Sibling Stories:

When I was about 3 years old, I finally had a lot of hair, and my parents went to run some errands, so they left us with a babysitter. When the babysitter went into the kitchen my brothers smeared peanut butter all over me and cut off all my hair with a pair of scissors. My parents were furious.

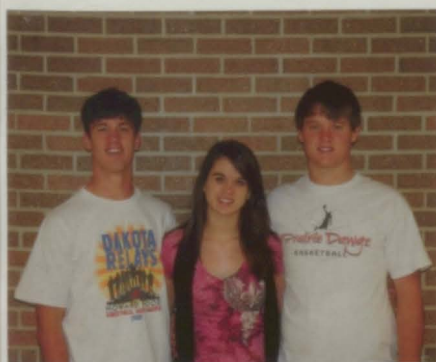

-- Katie Zeller

One day, my friends and I were swimming in the pool. Josh thought it would be funny to throw water dynamite into the pool. So he came crawling around the corner and all of the sudden we see smoke and then heard a splash. Water was shooting in all directions, and splashing us in the face!! We knew right away it was Josh when we heard him laughing.

In The End ZOMBIES

Tyler Hall and Jackson Yates wrote and directed this play entirely on their own. (with a little help from Kirsten Colt and Dustin Rusche) The actors in the play practiced for almost three months on this forty-five minute play with only one performance night for the public. (which was a huge success)
