

Fairview Alternative High School 2022-2023 Parent and Family Engagement Plan

Fairview Alternative High School is committed to the goal of providing quality education for every child in this district. We want to establish partnerships with parents and with the community. Everyone gains if school and homework together to support high achievement of our children. We can't do this job alone. Parents and families play an extremely important role as children's first teachers. Their support for their children and for the school is critical to their children's success at every step along the way.

Part I. Description of how the District and School will Implement Required Components

1. Fairview Alternative High School will engage parents and families who have Title I students in developing/revising the district and school Plan.
 - a. Open House - Back to School — August 31st, 2022
 - b. Family Nights: November, January, March and May
 - c. The staff will discuss the plan at the beginning of each trimester as students enter the class.The staff will be flexible to meet with families either in person or virtually.
2. Fairview Alternative High School will convene an annual meeting, at a convenient time, when the parents of participating children are available to attend. The Title I annual meeting will inform parents about the Title I program, explain the requirements of parent and family engagement and the rights and responsibilities of the parents to be involved.

Family Information Night - August 31st, 2022

- Information about Title I

- How to support your students at FAHS

3. Fairview Alternative High School will offer flexible meeting times during morning, evenings or during the school day and may provide transportation, childcare or home visits.
4. Fairview Alternative High School will involve parents in the planning and review of the school improvement plan and the joint development of the schoolwide plan when applicable. If the schoolwide plan is not satisfactory to the parents, submit comments on the plan when submitted to the district. [Section 1114(b)]
 - a. Invite specific parents to provide input in the planning and reviewing of plan
 - September 2022
 - May 2023
 - b. Gather input from the Family Information Night - survey during family night to gather information about Title I services (how are families feeling about the program)
5. Fairview Alternative High School will provide assistance to parents of Title students:

- a. Timely information about programs offered to engage in their child’s education.
- b. An explanation of the curriculum, state and local academic assessments including alternate assessments, and the achievement levels of the state academic standards.
- c. If they request, opportunities for regular meetings to hear their suggestions and participate in decisions related to their child’s education.
- d. List activities (see table below), such as workshops, conferences, classes, website, including any equipment or other materials that may be necessary to ensure success. (These activities should support families in helping their students meet academic standards)

Parent/family engagement activities	Date	Materials Needed	Other
FAHS Family Nights/Open House	Every 6 Weeks	Food
Graduation Planning	Individual Planning at Conferences Goal Setting on CLPs
Reading Strategies to promote reading at home	Fall 2022	One pager
Reading Level Books for Family Book Club / Discussions	February	Best sellers or new release books for students and families

Part II. Description of the Shared Responsibilities for High Student Academic Achievement

Fairview Alternative High School will jointly develop with Title I parents a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement to meet the State academic standards. The compact should:

FAHS staff and teachers communicate regularly with families. Communication will –

6. Describe the curriculum and instruction that help their student meet the state standards, identify where their child is performing and discuss ways the parent can support their child’s education at home and at school.
7. Talk about the importance of the teachers and parents communicating on an ongoing basis at a minimum:
 - a. Provide frequent reports to parents on their children’s progress.
 - Progress reports
 - Family Nights: September, November, January, March and May
 - b. Provide information on how parents can contact staff and staff can best contact parents, opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child’s class, and observation of classroom activities.
 - c. Make sure that two-way meaningful communication between family members and school staff is addressed and when at all possible, is in a language the parents and family members can understand.

Part III. Accessibility

Fairview Alternative High School will meet the requirements of parent and family engagement of Title I, to the extent practicable, we will provide full opportunities for the participation of parents with children with limited English proficiency, parents with children with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports in a format and, to the extent practicable, in a language such parents can understand.

- Phone calls / Emails / Texts for progress
- Student/Parent/Advisor Conferences, alternative and virtual scheduling available
- Interpreters and Liaisons at conferences and family nights
- Use of Dialog One or Talking Points to communicate with non-English speaking families.

Part IV. Family Engagement Budget

List activities for which your school plans to spend Family Engagement funds. State the estimated amount of funds the school anticipates to spend on transportation, supplies, etc. for each activity. All activities listed in this section should be activities that are included in the School and Family Engagement plan with the goal of helping families support their children succeed academically. Examples of such activities include transporting parents to conferences, food for Reading/Math event, technology training, supplies for Math night, supplies for family book club, etc.

Parent and Family Engagement Activity	Transportation -Estimate	Supplies - Estimate	Food - Estimate- not to exceed one third of PFE funds	Contracted Services - Estimate	Other
Purchase titles of books that are being taught in class so parents can discuss with their students. I will also provide talking points / discussion ideas to families.		$450
Transportation for Title 1 families to attend conferences.	$163.33

Part V. Adoption

The Fairview Alternative High School’s Parent and Family Engagement Plan has been developed jointly with, and agreed on with, parents of children participating in Title I programs, as evidenced by meeting minutes and sign-in sheets.

On September 6th, 2022, the Fairview Alternative High School and Roseville School District (ISD 623) Parent and Family Engagement Plan will be in effect for the period of the school year.

Fairview Alternative High School and Roseville School District (ISD 623) will distribute this Plan to all parents of participating Title I children and make it available to the community.

Laura Freer

(Signature of Title I Authorized Representative)

10/11/22
(Date)

Commented [1]: Please sign and date

These parents were involved with the development of this document:

Parent Name	Email Address
Keon Frazier: Regina Barnes, regina.barnes@spps.org, 952-451-8427	regina.barnes@spps.org
Donna Johnson

Commented [2]: Please include names of families who were involved in developing the plan.