

RMTC-DHH

Resource Materials and Technology Center for the Deaf/Hard of Hearing

Loan Library

Free Media & Materials

The Resource Materials and Technology Center for the Deaf/Hard of Hearing (RMTC-DHH) works collaboratively with all Florida stakeholders to positively influence outcomes of students who are deaf or hard of hearing (DHH) in preparation for college, career, and life. RMTC-DHH supports families and school personnel by researching current national and state initiatives, by procuring interventions, curricula, and assessments, and by utilizing data to assist stakeholders in implementing instructional practices. Services from RMTC-DHH are available by request and free of charge.

RMTC - DHH

RMTC-DHH provides a free loan library service for educators, interpreters, professionals, and families serving students who are deaf/hard of hearing in the K-12 setting in Florida. We have an extensive collection of DVDs and books available for loan. Materials may be checked out for three weeks at a time and you may borrow as many items as you can use during that time.

Even the shipping is FREE!

The materials will arrive at your school via FedEx. Enclosed in the box you will find a pouch with a return label inside. When you are finished, affix this pouch to the outside of your box and drop it off at any FedEx store.

Create an account and start receiving free loan materials now!

<http://dhh.materials.florida-ese.org>

RMTC-DHH

Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind

207 San Marco Ave.,
St. Augustine, FL 32084

info@rmtcdhh.org

www.rmtcdhh.org

This document was developed by RMTC-DHH, a special project funded by the State of Florida, Department of Education, Bureau of Exceptional Education and Student Services through federal assistance under IDEA Part B, IDEA Part B Trust, and through an agreement with the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind.