

INSTRUCTION

Travel and Exchange Program

The Board of Education recognizes the value of travel and exchange programs for students to increase their understanding of the many subjects taught in school through interaction with other communities and social groups. It encourages the participation of students in these types of programs whenever the opportunity arises.

ADOPTED 9/28/00

REVISED _____