

THE MAUREEN AND BUD JOY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Application for the 2023-2024 School Term

Maureen and Morton "Bud" Joy had a devotion to their faith that was a guiding light for their entire lives. Maureen and Bud were shining examples of Christ's children, living in faith and sharing true kindness to all those around them. The love for their family was unwavering and left behind a strong family bond that remains. While Maureen lived her life for faith and family, Bud was a beloved businessman in Red Bank for many years.

The Joy's four daughters all attended Red Bank Catholic, as did many of their grandchildren. The Joy Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a student involved in campus ministry who displays a commitment to serving others in their school and community. The student is also chosen for their kindness and compassion towards others.
