

Greenwich Public Schools Curriculum Overview

Course Name: British Literature

Personalized learning is achieved through standards-based, rigorous and relevant curriculum that is aligned to digital tools and resources.

Note: Teachers retain professional discretion in how the learning is presented based on the needs and interests of their students.

Course Description

During the last two centuries many of the world's great literary masters emerged in England. The Brontes, Huxley, Austen, Wilde, Shaw, and the Romantic Poets, as well as selected modern British writers are among the great names included in this course.

Students will acquire a core body of knowledge as well as respect for cultural contexts and points of view. Through study of a wide variety of genres, students will strengthen analytical thinking and writing skills, as well as fluent verbal expression. Emphasis is placed on students' ability to critically interpret, evaluate, and synthesize information through extensive and intensive reading and writing assignments. It is also essential that students regularly participate in class discussions, during which they pose and pursue substantive questions and communicate original thoughts effectively. Students are encouraged to explore interests, passions, and curiosity for the subject. Students are responsible for thinking independently and conducting themselves in an ethical manner.

In a coordinated K-12 effort, GPS is committed to helping students develop the academic, personal, and interpersonal capacities established in the Vision of the Graduate.

Enduring Understandings

- Social, political, and historical influences impact the construction of a novel or work of nonfiction.
- Authors employ specific elements of craft that impact meaning and effect.
- An author explores a larger idea about society and the world through writing.

Standards

Common Core State Standards

Reading

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RL.11-12.1: Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RL.11-12.2: Determine two or more themes or central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to produce a complex account; provide an objective summary of the text.

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RL.11-12.3: Analyze the impact of the author's choices regarding how to develop and relate elements of a story or drama (e.g., where a story is set, how the action is ordered, how the characters are introduced and developed).

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RL.11-12.4: Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in the text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including words with multiple meanings or language that is particularly fresh, engaging, or beautiful. (Include Shakespeare as well as other authors.)

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RL.11-12.5: Analyze how an author's choices concerning how to structure specific parts of a text (e.g., the choice of where to begin or end a story, the choice to provide a comedic or tragic resolution) contribute to its overall structure and meaning as well as its aesthetic impact.

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RL.11-12.6: Analyze a case in which grasping a point of view requires distinguishing what is directly stated in a text from what is really meant (e.g., satire, sarcasm, irony, or understatement).

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.11-12.5: Analyze and evaluate the effectiveness of the structure an author uses in his or her exposition or argument, including whether the structure makes points clear, convincing, and engaging.

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.11-12.6: Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text in which the rhetoric is particularly effective, analyzing how style and content contribute to the power, persuasiveness or beauty of the text.

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.RI.11-12.7: Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in different media or formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively) as well as in words in order to address a question or solve a problem.

Writing
