If You're Not the

The View Never Changes Lead Dog

This year the cross-country team gave the students and community a good reason to go out to the golf course. Practice officially started on August 9th, but like Mr. Knutson always says, "Cross-Country championships are won in the summer." All the hard training in the off season paid off when the boys' team took home first place at their second meet held at Dakota Valley. The girls didn't have a team, so they had to run for personal bests. Ashleigh Bosse finished 21st with a time of 20:08 while Jessica Dodds finished 29th with a time of 21:45 at their first varsity meet. As the season progressed the boys continued to impress everyone with a total of four first place finishes while the girls continued to shave minutes off their first varsity meet. One of the teams' favorite memories occurred one day when the teams were liesurely walking on a country road when they should have been running. Mr. Knutson sneaked up behind them in his truck, and the boys and girls took off on a dead sprint. It goes to show, you can't even slack off when your miles away from the coach. Another favorite memory was when Josh Butrous locked the keys in the Suburban and everyone was stuck at the cross-country meet until a locksmith from Lennox came and unlocked the burb. Coach Knutson will never forget it either! The future looks bright for Elk Point-Jefferson cross country as they lose no senior or junior participants this year.

YOU MIGHT BE A CROSS COUNTRY RUNNER IF

10...people say, "You run three miles...at once?"

9...you haven't had a pop in 6 months

8...you have trouble benching the bar.

7...your underwear covers more than your uniform shorts.

6...the most enjoyable time you've had all month is a day off from practice.

5...you think track is for wussies.

4...you routinely race dogs down the street...and win.

3...you do badly you get to play longer.

2...you finish the race looking like you wrestled a bear and you don't care.

1...a fat man with a gun says, "Alright gentlemen, take 'em off."

A. Bosse sprints solo toward the finish line.

J. Larson runs a time of 18:52 and places third.

J. Dodds lines up and awaits the starting gun.

J. Dodds and D. Staum represented EPJ at state.

N. Schmitz

I thought that the trick play was DA BOMB! I had a lot of fun this season, we had a lot of guys that wanted to play and have fun.

E.J. Mollet

I thought that it was awesome when "The Guenth" scored on the trick play. I thought the season went well, although our record didn't show it.

J. Guenthner

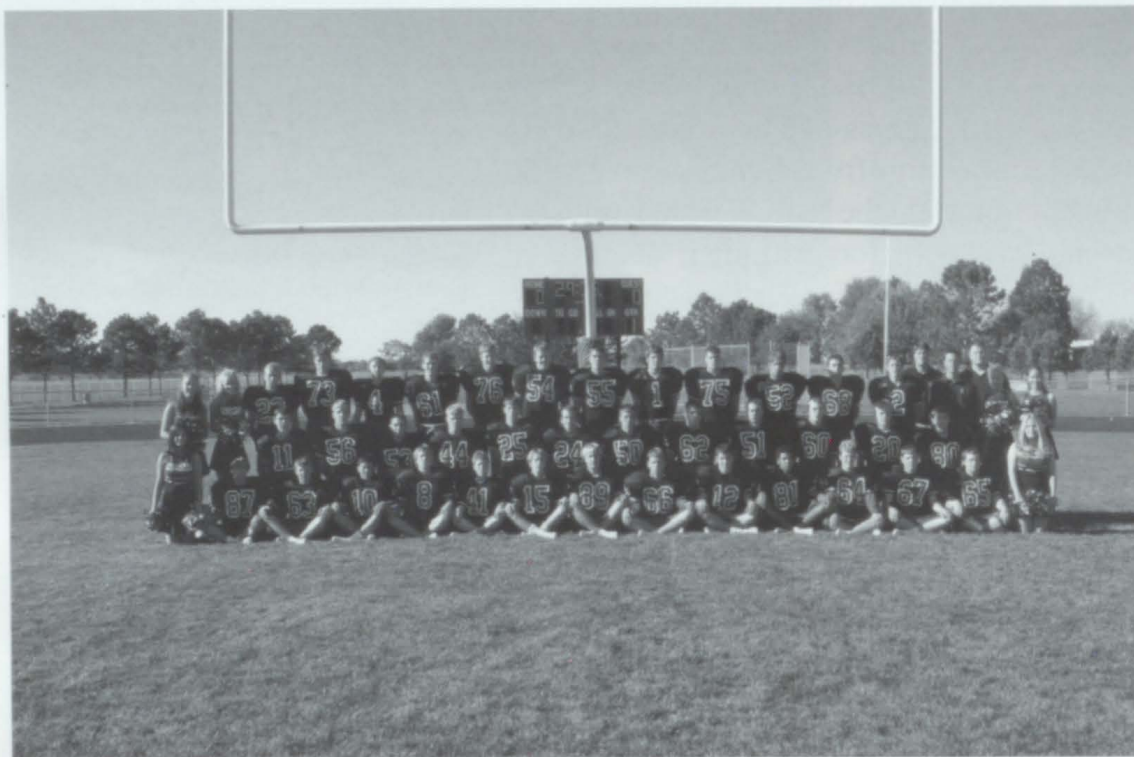

I thought it was cool when we mercy ruled Alcester-Hudson. We did everything right that game, and we really worked together well.

T. VanRoekel

I thought that it was awesome when we did the trick play again Parker. I thought the season went well, although the record didn't show.

The Husky football team had a good season, even though their record didn't show it. The 01-02 football season had two major highlights. One was the time the guys mercy-ruled Alcester- Hudson. The other highlight was when they ran a trick play on homecoming night against Parker and scored a touchdown. There were two players named all conference :J. Guenthner and T. Curran. T. VanRoekel, J. Truhe and E.J. Mollet were named honorable mention. J. Guenthner received honorable mention in the Argus Leader Elite 45. Offensively, the Huskies did very well. The Huskies gained 1166 yards rushing. J. Guenthner gained 531 yards, E.J. Mollet gained 221 yards and T. Curran gained 183. Defensively, the Huskies were led by David Trudeau with 99 tackles, and J. Coach Bertram said, "Even though the record didn't show it, the Huskies made some great improvements throughout the season."

Girls' Basketball

Workin' Like Dogs

*2001 EPJ Girls' Basketball team demonstrates hard work
and dedication*

Coach Fletcher reflected on the 2001 season with these words. "The 2001 season was a season to remember. The Huskies finished the year rated #10 in the final Class A State rankings. The 2001 team finished undefeated in the Big Sioux Conference for the fourth consecutive year. The team was led by a group of ten seniors. The four losses the Huskies suffered were all by highly ranked teams. We achieved many team goals but also experienced disappointment by not winning the District tournament. It was a season that will go down in Husky GBB as a very rewarding year for everyone involved."

1. T. Jerred focuses hard on the basket before adding two more points to the Huskies' victory over Sioux Falls Christian.
2. E. Strom, bandage and all, has the quick step over her tall Ladybird opponent.
3. M. Schmidt, in excellent defensive stance, anticipates the next pass.

A. Lee shows the crowd her "ups" as she puts in one of her many baskets throughout the season.

S. Patnaude goes up strong fighting off the high arms of the Tigers.

What part of basketball are you going to miss the most?

Ashley McInerney
"I am going to miss the way T.A. tried to get a toothy smile out of Dars by making fun of him at the beginning of practice."

Emily Kyte
"I am going to miss the feeling you get when the last two a day is finally over."

Meghan Limoges
"I sure am going to miss Spirit Lake because it was my favorite drill. I will also miss the endless lines we ran every practice."

Oops! M. Rosenbaum schools yet another opponent in her famous baseline move.

With perfect goose neck form, J. Fennel knocks the long untested two.

The 2001-2002 season was all about diggin' for the win. Leading the team were the five seniors: Sarah Patnaude, Jessie Fennel, Emily Kyte, Meghan Limoges, and Ashley McInerney. The Huskies finished their season 20-15, and captured the Big Sioux Conference title. In respect to that title, senior, Jessie Fennel and junior Leslie Nebelsick were named Vollyeball All-Conference. Junior, Melissa Mau, and senior, Emily Kyte received Honorable Mention All-Conference selections. Seniors Meghan Limoges and Jessie Fennel were named to the Academic All State Team. The EP-J season didn't conclude the way the team wanted, but many goals were accomplished throughout the year.

E. Kyte's most memorable event of the season was when Mr. Zeller danced in the locker room before the big game.

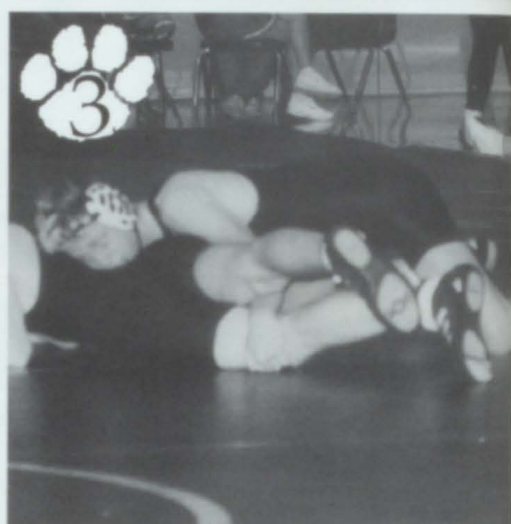

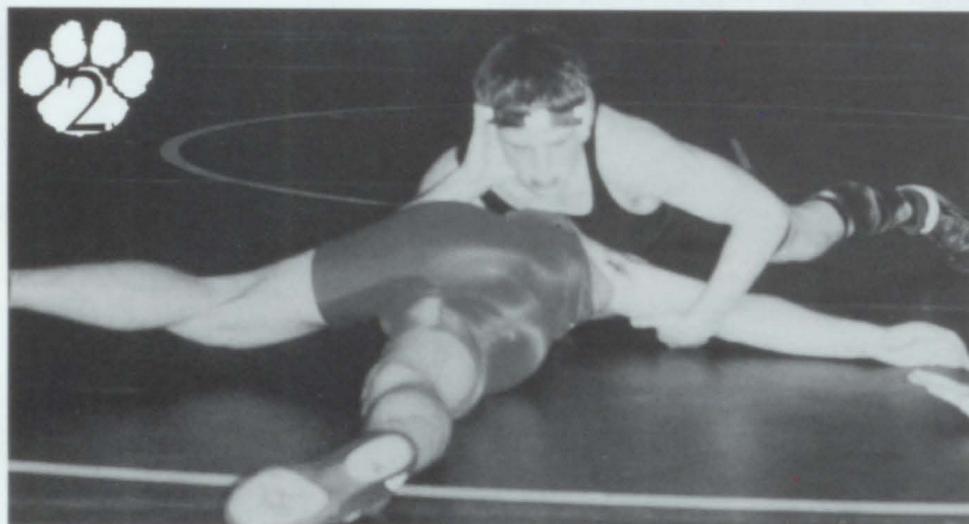

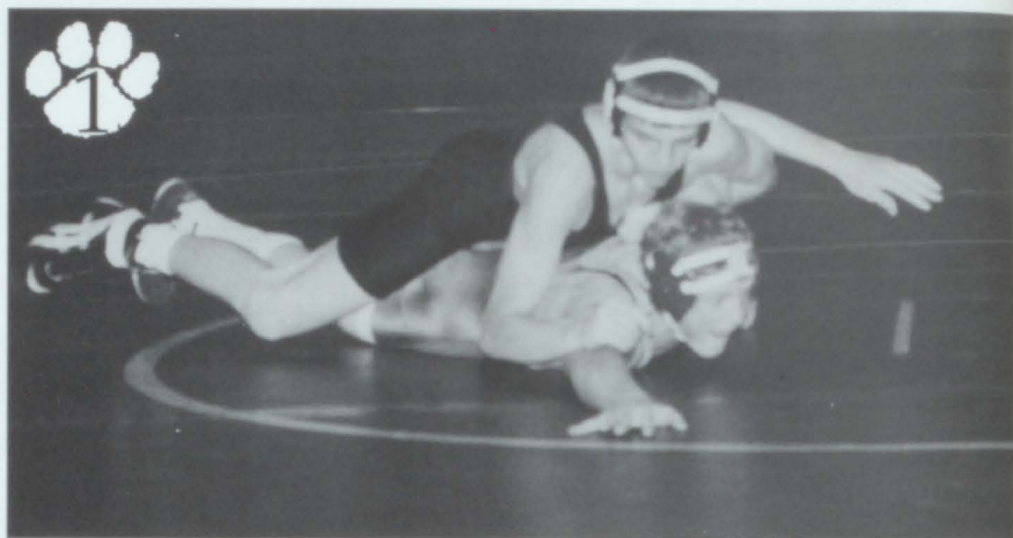

K. Weavill and M. Frankl show us their game faces as they prepare for the big game.

A. McInerney's goals at the beginning of the season were to always stay positive and to win the conference.

Golf 2002

The EP-J golf teams had one mission in mind for this season, and that included taking both the boys and girls golf teams to State in Rapid City. With this mission in mind it would require hard work, dedication, and countless hours spent on the driving range and practice green. The boys team had a great season overall, they captured the DV Invitational title, and B. Truhe was the boys individual medalist. The girls also did well this season placing 1st at the Parker Invite and the girl's team placed 2nd in the Region tourney to qualify for the state meet. M. Limoges also was the medalist at Parker, West Central, and the Regions. B. Truhe, R. Larsen, & J. Sieverding also qualified at regions to enter the state tourney as individuals. At State, Bobby Truhe placed 5th and Meghan Limoges placed 20th. Meghan was selected as Academic All-State Golf.

Howlin' for the Huskies...

Even some of us fans get worked up over a bad call.

J. Truhe can't help, but admire M. Limoges; while Hammer takes yet another minute to chill.

These five freshmen girls sure know how to be superfans!

Husky fans have much love for one another.

No one can keep from smiling when our boys are winning a b-ball game.

Elk Point-Jefferson is filled with a variety of people, but we all seem to come together to support our Husky teams. The fans at EPJ are very important to our athletes. They keep them energized and ready. Seniors Josh Guenther and Sarah Patnaude tied for the number one spot of the craziest fans! J. Guenther can fondly remember the crazy moments he spent at all the HS games. Everyone can say they have seen Josh and his famous lawn chair, that appears at every game he attends, and we will never forget the flashlight incident at a Dakota Valley GBB game.

When S. Patnaude isn't playing in a Husky game you can find her in the stands, or out on the court as the Husky mascot doing the YMCA in front of the refs. Sarah has also been known to be a SUPER FAN for a few games and had the wardrobe to prove it.

Senior A. Glover and sophomore B. Schmitz show their Husky strength at a boys basketball game against Akron-Westfield.

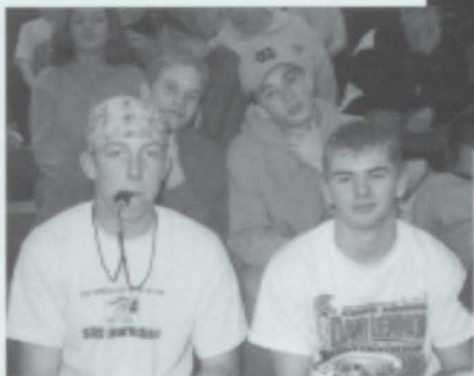

Senior J. Guenthner sits in the famous lawn chair, while supporting the girls volleyball team at a home game vs. Harrisburg.

S. Patnaude, a.k.a. S. Patnaude, can't stop herself from getting the crown worked up during a boys basketball home game against Akron-Westfield.

The Lucky Huskies

The theme of the 2001 homecoming was MOVIES. The students particularly found the idea very fun. As usual they picked out float themes. From there, the homecoming spirit was back with a boom! The night finally came when the student body would not be left in suspense any longer. Everyone entered the gym quietly like mice because they were so nervous. Then the moment came. The gym was quiet and everyone was watching the stage as T. Curran announced the king, Troy VanRoekel, and queen, Sarah Patnaude, the crowd went wild!! The student body was absolutely thrilled. It was an exciting event. Due to the rain outside, after coronation everyone stayed in the gym for a pep rally which was hosted by the cheerleaders. That concluded the evening's events.

LOOKED as a Dog's Hind Leg

Every year it has become tradition for the seniors to take home the bone. Whether it be by cheating or athletic ability, they always end up on top of the doggy pile. This year was no exception. An overwhelming response from the student body proved that it was brains over brawn for these lucky dogs.

Homecoming week continued with the annual barbecue in the city park and the Husky Games immediately followed. Everyone got their fill of Mr. Daily's delicious pork loin sandwiches, chips, popcicles, and pop.

Stuffed, we made our way down to the football field for the start of the annual Husky Games. This year's games included: the three legged race, pudding eating contest, egg race, football toss, hula hoop pass, paper plate race, pyramid build, and wheelbarrow race. We ended the day with the grand finale tug-of-war.

No matter how hard the seniors pulled, they were still defeated by the small dog freshmen. Brian Curry can't understand how they lost because like every year before, he wore the same pair of underwear for a week straight.

Spoon River Anthology

One Act Play

In 1914, poet Edgar Lee Masters assembled a landmark collection of poems entitled Spoon River Anthology. In it, he revealed the lives of the inhabitants of an imaginary town called Spoon River. Through a series of monologues, the characters of the town reveal themselves, their lives, their hopes, their dreams. As in many small towns, the stories of their lives are intertwined and woven into the fabric of the community. In this play based on the original monologues, we meet some of the inhabitants of Spoon River, now dead and in the cemetery on the hill. As the curtain opened, travelers payed their respects to the dead of Spoon River.

Friends

It's hard to believe it's time to go
Leave this way of life, spread our wings and grow
Say goodbye to those friends that we hold dear to our hearts
Shedding tears for we'll be so far apart
Remembering all the good times and even the bad
Including the fights we sometimes had
Through the tears and the pain
Friendship was our gain
We stuck together through sunshine and rain, laughs and shouts
We found out what true friends were all about
So as our senior year comes to an end
We'll carry in our hearts our special friends
And take with us all the memories
Made that very first August day!

The Golden Chain of Friendship

Friendship is a golden chain,
The links are friends so dear,
And like a rare and precious jewel
It's treasured more each year...
It's clasped together firmly
With a love that's deep and true,
And it's rich with happy memories
And fond recollections, too...
Time can't destroy its beauty
For, as long as memory lives,
Years can't erase the pleasure
That the joy of friendship gives...
For friendship is a priceless gift
That can't be bought or sold,
But to have an understanding friend
Is worth far more than gold...
And the golden chain of friendship
Is a strong and blessed tie
Binding kindred hearts together
As the years go passing by.
