The image shows a screenshot of the 'Grades' section in the Common App. At the top, there are three status indicators: 'Current or Most Recent Secondary/High School', 'Other Secondary/High Schools', and 'Colleges & Universities', each with a green checkmark and an upward arrow. Below this is a blue header for 'Grades' with a downward arrow. The main section contains several input fields and radio buttons:

- 'Graduating class size (approx.)*' with a text input containing '577'. A red callout box points to this field with the text 'Size for Class of 2023: 577'.
- 'Class rank reporting' with radio buttons for 'Exact', 'Decile', 'Quintile', 'Quartile', and 'None'. The 'None' option is selected. A red callout box points to this section with the text 'Ranking: None'.
- 'GPA Scale reporting' with a dropdown menu showing '4'. A red callout box points to this field with the text 'GPA Scale: 4'.
- 'Cumulative GPA*' with a text input containing '3.8'.
- 'GPA weighting' with radio buttons for 'Weighted' and 'Unweighted'. The 'Unweighted' option is selected. A red callout box points to this section with the text 'GPA Weighting: Unweighted'.

Honors

- Colleges are interested in this information because it helps them understand the achievements that are especially important to you. These honors and distinctions might include academic honors, sports awards, placing in musical competitions, and/or awards in photography or debate contests. If you don't have any honorable mentions, you could also choose to add more activities in this space if you need to!

Community Based-Organizations

Future Plans

TESTING

- Option to self-report test scores and any future tests you are registered for.

ACTIVITIES

- Do you wish to report? YES!!!! Fill out your activities. Whether it is helping your younger sibling with tutoring, clubs, jobs, etc. It all counts! For some helpful tips on filling out your activities list, visit HERE.

WRITING

- Here is a great place to SHINE! You are all unique individuals, and your colleges want to get to know you better! Brainstorm, write, edit, get feedback, and rewrite. A Stanford Admissions Rep once told us: "If you were to lose this essay and one of your friends picked it up and it didn't have your name on it, they would still know it is yours because it is personal and shows who you are". And that is the point of the essay, for colleges to get to know you, to almost feel like you are in the room with them, so be real, be you, and be sure to spend time on this! For some great free college essay and supplemental essay tips, visit the college guys' website HERE for a bunch of freebies!
