World History II

Grade 10

Honors

The story of humankind continues in this course that enables the student to comprehend the general principles of historical investigation and their application. Students study the Enlightenment, rise of the nation state in Europe, the French Revolution, and the economic and political roots of the modern world. They study the origins and consequences of the Industrial Revolution, 19th century political reform in Western Europe, and imperialism in Africa, Asia, and South America. They will explain the causes and consequences of the great military and economic events of the past century, including World War I, the Great Depression, World War II, the Cold War, and the Russian and Chinese revolutions. Finally, students will study the rise of nationalism and the continuing persistence of political, ethnic, and religious conflict in many parts of the world. The reading, analysis and interpretation of primary source documents, maps, data and political cartoons are a key feature of this course. Upon completion, students will have demonstrated the ability to draw evidence-based conclusions regarding historical events and the ability to connect those events to current global events.
