THE DISTRICT & COMMUNITY

Lompoc is located 150 miles northwest of Los Angeles in Santa Barbara County. Lompoc is the support city for Vandenberg Air Force Base, the aerospace center of the West Coast. There is a diverse labor base in Lompoc, although agriculture, mining, oil development and aerospace are major categories in the area.

Lompoc Unified School District is the largest employer with Lompoc Valley Medical Center and the Lompoc Federal Correctional Complex coming in 2nd and 3rd.

Lompoc Unified School District serves approximately 9,600 TK-12 students. The District offers a wide range of programs for students. There are opportunity classes at the middle and high school levels and there are specialists at all levels who provide support for multilingual students, migrant students, gifted and students with special needs. The District also offers a K-8 Dual Language Immersion pathway that will expand to the high school level in coming years. LUSD is proud of its dedicated administrative, teaching and support staff, involved families, community partnerships, equity work, and high graduation rates.

The District consists of nine elementary schools, two middle schools, two comprehensive high schools, one alternative high school, one community day school, one independent study, one charter school and an adult education program. A demographic study reveals that 15% of students are English learners, 66% of families are considered socio-economically disadvantaged and LCFF unduplicated count is 68%. 0/8% of our population is foster youth.

The Lompoc Unified School District Mission Statement "The Board of Education is committed to district-wide actions which lead students to develop the skills, knowledge and character traits necessary to become responsible, thriving and contributing members of society " is the foundational principle that guide and direct the work and the culture in Lompoc Unified School District.
