

Questions?
Selena Campbell
Davis Storytelling Coordinator
secampbell@dsdmail.net

Davis

STORYTELLING 2022-2023

Theme

Tales to Remember: Stories Amplified

1 Teacher/Coach Training

Come help your students learn to tell stories in preparation for the 2023 WSU Storytelling Festival, taking place from February 27-March 1, 2023 at the WSU Ogden and Davis campuses.

Please scan to register

Please contact your teacher with questions: henall@ogden.wsu.net

Event: Weber State University Storytelling Festival Teacher Training
Where: Roy High School Library (2150 W. 4800 S., Roy, UT 84067)
When: November 3, 2022 at 4:30 pm
Presenter: Jan C. Smith
Additional: literature points will be available for attendees

WEBER STATE UNIVERSITY
2022-2023

Missed the training?
email secampbell@dsdmail.net
for a recording of the 2021 teacher workshop

Find student coaching resources here:

DSD Storytelling Website

Events! tab

3 DSD Storytelling Festival

(Student storytellers are selected from participating DSD Schools)

Thursday, January 19, 2023

Shoreline Junior High
Band and Chorus Rooms
1150 S. Westside Dr.
Layton, Utah
6:30 - 8:30

Families are invited!

Thank you for a generous donation to fund school bus transportation!

2 Individual School Storytelling Festivals

Held anytime between November 2022 -January 2023
Register 2 selected student storytellers to participate in the DSD Festival, on Jan. 19, 2023

Dual Language Immersion Schools
Encourage students to tell a story in another language.
They have a chance to be selected for the WSU Bilingual Storytelling Session!

Registration deadline:
January 13, 2023
Registration link

4

WSU Storytelling Website link

Weber State University
Shepherd Union Building
Wednesday, March 1, 2023

Bilingual Storytelling Session
Monday, February 27, 2023
10:30 am

Teachers: Register your class today!

Register by Dec. 20, 2022
Registration link

Don't delay! See your school office manager to reserve a bus!