Impact Report

FROM THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES CHAIR

MIA BASS, Campbell '25 and Elizabeth '29

“We deeply appreciate the contributions each member of our special community makes to create an extraordinary school and supportive environment for our students.”

Within these pages, you will see the truly inspiring generosity of our Day School community. You may notice a difference in this year's report, which we are calling an “Impact Report,” instead of the traditional Annual Report. By sharing our donors' stories and illustrating the impact of each dollar, we celebrate the ways in which this community lifts up the Day School.

The 2021–2022 academic year was of particular importance in the history of St. Patrick's, as Peter Barrett's twenty-eight year tenure as Head of School came to a close. He made innumerable contributions to the lives of thousands of students and their families in a career that culminated in his decisive leadership during the pandemic.

I remain incredibly grateful to past parents Blair Giannini and Jill Wiley White who led the charge in celebrating Peter's remarkable tenure. They assembled a terrific group of volunteers to orchestrate the Service of Celebration at the Washington National Cathedral, A Lasting Legacy Gala, and the Sustaining Excellence endowment fundraising in honor of Peter. We are so thankful to all who attended the events, submitted memories and well wishes, or made a gift to the endowment to support access, inclusion, and financial sustainability at the Day School.

In the same year, we began to welcome, and get to know, our incoming Head of School Jalene Spain Thomas. After a thorough search process, it was a joy for me to see the community's enthusiastic response to Jalene at her introductory Town Hall. She spent the second half of the year increasing her on-campus presence by attending Day School events and Middle School sports games. Behind the scenes, Jalene slowly integrated into leadership by meeting monthly with her Transition Committee, which has representation from the Board of Trustees, Administration, Faculty, and the Parish. Peter and Jalene also met throughout the year to allow for her smooth transition. It has been a collective effort to onboard a new Head of School and I am impressed, but not surprised, by the teamwork and willingness of those involved.

The following report illustrates the strength of our generous community. Our traditional fundraisers, the Annual Fund and IDEALS, raised 7% of our operating revenue, providing critical support to enhance the program for our students and provide funds to ensure mission-based priorities like socioeconomic diversity. This year, our community went above and beyond their typical generosity to also make a significant impact on the endowment in honor of Peter. This is evidence of our families rallying around, with dedication and commitment, not only Peter but each other and future Day School families. Truly a mark of altruism characteristic of our donors.

Harv Lester and Don McMinns served admirably as Annual Fund Co-Chairs anchored by their motivational theme, Engage, Inspire, Dream. The Annual Fund is our top philanthropic priority and the second-largest income stream after tuition dollars. The Lester McMinns and their Leadership Council encouraged more than 600 community members to make $1.2 million in gifts to the Day School. The Board of Trustees and faculty and staff, 100% of whom made an Annual Fund gift, set the bar high for other donors. 92% of our current parents answered the call to give generously to support our students and our faculty and staff as they strived to create a dynamic and supportive school environment amidst the continuing challenges of the pandemic.

Please join me in thanking the Fund-A-Scholar IDEALS Auction Co-Chairs, Elizabeth Engel, Shannon Powell McCarter, and Tashia Senn-Jones, who capably negotiated pandemic challenges to steer the course of an in-person Auction reminiscent of Auctions past in late April rather than early March. As we embraced Bouncing Back to the '90s, the Day School community was thrilled to gather together to celebrate our IDEALS (Inclusion, Diversity, Excellence, Agency, Learning, and Scholarship). The tribute to Peter at his last Auction as Head of School brought the room to its feet for a lengthy standing ovation. Incredible generosity from the bidders and donors to Fund-A-Scholar was strong evidence that Wolfhounds live out their values. Thanks to a true dedication to socioeconomic diversity, $448,000 was raised to help students from a broad range of financial circumstances benefit from an excellent education. Another record-setting Fund-A-Scholar paddle-raise of $407,575 helped fuel this success.

We deeply appreciate the contributions each member of our special community makes to create an extraordinary school and supportive environment for our students. We truly couldn't accomplish such important work without you. Thank you so much for all of your individual and collective contributions to making St. Patrick's a vibrant learning environment, particularly during these challenging times. I look forward to another opportunity for our community to come together in support of the Day School, our students, and our faculty and staff in the 2022–2023 school year!

Gratefully,

Mia Bass

IMPACT OF YOUR GIFTS

Here are just a few of the activities and initiatives that our generous community of supporters have made possible with their gifts to the Annual Fund:

The addition of a second full-time school counselor to support students' social-emotional growth and well-being.

Robust staffing in homeroom, learning specialist, and special-subject settings to create the most effective environments for teaching and learning for all of our students.

Training faculty members, using theories from Elena Aguilar's *The Art of Coaching, to become growth mentors for other faculty members.

The growth of parent/student/faculty affinity groups across campus for members of the school community from Jewish, Latinx, Spanish-speaking, Asian, and African-American backgrounds. Affinity groups provide a space for students and families to explore their own identities and connect with others with whom they identify.

The addition of a fully equipped shed supports our teachers' garden curriculum and allows more students to enjoy and learn in our Garden & Outdoor Learning Space.

A thriving athletics program that earned another Sportsmanship Award for the sixth time in seven years.

Hosting the Mid-Atlantic Episcopal School Association (MAESA) Spring Scholars Fair for the first time in over 25 years, welcoming upper elementary and middle school students to campus to compete in academic and artistic competitions.

An ongoing commitment to keeping a St. Patrick's education within reach of families of various economic circumstances by minimizing tuition increases and helping to robustly fund a Financial Aid Program that provides assistance to 25% of our student body.

Competitive salaries for those essential to the success of this important work, our faculty and staff.

Why do we support St. Patrick's Annual Fund? Because it helps pay for the things that improve the St. Patrick's experience for everyone – students, parents, teachers, and staff; because it helps support the school's efforts to offer competitive compensation and training opportunities to teachers and staff and provides extra resources when the school is designing creator labs or installing a sports deck; because by supporting the operating budget, the Annual Fund helps sustain a healthy financial aid budget that promotes economic diversity among the student body; because St. Patrick's has made a positive difference in our children's lives and, in turn, has made a difference to us. We are incredibly grateful to the wonderful St. Patrick's community that came together this year to raise $1.2 million to support the 2021-2022 Annual Fund. It is through that generosity that we all help sustain the nurturing and supportive environment that is St. Patrick's.”

WHY I GIVE

"I love this place, and I love this community. I have worked here for 31 years. This is my school, my church, and my home. I've watched my students grow, attended their weddings, and been with them at their children's baptisms. I've seen this place evolve. At the time that Peter Barrett joined, 28 years ago, this was a small school. He transformed it into a large, thriving community. Our Episcopal identity and curricular approach have combined to make St. Patrick's the institution that it is. I give to St. Patrick's because I care about this place and the people that animate it, and I believe in the values we teach."

WHY WE GIVE

"We have been part of the St. Patrick's family since our eldest enrolled in the PK program in 1983. Our grandsons are now enrolled at the school and we have been watching them thrive, just as our daughter did. Not only do we see them blossoming academically, but we also watch them uphold the wonderful values that the Day School teaches.

St. Patrick's feeds both their minds and their souls.

We give to St. Patrick's to enable the school to sustain the excellence of their programs and facilities and to support the wonderful staff who provide a loving and caring environment for our grandchildren."

Sarah Jane Hughes and A. James Barnes

We give to St. Patrick’s so that their caring and nurturing faculty and staff continue to do their exceptional work with present and future generations of St. Patrick’s students.”

WHY WE GIVE

“St. Patrick’s has served as our family’s second home for many, many years. This special place allowed for our cultivation and development as individuals and as members of a larger community. We are so grateful for being part of a community that taught us the importance of integrity, the value of friendship, the power of teamwork, and the joy of learning. St. Patrick’s instilled within us values that last a lifetime, and we continue to draw on those values today. We give to St. Patrick’s to help sustain and enhance the wonderful St. Patrick’s experiences that so many of us alumni remember fondly and which so many students look forward to day after day.”

WHY WE GIVE

The Day School offers an excellent and rigorous academic program, and delivers it in a fun way that does not intimidate the students. Our daughter, Finn, had a seamless transition into the school and she is very happy here. She comes home bragging about her accomplishments and singing the songs she learns in chapel. What matters most to us is for our children to develop into good people who love learning, and St. Patrick's does a superb job of nurturing these qualities in their students. We are very fortunate to be able to afford such an education for our children, and we give to Fund-A-Scholar to provide the opportunity of a St. Patrick's education to children from all circumstances. This is critically important to us and one of our top philanthropic priorities. Diversity in all its forms is essential, and economic diversity is a big part of this.

FINANCIAL AID BENEFICIARY SPOTLIGHT

HOW YOUR GIFTS HAVE IMPACTED LIVES

As part of our mission to create a socioeconomically diverse learning community, St. Patrick's is committed to providing the opportunity for students from various economic circumstances to attend the Day School. Your gifts make this reality possible, and we are deeply grateful.

Included here is the story of one of our many exceptional alumni who were beneficiaries of the Financial Aid Program.

Clinton James joined the Infant Toddler Center at St. Patrick's when he was only a few months old and left in 2006, after completing his Grade 8 year. He went on to attend St. Andrew's Episcopal School and later earned a bachelor's degree in history and secondary education with a minor in political science from Longwood University. Committed to the field of education and student advancement, he also earned a master's degree in educational leadership and policy studies from the University of Richmond, while working as a 6th grade US history teacher at Sussex Central Middle School in 2019. Today, Clinton is the Assistant Principal at Sussex Central Middle School, and he is happily married to his wife, Rachel, with one son, Carty. He has already taken the first step in his educational leadership journey.

What impact do you think St. Patrick's had on your life?

"St. Patrick's gave me a solid foundation on which I built the rest of my life. My teachers were always warm and welcoming and they gave me all the attention and time that I needed to succeed. School was not always easy for me and although I may not have appreciated the extra care I was given at the time, I now see how crucial it was to my development. The stronger your foundation, the higher you go, and I clearly see the impact that St. Patrick's continues to have on me until this day."

Why did you choose to go into education?

"I had always worked with children. I helped out with the summer program at St. Patrick's for several years, where I was a counselor in training and, later, a classroom teacher. I also really appreciated the dedication I saw in my teachers and the impact that had on their students. Both my parents are educators as well so, in the end, it just made sense."

What is your favorite memory of St. Patrick's?

"I have so many great memories of St. Patrick's! I actually can't remember a single negative one. My favorite one might have to be the Kindergarten Circus. I got to smash a pie in the Head of Middle School's face! I still smile when I remember that."

Why do you think that gifts to support financial aid are important?

"Diversity and diverse viewpoints matter. Bringing this into the classroom is crucial, and sharing different experiences and perspectives is so important to communities and to child development. Financial aid gives children from different backgrounds the opportunity to attend St. Patrick's, an opportunity that would otherwise not be available to them. On the one hand, you're helping give those children a solid foundation and setting them up for future success and, on the other hand, you're bringing diversity into the school and into the classroom. It's a win-win situation for everyone, and, with those gifts, you're potentially changing the trajectory of people's lives (and arguably the world) for the better."

“It was an honor and a privilege to celebrate in-person with the St. Patrick’s community at the IDEALS Auction this year, especially with both outgoing Head of School, Peter Barrett, and incoming Head of School, Jalene Spain Thomas, in attendance. St. Patrick’s is a stronger community because of Peter’s leadership and commitment to the mission and values of IDEALS: Inclusion, Diversity, Excellence, Agency, Learning, and Scholarship, and we are excited and inspired for the future with Jalene. We are grateful to all of St. Patrick’s faculty, staff, and families for their generous contributions of time, talent, and treasure to support St. Patrick’s IDEALS and community.”

SUSTAINING EXCELLENCE: THE PETER A. BARRETT FUND FOR ACCESS AND INCLUSION

An endowed fund was established by the Board of Trustees in 2021 to honor Peter A. Barrett's 28 years as Head of School and his lasting legacy of placing students at the heart of teaching and learning at St. Patrick's. Peter's mission-focused emphasis on the importance of a diverse and inclusive school community guided the creation of this Fund to provide financial aid to students and strengthen the long-term financial sustainability of the Day School. The Fund honors Peter A. Barrett, who served as Head of School from 1994–2022, and his conviction that enrolling students from a broad range of socioeconomic circumstances helps ensure the excellence of a St. Patrick's education for all students. Thank you to our generous donors for coming together to raise more than $1,260,000 for this Fund.

The Fund honors Peter A. ## WHY I VOLUNTEER

"I love St. Patrick's because it has provided my Kindergartener, Andrew, with a second home. In addition to watching him learn and grow as an individual, it has been amazing to see how he feels a sense of ownership and belonging towards St. Patrick's. Despite the pandemic, Andrew's connection with the school, his teachers, and his friends remained strong. This is truly a special place. I volunteer my time here because I want to be as involved as I can in my child's school journey. We all have value to add to the communities we choose to be a part of, through our time, our service, and our resources. Serving the St. Patrick's community is a labor of love."

WHY I VOLUNTEER

“Our children, Birdie and Barclay, have been here since Nursery, and we are continually amazed by all the wonderful things this place has to offer. The community is strong, friendly, and wildly supportive, and the teachers are deeply invested in our children. It’s remarkable how much learning occurs with no signs of stress or pressure. St. Pat’s is filled with well-rounded, happy children, and we couldn’t ask for anything better for our kids. I volunteer my time here because it’s a wonderful way to meet people and build that sense of community. It’s also a rewarding way for us, as parents, to get involved in the school and our children’s education.”
