

Competency level	The student
1	- can understand some concrete and simple words and expressions - can follow short, clear and simple instructions - can find/recognize familiar and specific words in a simple text - can find/recognize simple information in pictures and simple texts - can connect familiar and specific words within the same topic, for example homework and school - can recognize some learned grammatical expressions in a context
2	- can understand some common words, expressions and simple sentences - can find/recognize information in pictures and simple texts - can find/recognize specific details in a longer text - can understand the main content of a simple text - can find/understand simple information in written and spoken texts even when there is some competing information - can connect information in a simple text - can place information from a simple text in the correct order - can recognize and use some simple forms of verbs and function words in a context
3	- can understand a number of less common words and expressions - can find/recognize information in some complex sentences and in adapted texts of various lengths - can understand the main content of an adapted text - can find/understand information in written and oral texts even when there is competing information - can connect information from different parts of a text - can use the context to understand difficult parts of a text - can interpret/have an overall understanding of a text so that they find the answer even if it is not found directly in the text - can place information from a text in the correct order - can recognize and use basic grammatical structures and function words in a context