, Klinger continued to campaign for that Section 8 discharge, and the usual clash between "Regular Army" and "Not-So-Regular Army" personnel made for lots of great laughs.

An outstanding effort was put forth by all. Best actor for the comedy was awarded to B. Saylor as Hawkeye Pierce, and Best supporting actor was awarded to J. Curry as Major Burns. A. Karpen received the Best actress award for her portrayal of Hot Lips Houlihan, and M. Swanson was awarded Best supporting actress for her role as Bridget.

The flutes TAKE IT ONE NOTE AT A TIME while the band prepares to march at Dakota Days in Vermillion.

The 1997-98 band made many performances and showed that they've got what it takes. The pep band played at many games and pep rallies, while the jazz band showed what it had at the Coronation Ceremony. The marching band marched in the Homecoming Parade, before the "Big Game" on Homecoming (for a second year in a row), and at Dakota Days in Vermillion. The band also received an excellent rating at the full band contest in Freeman.

The year also let individual band members show-off. Solo-Ensemble contests at Vermillion in early March was a success for EPJ. 16 people received superior ratings, and 18 people earned excellent ratings. Those who got superior ratings performed for the public in an Honors Concert. Many students also received honors outside of the school. Four students were named to the University of Minnesota (U of M) Honor Band. Abby Karpen was named to the All-State Band for the second year in a row.

The year wrapped up with a Pops Concert in early May. The 1997-98 band lost many members with the coming of Graduation and they would be replaced with fresh members who could look forward to marching, pep rallies, marching, fun, and marching.

Husky Games

Homecoming festivities were continued with the annual barbecue and followed by the First Annual Husky Games. Students dined on delicious hot dogs and pork loin sandwiches. Lunch was accompanied by chips and a drink. People readily devoured the food and were psyched for the Games. After the barbecue, everyone headed to the football field for the Husky Games. This year's games were new and improved, with all new competitions. Everyone's participation made these Games different from the past. The games included a trust fall, horizontal volleyball, a wheelbarrow race, Mind Trap, bucket brigade, paper plate race, dizzy football relay, number walk, frisbee relay, orange squeeze, and hula hoop pass. Everyone enjoyed the fierce competition amongst the four classes. The Seniors came out on top, followed by the juniors. The day was a success!

PETS

What is it with people and their pets? Why do we spoil and talk to our pets? Is there some kind of mystical bond between pet and owner? Or are we simply just pathetic? Let's be honest... We would do anything for our pets. We feel awful when something happens to them, and we often wish the bad things would have happened to a sibling, instead. We all love our PETS!

▲▲ Nobody knows much about the secret lives of Mr. Smith and his loving companion Sally. He considers his dog one of his own children and his best friend. Every morning he talks to Sally before he goes to school to let her know that he will be back later, and that she should stay out of trouble when he is gone.

▲ Is it true that pets resemble their owners? Well this might be the case between M. Hanson and his horse Jesse James, both he and Jesse enjoy eating hay and grazing in open pastures. Marty and Jesse don't look forward to their monthly worm shots.

In late December, the Senior and Junior classes took a pre-Christmas trip to the all-new Sioux City Ice Rink. As the pictures will tell, there were plenty of spills, tumbles, falls and crashes. There was one thing obviously lacking, talent, but on the other hand there certainly was not a lack of dare-devil antics. Had judges been scoring the tumbles, there would have been many perfect 10's. Everyone enjoyed watching several good wipeouts. It seems some people spent more time lying on the ice than skating on it. After about 2 hours of skating, the sore and beaten classes took their swollen ankles, battered knees and bruised bodies out to eat.

Prom '98

The parkside was flooded with Romance as the 1998 EPJ prom began with Joe Curry welcoming everyone to the banquet at the Elk Point Country Club. A brief thank you was then given by senior class president, Amy Sanford. After dinner, crowds flooded into the old gym. Despite ruined hair and wet formals pictures were taken and the Grand March followed. At the conclusion of the Grand March, John Myers and Cari Nearman were crowned Prom King and Queen. They were congratulated by senior attendants Andrea Shadbolt, Abby Smith, Amy Sanford, Michael Oberg, Bob Saylor, and Joey Hanson and the junior attendants Melissa Begnoche, Amanda Livingston, Nicole Klasey, Andy Glover, Curtis Adams, and Dan Drwin. While the crowd waited for the royalty dance, the DJ experienced a few technical difficulties. The dance continued until midnight. At the conclusion, everyone returned to the country club for the After Prom Party. The highlight of the after prom party was the very entertaining comedian Bud Anderson.

Shooting for the Stars

"Success is always temporary, when all is said and done, the only thing you have left is character."- Vince Gill. Losing the first two games of the season cast doubt in everyone's minds, but the Huskies proved the doubters wrong by going on a ten game winning streak. The girls pulled together to win the regular season conference, the conference tournament and the District championship game over rival Vermillion 42-44. The Huskies finished the season with a 17-5 record. S. Limoges and N. Rozell were named 1st team all-conference. G. Mollet was named 3rd team all-conference and N. Klasey was named honorable mention. G. Mollet was named to the Academic All-State team. N. Rozell earned Big Sioux Conference MVP honors and was named to the all-Region team and Nina was also named to the 3rd All-State team. S. Limoges was named to the all-Region 2nd team.

Statistically the Huskies finished the season strong. The Huskies averaged 58 points per game, while their opponents averaged 44 points. N. Rozell led the team with 327 points. S. Limoges had 241 points, G. Mollet had 200 points, N. Klasey had 168 and A. Allard had 115. Other scorers were A. Davis with 94, A. Fornia with 53, E. McInerney with 43, and S. Scott with 25. The team made 242 out of 405 attempts from the charity line for a 60% average. A. Allard led the team at the line making 80% of her shots. N. Klasey led the Huskies in steals, grabbing 63 of the teams 268. G. Mollet and S. Limoges each had 52 steals. S. Limoges had 99 of the teams 339 assists. N. Rozell was second with 71 assists. The Huskies outrebounded their opponents 759 to 517. N. Rozell led the team with 259 rebounds. N. Klasey had 104 and S. Limoges had 100. EPJ had 99 blocked shots while their opponents only had 23.

"It was a great year not only with winning and losing, but these girls were class acts on and off the court," said head coach Daryl Fletcher.

Highlights of the season were winning the Conference championship for the fourth year in a row, taking down arch-rival Shorey in the district championship and having the longest winning streak in EPJ history. Some of the fondest memories of this season can best be summed up by the three seniors: "No matter how big the pants, Dars always managed to get a big wedge," chuckled A. Davis. E. McInerney summed up the season by saying, "we accomplished a lot of things during the season but I had a lot of fun." G. Mollet quipped, "The misery of ladders and stations is a small price to pay for all the memories and fun being part of a team."

A. Davis looks for the perfect pass.

Run for the Popsicle

"Come on, I'll race you to the finish line!" This year's Cross Country team trained hard every day to reach their goals of improving their times and making it to state. When asked, "What motivated them to run all that distance?" The whole team answered, "The Popsicles!"

The boys' cross country team had plenty of motivation when they finished first at the conference meet, and second at the regional meet which qualified them for the state meet in Pierre. State qualifiers included Troy Fetterman, Ross Knutson, Jesse Girard, Adam Fletcher, Jordan Lanning, and Lucas Klumper. R. Knutson finished 66th with a time of 18:10, T. Fetterman finished 72nd with a time of 18:28, J. Girard finished 110th with a time of 19:30, A. Fletcher finished 111th with a time of 19:31, J. The '97 EPJ football season was very hard to describe. The 3-5 season record isn't the best of EPJ's four year record, but in many ways the Huskies had their best overall season. The team broke 22 records and tied four others. M. Hammitt broke the pass record with 27 and a career high of 106 attempts with 40 completions. A. Rozell broke the receiving career record with 22 catches, 183 yards on the season and a career total of 346 yards gained. K. Christiansen broke the scoring record with 82 career points adding 36 points this season. A. Glover tied for two fumble recoveries in one game. D. Irwin led the defense with 98 tackles. The players went through grueling

"two-a-day" practices, along with countless hours in the weight-room during the pre-season. Coach Anderson pushed discipline and always reminded the team of their reputation as "the hardest hitters in the conference." On an individual basis, B. Kjose and M. VonHaden were selected to the All Academic Football Team. M. Hammitt was selected to the All State Team as punter, along with M. Schmitz who was selected to the Honorable Mention All State Team as defensive end. Big Sioux All Conference picks included M. Hammitt, M. Schmitz, and K. Christiansen. Honorable Mention recognition was given to K. Fredericksen, C. Trometer, and D. Irwin.

The Huskies' varsity wrestling team started the '97-'98 season with their goals set high and their minds focused on what they should and could accomplish-to win. The always enthusiastic Coach C. Poches aided by B. Vanderlinde and D. Swatek started out the season with gruelling nonstop hard working practices, that developed a strong work ethic that lasted throughout the year. With this strong work ethic the Huskies were able to achieve their goals and smash many of EPJ's previous season school records; such as . . . Most take downs (418) most reversals (229) most escapes (208) most nearfalls (90) most 3pt nearfalls (138). Individual records that were broken include- D. Irwin most takedowns (418) J. Time and Time Again

"Coming off a State Championship was tough," co-captain Lisa Hanson said, "we had to rebuild a new team, but I think we exceeded people's expectations." Working hard and putting forth their best, the team ended the season with an overall 90% success in serving and 70% in hitting attempts. The team had a successful hard-hitting offensive attack. Some of the leaders were N. Rozell with 252 kills, A. Davis 118 kills, and S. Limoges added 98 kills. In serve attempts A. Davis led with 46 ace serves, E. McInerney and L. Hanson led with 83% serve accuracy. E. McInerney led with 135 set assists to aid the Husky scoring drives.

Defensively the Huskies accumulated impressive statistics. L. Hanson led the backline receivers and saved 245 playable receptions, she had 31 digs on the season. S. Limoges saved 208 playable receptions and had 41 digs. At the net, the twin towers, A. Davis and N. Rozell had a combined total of 118 blocks. N. Rozell had 59 solo blocks and A. Davis had 30.

The season held many honors for various members of the team. N. Rozell and A. Davis were named to All Conference, while L. Hanson, S. Limoges, and E. McInerney earned honorable mention. L. Hanson was named to Academic All-State, and N. Rozell was named to the second team All-State.

N. Rozell commented, "It was an honor to be selected to all-state, the great passers and three setters contributed to my success." "I spike; therefore I am!"

The EPJ boys basketball team completed their season with a 10-11 record. The Huskies scored a total of 1,308 total points. M. Hammitt led the team in scoring with 361 points for 17.2 ppg. M. Schmitz was second in scoring with 266 points for 12.7 ppg and K. Christiansen was third with 240 points for 11.4 ppg.

M. Hammitt was the leading assist man with 86. M. Schmitz hit for 52% of his field goals to lead the team and he also led the team in rebounds, grabbing 212 for a 10.1 rpg. K. Christiansen and M. Schmitz stole the ball 54 times each. K. Christiansen had the best free throw percentage shooting 57 of 76 for 75%.

The Huskies outscored their opponents by an average of 62.3 ppg vs. 61.6 ppg. The Huskies also outrebounded their opponents 639 vs. 531 for an average of 30.4 vs. 25.3

rpg. The team blocked 39 shots and made a total of 219 steals and 292 assists.

M. Hammitt received second team all-conference, M. Schmitz received third team all-conference, and K. Christiansen received all-conference honorable mention.

The season highlight came in the big district tourney win over Alcester-Hudson in the first round.

In response to the season M. Schmitz replied, "It was a good time, but I wish we could have gone farther." K. Christiansen is still asking, "Why do the refs hate me so badly?" A. Rozell added, "It was all in the tatoos!" In final analysis Coach Aslesen probably summed it up best, he said, "The team showed great pride at the end of the season. It took an enormous amount of character and courage to have such a fantastic end to our season."

The 1998 track season was a record breaking, standard meeting, performance setting success. Many individual and team performances met the standards, and frequently shattered the records that have become a part of the Husky track and field legend. The girls won the Big Sioux Conference meet for the fourth consecutive year, and also placed first at the Husky Invitational. New girl's records set in '98 were: G. Mollet, 200m dash-27.0; long jump-15'11"; N. Rozell, high jump-5'2"; M. Rosenbaum, 1600m run- 5:57.9; G.Mollet, N. Klasey , L. Schmitz, S. VanRoekel, 4x400m relay-4:15.6; and the 4x100m relay-52.8. Coach Vanderlinde and the girls felt that they had met and exceeded the criteria they had set for themselves as individuals and as a team.

▼ M. VanHaden tries to break his shot put record of 48'10.5".

▼ S. VanRoekel and N. Klasey push each other to the finish.

The boy's team won the Dakota Valley Invitational, Husky Invitational and Beresford Lions Invitational meets. Several records fell during the '98 season. M. Hammitt, 200m dash-22.9; 300m hurdles-39.4; D. Irwin, 400m dash-52.9; R. Knutson, 800m run-2:04.2; J. Girard, 1600m run-4:53.6; M. VonHaden, discus-129'4"; D. Irwin, R. Knutson, C. Brusseau, M. Hammitt, 1600m relay-3:33.1; T. Fetterman, R. Knutson, J. Girard, C. Brusseau, 3200m relay-8:28.4.

Because of the tracksters outstanding seasonal performances several participants qualified for the state track meet, those qualifiers included: G. Mollet, L. Schmitz, N. Klasey, S. VanRoekel, and N. Rozell, D. Irwin, R. Knutson, J. Girard, T. Fetterman, A. Girard, C. Brusseau, and M. VonHaden. M. Hammitt placed 6th in 200m dash and 2nd in the 300m hurdles at the state meet.

There is only one shot that matters. It's not the clutch 4-iron you hit last week. Or the 7-iron you hit to within a foot of the pin on #5. Or the shot that split the narrow fairway on 12. There is only one shot that matters; this one! With this in mind, each golfer approached each shot in competition one shot at a time.

Success soon came to the girls as they went 7-0 in dual competitions. They placed 1st at three invitationals and placed 2nd at two others. They won the Big Sioux Conference tourney, placed 2nd at regionals and went on to win the coveted State Class B team title. Individually Stephanie Limoges was the conference, regional and state tournament medalist. Erika McInerney finished 3rd, 4th, and 9th in those same tourneys. Stephanie was named the MVP for the '98 season with an average of 41.85.

The state champion girl's team also was named to the Academic All-State team with an average GPA of 3.25; Desiree Brusseau earned Academic All-State honors.

The boys team went 2-4 in dual competition. Dusty DeBuhr was the MVP with an average of 39.2. Dusty placed 7th at the conference; 8th at the regionals and earned an 8th place medal at the state tourney.

The '98 season left promises of many more future EPJ successes on the links.

THE SENIOR TRIP

EPJ's Adventureland Outlaws

Look, Ma, no hands!

So many things left to do, yet so little time to do them.

The seniors found doing the group thing was the best thing.

River Rats?

Living in a 'topsy turvy' world.

SENIORS

The first senior trip was a success. Early in the morning on May 16, twenty-one members of the senior class along with Mr. Smith and Mrs. Limoges awoke for a breakfast feed at Cari Nearman's house. The feed was delicious, as the girls proved once again what great chefs they are. Following the great feast, everyone boarded the bus for Adventureland.

Nobody will ever forget the astounding thrill of the first ride, The Underground. You have never experienced something so breathtaking, and you probably never will again! From there the class moved on to the REAL rides, the rollercoasters. The Tornado, The Dragon, and The Outlaw. Some only attempted the upside-down loops of The Dragon once. We all headed to the Raging River in hopes of cooling off, and settling the smoke. Some, who enjoy living life on the edge, attempted The Mixer. For them, it put life into perspective, they have been looking at the world upside down for a long time. Perhaps the highlight of the day was when Mrs. Limoges took Mr. Smith up in the SkyTrak and he had to close his eyes before he went into cardiac arrest. Breath, Mr. Smith!

The day ended with twenty-one exhausted and sunburned students. The trip home was spent watching-movies, sleeping, or listening to Gina (motor-mouth) Mollet. She just couldn't settle down from the excitement.

WHAT AN ADVENTURE!

Our Bags are Packed . . .

and our goals
are set high.
We are about to set off on a journey of infinite possibilities, where high school will not only be remembered as just some building, but a place of memories where each of us began to discover who we are and what we were put on this earth for.

So go on . . .
and be sure to live your life to the fullest and maybe one day we will meet again.

Always thinking, seldom doing...

A last spring day for old friends...

Take time

Your Final Moments...

Thus adds a new year of history to EP-J...

Seniors reflect on what seems like yesterday.

Oops, Cari can't stand on her own two feet?!

"Live life to the fullest, seek a purpose, make each moment count, sieze the opportunity..." Sometimes it seems like advice comes from all directions, but no advice can surpass "Carpe Diem." The 1997-1998 year was full of memorable events, each worthy of its own recognition. The senior class definitely lived life to the fullest, but we don't need to mention how! Roxie Karpen found her purpose when she was elected President of the SE South Dakota Regional Student Council. As did the Reader's Theater group of Oral Interpretation when they made it to Regions. Lucas Klumper showed us his purpose during the all-school play. Moments counted when the senior class won the Olympics and when promgoers made the most of a stormy evening. Opportunities were siezed when Jason Livingston beat the self-proclaimed "state champ," and qualified for the state wrestling tournament. The year proved incredible and unforgettable. So remember...

Carpe Diem

In Memory of...

~Tiffani Oberg~

February 9, 1980 ~ February 16, 1992

*Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay.*

~Robert Frost

*F*or Our Beloved *F*riend....

The Reflections Staff and the Senior class of Elk Point Jefferson would like to dedicate this yearbook to their friend and classmate, Tiffani Lee Oberg. We remember her beautiful smile, her sunny personality, her love of life, and how Tiffani lived each day to the fullest, making time for family and friends. Her spirit is the heart of what Carpei Diem really means. We love you and miss you and we will never forget you. Your memory will live on in our hearts forever!
