How Can We Help?

Support for Pregnant and Parenting Teens is a voluntary program focused on helping pregnant and parenting teens graduate from high school. Some of our services include:

*Weekly individual and group sessions.

*Individualized high school path, including credit recovery options, online and during the summer.

*Home visits/wellness checks in collaboration with StayWell Health Center to teach parenting skills and provide resources.

*Guidance from a Registered Nurse and Program Coordinator with prenatal/postnatal health, medical assessments, scheduling medical appointments, and more.

*Assistance with diapers, wipes, and other essential items.

*Separate and combined groups for mothers and fathers.

Eligibility is based off of three main factors:

1. Must stay enrolled in a Waterbury Public School.
2. Must be a pregnant or parenting male or female.
3. Must be willing to learn and actively participate.

*Fatherhood program to support and involve teen dads

*Regular events offered for SPPT members and their families.

*Summer Workforce Program through local agencies.

*And much more!
