What has changed since you were in High School?

Name: Ms. Ahmann
One big difference is all the technology. We didn't even have calculators when I was in high school. My school didn't have girls sports. All we had was boys basketball. So all the different sports for both boys and girls is very different.

What has changed since you were in High School?

Name: Mrs. Baagoe
Most high school students rode the bus to school, couldn't chew gum, discipline was harsher, and everyone had p.P.E. 3 times a week. We didn't have as many required math and science courses. We were the pioneers of getting to wear pants to school, but back then they couldn't be blue jeans, they had to be dress pants or a pant suit.

Sports Stories

I have always been a goalie, so when my soccer coach called me up to substitute, I put my goalie gloves on, he looked at me and said "you don't need to put those on," I was stumped for a minute until it hit me, I was going on the field. I was immediately excited when I went in, but I was so slow, I couldn't run, of course, I never had to until now. The ball came to me and I could hear my mom on the sidelines "Go Lydia Go, take it and SHOOT!!" I dribbled the ball up in front of the goalie and closed my eyes and shot. I SCORED! I couldn't believe it, 12 years of playing soccer and I scored my first goal my senior year. I have never been more excited in my life. My team came up behind me and congratulated me; it felt good to have a team supporting you, and you know what? It feels even better when it is the game winning goal!

Lydia Gille

I think the most memorable part of our basketball season was the Big Sioux Conference Tournament which we went on to win. Our school has not reigned as girls basketball conference champions in over a decade, so that was neat, and it was the first time our team really began to click and flow. It was a lot of fun and those games hold good memories.

Michelle Corio

In cross country this year, it was a good year. It was my last year running cross country. One of my favorite memories from the cross country season is when Jordyn Hudelson and I would jam out to her rap music on her i-pod on the way to the cross country meets. It was a good time and I will never forget it!

It was the Bon Homme dual. I was one of the last people to wrestle and it was a very exciting dual between the Elk Point Jefferson Huskies and the Bon Homme Cavaliers. Everybody was wrestling really hard and I do normally get butterflies in my stomach before a match, but we needed me to win for us to have a chance at winning the dual. My match came up I went out there and took him down and put him to his back and got a five count which is three back points in wrestling, so I was up five zero. Then he rolled me and I was on my back for a five count and I got out, so at the end of the 1st period it was tied five-five. Start of the second period he took down he escaped and it was six to five. He took me down so it was eight to five, end of the second period. I took neutral, that's where both wrestlers are up. With thirty seconds left in the match, I took him down again with the same move I used to take him down in the first period and I put him to his back again for a five count, and I ended up winning 10 to 8. I was so happy that I had won. Even though we lost the dual, I was excited to finally get a good hard fought win that I thought I was the better wrestler in that match!

SophomoreSPOTLIGHT

Q: As a sophmore playing varsity, how does it feel to be moving up on the team?

A: It feels awesome to know that I am improving in the game. It was kind of nervewracking in the beginning because I had no idea what was going on, I didn't want to step on boundries so I kept to myself for the first practices. But everyone was pretty much easy to get along with!

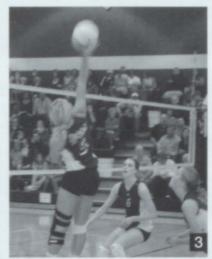

Q: What was your "motto" for playing the game?
A: Go for the jugular!

Q: How was it different playing on the varsity team this year? A: It was a faster pace of game and a lot of fun.

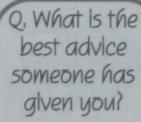

1. Shelby Larsen gives a pep talk to the girls on the varsity team at the start of a game. 2. The teams warm up their serves before a game. 3. Cassie Hilbrands spikes the volleyball in an intense match. 4. The varsity girls line up for the star spangled banner. 5. Seniors Chrissy Strassburg, Allyson Murphy and Shelby Larsen share a victory hug.

- Most Improved Player.
   Caitlin Davis
- 2. Defensive Player of the Year: Cayla Hilbrands with 514 digs
- 3. Go to Gal: Kelly Reed
- 4. Super Sub: Lexie Branson
- 5. Rising Star: Tory McCreary
- 6. Spirit Award: Michelle Corio
- 7. MVP(s): Shelby Larsen Chrissy Strassburg

A. I cant really think of the best advice someone game me, except "dont play safe." If you try not to make mistakes and "play safe," then you dont get the job done, and can end up making more mistakes. But if you just go for it and play tough, you are more likely to succeed.

Kelly Reed, #6

A. To never give up and to move on from your mistakes and correct them. Coach Kullbaum always said to me, "be the leader, step up, play your game and move on from mistakes."

Brittany Paulsen, #11

Moments to Remember

The 2009 EPJ Cross Country runners had much success during the 2009 season. The Girls team finished 1st in two meets along with many top 3 team finishes. Individually, three girls (Bobbie McLaury, Jordyn Hudelson, Mackenzie Klinkhammer) qualified for the state meet in Rapid City in which they competed very well.

The Boys team was a solid mixture of veterans and newcomers.

Derrick DeBuhr, the lone senior on the team, will be missed by the entire team. The future of EPJ cross country looks promising as many newcomers improved throughout the season.—Coach McDonald

State this year was a very fun experience. It's what we have been workin' hard for all year long. It felt great to make it to the finals. Unfortunately, I fell short of my goal. I wanted to bring home the gold, but ended up being runner-up.

French Class

Written by Amanda Brandt

French is not a lot different from other classes. Instead of handing your homework into your teacher, you hand it into an e-mentor. When you are talking to your teacher you have to make sure you're unmuted or she won't hear you. Sometimes she has to make sure she is unmuted, too! You have a website for all your grades and assignments and you check that first if you have questions. It is basically like any other class you have.

German Class

Written by Megan Weidner

German class is not offered by Elk Point-Jefferson, so senior Ross Rosenbaum has chosen to learn German through independent study. He uses one period of his day to work on his German homework and works with a professor at the University of South Dakota twice a week. Ross chose to learn German because he wants to travel in Europe later in his life.

Honor Choir

Written by Justin Boulware

I will never forget when I found out I was the only one to make 6-state region honor choir. I found out in September and had to wait until March. I counted down the months and days; I got to go to Minneapolis for three days! I was so excited. I ended up leaving a Wednesday morning and returning home Sunday afternoon. We went up a day early so we could shop all day. I ate at a ton of places I never thought of eating at. There was one restraunt called "Hell's Kitchen," but it is not based off the show. They are famous for making their homemade peanut butter which is very good! Also, it said on the menu if you order a dessert, you never know what you are going to get. There is no dessert menu, the chefs just make creations and try them out. They had pictures of different things around the walls. My favorite part was they had a red piano, how often do you see a red piano??? That was the day of fun, the next two days were singing for nine hours straight. It was hard, but fun. I met a ton of new people and had a blast! We stayed in the Hilton which was amazing! You walked in and they had gold mirror all over the lobby, which was huge! When you walked into the front entrance there was a statue of two children singing, a girl playing the flute, and a guy cello. It was so cool! We got to go to the Mall of America for three hours, it was so hard finding where I wanted to go, they had four floors in the whole mall with food around every corner. The concert was in the orchestra hall which was so cool. It had acoustic panels all over the ceiling and wall. All in all it was a very fun trip. I am glad I got to experience this with my mom, my mom's friend Heather and Mr. Rusche.

With over 20 students participating in the local contest, this year's Oral Interp season started out with a bang! On October 21, 2009, we had 24 students compete in the local contest. Considering the numbers in the teams in previous years, we were really excited to have so many excited interpers!

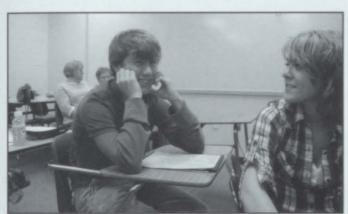

Winners from the local contest at EPJ advanced to Region competition on November 17, 2009 at Harrisburg High School. The students performed really well; however, no one advanced to the State Festival. Quite a few seniors participated this year and will be missed! This season we gained a lot of experience for future seasons and look forward to what next year will bring! — Mrs. Schutter

A. It was kinda stressful at times, but overall it was fun.

- Rebekah Bambas

Q. How long did you have to prepare for Oral Interp competition?

Team Waffles

Team Waffles consists of Maggie Christensen, Chelsea Weidner, Ulrike Hovland, Nicole Rupp, Cecil Gylfe, and Ashley Gylfe. They competed in Challenge E Breaking DI News. In this challenge the team had to find a story from a foreign news paper and reenact the story in a skit. They also had to use all recycled materials for their props and costumes. The team had to create and test a structure made of newspaper. The structure had to hold weight.

Team DI-lightful Puppeteers

This high school team consisted of Howard Smith, Morgan Smith, Skylar Petrick, Stephanie Davis, Jessica Gates, and Rebecca Smith. They competed in Challenge C You're Gonna Flip! In this challenge they made a skit in which a character had a change in their point of view. The team created a story of a lumber jack who decides not to cut down trees because of a magical pixie who shows him that trees are good and help us. The team placed at regional and state competition and has been given the chance to go to Global Competion.

Brothers & Sisters

Siblings

Megan and Chelsea Weidner

igh school can be tough.
Many upperclassmen's biggest pains are those siblings that followed them into high school. They cause the fear of embarrassment, the ache of playing chauffeur, and the ever present threat of the pet names. And really, do I HAVE to say "hi" to you everyday before 4th period when we pass each other in the hallway?? Yes, we go to school together, yes you are my sister, but freshman, leave me alonell The other problem is that everyone knows. I am a senior in high school, don't I deserve a better name than "Chelsea's sister?" She irritates me, of course, but also this year I learned that she's getting old. I still think she's little but she's also in high school, and she talks to boys, and she is in the same activities as me. She can even drive a car now! Being in high school together has also made us friends. I might, just maybe, miss her next year.

King & Queen

King Derrick DeBuhr

Winning Prom King was a good feeling. It felt nice knowing that people liked me enough to vote for me for prom King. It's not a feeling that very many people get to feel, so I felt honored to have the title "Prom King."

Queen Amber Nearman

When I heard my name called for prom queen, I was really surprised. It was a really good feeling to know that classmates voted for me. It made me happy to know my classmates liked me enough to vote for me. Not many people are able to feel this feeling so it was an honor to be prom queen.
