

OLENTANGY SCHOOLS<sup>SM</sup>
Parent Academy

Hidden in Plain Sight

PRESENTED BY OLENTANGY'S PARENT ACADEMY AND DRUG FREE DELAWARE

Members of the Delaware City Police Department and the Delaware County Sheriff's Office will educate parents and caregivers on identifying the signs of possible substance use and risky behaviors in adolescents. Hidden in Plain Sight simulates a teenager's bedroom to allow adults to identify hidden drug paraphernalia and the warning signs associated with drug or alcohol misuse. Presenters will also explain various substance use trends and provide local resource information.

Hidden in Plain Sight

Thursday, December 1

7-8 p.m.

Liberty High School

Drug Free Delaware is a coalition dedicated to preventing underage drinking, the use of illegal drugs, and the misuse of prescription medication. The team is composed of individual community members and representatives from the health district, law enforcement, schools, other coalitions, mental health and recovery services and their providers, and various local organizations.