Amy Rye

Amy,

Congratulations! It is hard for us to believe our little girl is graduating from high school. It seems like just yesterday we were dropping you off for your first day of school. You have such a warm, caring and funny personality, which will take you far. We are very proud of you and your accomplishments, and we will always cherish all the wonderful memories. Believe in yourself and follow your dreams as you enter this new chapter in your life.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Amy,

I can't believe my little sister is all grown up and ready to take on what college has to offer. I'll always remember the good times we shared and will continue to do so. Good luck in your pursuit in being a joy for everyone you meet in the medical field. I know you will try your hardest.

Love your big bro,
Big Wood

P.S. I got it!!! *Kicks door open*

Peter Rowe

Peter,

We remember like it was yesterday the little boy with the big brown eyes leading his pack of younger brothers into new adventures of every kind. And now in what seems to be a blink of an eye, you're a young man about to graduate from high school! Still leading and seeking adventures of every kind, but now with those big brown eyes wide open to the endless possibilities of the world.

What a privilege it has been to be the parents of a son like you. Your maturity beyond your years and your quiet wisdom and "can do" attitude in any situation inspires us to thank God for His influence in your life, and your willingness to follow Him. All that, and a rockin' drummer too! Big things are in store for you Peter, and we will always be there cheering you on.

Prov. 3:5&6

Love, Mom & Dad

Although you've outgrown the space under the sewing machine, you'll always be our little "Pippy". We could not be more proud of the young woman you've become. Our spirits soar when we think of the open road that lies ahead of you.

Mom, Dad, Mark, Kaelin and Adam

Ash,

Never could I imagine that two sisters could fight as much as we did, but through the years we have shared great memories and laughs together that will last a lifetime. So, go out there and be the best you can be in the big world. Thanks for supporting me in everything I do. I will always love you! Congratulations!

With So Much Love,
Your Little Sister,
Katie

Ryan Trees

Dear Ryan,

We are so incredibly proud of the young man that you have become. You are a friend to many, a leader, a teammate, and a son to the luckiest parents on the face of the earth.

Please always remember a few things:

-If you have to choose between the right decision and the easy decision, always choose the right decision.

-If you have a dream, chase it with everything you have. All things are possible.

-Remain a cheerleader to those in your life. Stay positive!

We love you very much and look forward to watching and participating in the future chapters of your life. It is going to be a very special ride. LUL.

Love,
Mom and Doug

Christopher Troiano

Christopher,

Here you are on your first day of Kindergarten and very soon you will stand before the camera in your cap and gown. Wow, it is hard to believe how quickly the years have gone by. I am so very proud of you for all of your accomplishments and more importantly the incredible person you have become. You have worked very hard academically, while juggling all of your athletic activities to include travel, which takes a great deal of self motivation, discipline and drive. You have and continue to provide such joy in my life and the lives of your entire family. Continue to follow your dreams as they will always lead you in the right direction...your family will be right behind you all the way.

Love,
Mom

Dear Chris,

Thanks for being such a great brother. I will miss you very much next year.

With love from your sister,
Alexa
