Elk Point-Jefferson 2012

Asst. Coach Aileenbrey- "It was a season where the ball just didn't bounce the right way for the Huskies. The team finished with just one win; however, three of EPJ's losses were tight, close-knit contests within 9 points. The injury bug played a role in the Husky season with players getting hurt at inopportune times. The team battled through the obstacles they faced to put together a good run. They gained a lot of experience, as many freshmen, sophomores, and juniors got to see plenty of action playing alongside the seniors. The athletes worked hard throughout the entire season from start to finish."

Coach Kalda - "This year we are saying goodbye to a great group of seniors. The EPJ XC team had two runners compete at the state track meet, freshman Josie Heeren and sophomore Hunter Paulsen. As with anything in life, success should not be measured by the number of medals we win, but by athletes going above and beyond what is expected. I have learned that XC needs to be given a lot of respect and to do what each member of the team did this year deserves recognition, as they all had a great deal of success."

Coach Nebelick- "As I look back on the season, I am not satisfied with the way it ended, but I am very pleased with the effort, progress, and attitude that the girls carried throughout the season right up to the end. Their willingness to learn, desire to get better, and work ethic in practice and games was extremely satisfying! At the start of the year, our two main goals were to give ourselves a chance in every game we played and to win a District Title. We were literally within seconds of the District Title. Of our eight losses, five were by six points or less, and in two of the other three, we had leads in the 4th quarter, so we came very close to accomplishing our task. I have coached basketball for 29 years and this was a very enjoyable season!"

Coach Knippling- "I think our team discovered a motto this year that they can hopefully take and apply beyond the basketball court. "WIN WITHIN" was the mindset this team seemed to adopt and that is what we think is important. As long as we put in our best effort to prepare and compete, we should always be able to look in the mirror at the end of the day and feel like our day was a success."

Wrestling

Coach Kalda- "The 2012-2013 wrestling season saw its share of ups and downs. The Huskies took a major blow with season ending injuries to Alex McLaury and Lukas Foreling, but the young team bounced back quickly, lead by two senior veterans, Nick Weis and Jared Limoges. As the season progressed, the young Huskies began to wrestle with more confidence and began to win the close matches that they were losing earlier in the season. It was exciting to sit back and watch the development of our young wrestlers. Nick Weis and Jared Limoges have great character and a great work ethic that was shown on and off the mat, and I hope that our underclassmen saw what it takes to be a leader. They will be missed."

Jarod shot a 74 in the middle of the season at the Vermillion Invite and later just missed joining his teammates going to state at the region tournament. Both Brandon and Connor faired very well on the variety as they increased their average by nine and seven strokes respectively. We have much to look forward to next year, but we need some numbers!"

"Mother Nature was angry this year. Snow, rain, wind, clouds. It was challenging to say the least. The bright spot was having plenty of one-on-one time with my "team"! They improved their game a great deal from the beginning of the season and I'm looking forward to next Spring already!"

Boy's Track

Coach Kalda- "The Boys track squad took it to new levels this year with a record setting 35 athletes competing. Due to great leadership, we were able to pull many new comers as well as veterans, that have competed before. This shows great commitment that these individuals have for all of the other athletics at EPJ as they are willing to step out of their comfort zone to make themselves and their teammates better. It is a sign of good things to come for EPJ. There is a great senior class that has been committed to this sport that will be missed greatly."

Favorite Memory:

"When we were younger, (I was a baby at the time), I was sticking my tongue out at my dad, and Josh bounced by us on his bouncy ball and crashed into all of the toys on the floor!"

-Lauren Doedall

"One time, I convinced Ian to get into this big box we found. We stuffed the box with pillows and told him to go down the stairs. He was a little skeptical because it looked "unsafe." However, he got in and started to go down the stairs. Then, all of a sudden, the box flipped, and he landed on his face at the bottom of the stairs. No worries though, he got up laughing."

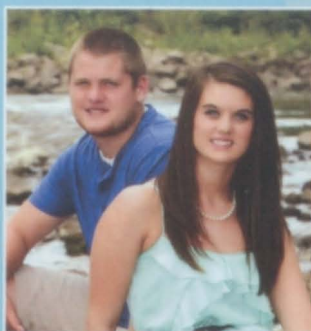

-Hannah Klinkhammer

"When Noah and I were little we lived in a small town, probably at the most 6 (small) blocks long. We would walk to a friends house 2 blocks away and hang out. When we wanted to come home, we never wanted to walk "all the way back", which was literally a 3 minute walk. We would call my dad on this payphone 2 blocks away, which was weird because it would still work without money if you screamed loud enough. Long story short, Noah and I were lazy and didnt ever want to walk so we would call my dad and scream through the payphone for him to come pick us up, a whopping 2 blocks away."

-Taylor Buckley

"I think my best memories of Gabi, Alex, and I are all the food fights we seemed to initiate with our grandpa. I can't think of a time when someone "slipped" and flung food at someone, and we didn't end up with a full-fledged food war. Suddenly we all had more food in our hair and on our clothes than in our mouths!"
