

NASSAU BAY

Charting New Horizons

Find your Adventure!

Welcome to Nassau Bay! Our city was established to accommodate Johnson Space Center and to provide a community for astronauts, space professionals, and their families. Today, more than 60 Nassau Bay residents have visited space, and a few have walked on the moon!

Located across the street from Johnson Space Center and Space Center Houston, Nassau Bay has it all: space and science adventure, outdoor adventures, sun and water.

The city's gorgeous hotels - all within driving distance of both Hobby Airport and George Bush Intercontinental Airport - offer a variety of accommodations with more than 600 rooms.

Read on to see how the many unique aspects of Nassau Bay come together to create the perfect destination for a vacation, road trip or new home!

Space Center Houston

More info: www.spacecenter.org

The Official Visitor Center of NASA Johnson Space Center and a Smithsonian Affiliate, Space Center Houston is a must-see when you visit Nassau Bay!

Space Center Houston is the only place on Earth that gives guests an out-of-this-world journey through human adventures in space. Since 1992, this $75 million, 180,000 square foot complex has entertained and informed more than 11 million star-struck guests from every corner of the globe.

Space Center Houston features a multitude of permanent exhibits, attractions and theatres. In addition, the venue presents an amazing array of traveling exhibits and astounding events created exclusively by Space Center Houston's own creative exhibit team.

Space Center Houston always has a new exhibit or attraction to enjoy.

Education and fun!

Galaxy Lights

Take part in a festive adventure each holiday season during Galaxy Lights, sponsored by Reliant. Attendees can experience light shows, take lots of selfies and enjoy the magical atmosphere.

New in 2021 - Nassau Bay will offer its own lighting display during Galaxy Lights! Walk through stars in our Town Square, and take a photo with Saturn!

Plan to attend from November - January

Nassau Bay Wildlife Peninsula

Enter at David Braun Park -
18900 Upper Bay Road

If you're interested in birding or nature photography, you'll want to make time to visit the Nassau Bay Wildlife Peninsula!

This hidden gem is a 76-acre wetland area that is connected to Nassau Bay at the end of Harbour Drive. It features an extensive nature trail with informational signs and benches along the way. It is open to the public year-round. The peninsula is part of the Upper Coast Region Great Texas Coastal Birding Trail. This region takes you along the coast where you will find a range of bird species including egrets, herons and Roseate Spoonbills, clearly visible from viewing platforms. You may even get a glimpse of an alligator (from a safe distance, of course!).

Insects and flowers, too!

Parks and Boardwalks

One of the great things about Nassau Bay is the beautiful parks and green spaces throughout the city. The parks have a variety of amenities including picturesque boardwalks and walking trails, fishing opportunities, baseball/basketball facilities, dog parks and much more.
